Biographical Note

Marty Sabol manages the Infectious Disease Program at the Public Health Division of the Portland Department of Health and Human Services. He oversees prevention efforts and healthcare services related to sexually transmitted and vaccine preventable diseases in the Portland area. He has served as vice-president of the Maine Public Health Association, as an advisor to the Equity Fund of the Maine Community Foundation and as a member of the GLBT Caucus of Public Health Workers with the American Public Health Association. In 1984, Sabol co-founded the Maine Lesbian and Gay Political Alliance (MLGPA), now known as EqualityMaine, serving as Secretary in 1984-85.

Description of the Papers

There are two items in this collection. The first is an undated, handmade poster advertising the play, "Oklahomo," which was put on by the "butch femme fag folly dinner theater of Bangor (underground)." The other is a guestbook from the Maine Gay Symposium, which includes members' signatures from 1975 through 1987. The collection resides in a box in the Oversize MS stacks.
