OFFICE OF EDUCATION

February 28, 1980

Dear Madelein:

I am confirming our telephone conversation about the meeting here at Colby on March 11, 1980. We will have the Robinson Room in Miller Library at 7:30 in the evening. I have simply called the topic, Women in History, with you speaking on Panco-American Women for about twenty-five minutes, and Cathie Waldron of Bowdoin talking about Latin American Women.

The size of the audience may well be small, but at least we will be celebrating Women's History Week, and getting my course off to a great start!

We would enjoy it if you can come to dinner at six o'clock with some of the Colby students. If possible for you, we will meet at my house, 47 Winter Street in Waterville, at the corner of Burleigh Street.

I am looking forward to a pleasant time. We do have a remuneration of over one hundred dollars from the college regional studies grant for you.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Mavrinac
Assist. Prof. of Education
