MISS DORCAS WESTON
47 SEWALL STREET
AUGUSTA, MAINE

September 29, 1936.

Miss Charlotte Michaud, Sewiston Journal,
Sewiston, Maine.

Dear Miss Michaud,
after reading your article on Ted Shawn in last Saturday's "Journal" I feel quite certain that you are the person who talked with Mr. Handley at Kennebunk and wrote to Mr. Edwards <sup>about Shawn</sup> here in the State Department of Education.
Mr. Handley couldn't recall your name and I have not succeeded in reaching Mr. Edwards. Any way I am taking the liberty of writing you and enclosing

MISS DORCAS WESTON

47 SEWALL STREET

a circular about the Augusta College Club's undertaking. I do hope you may be interested to come over for it and that you may succeed in interesting others in Lewiston and Auburn to come too.

As you will note on the circular, mail orders are now being received, and reserved seats will be assigned beginning Friday of this week through the eighth. After that Sexton's Drug Store will handle all sales.

Mrs. Welch here in Augusta

MISS DORCAS WESTON

47 SEWALL STREET

AUGUSTA, MAINE

is to handle our notices for the "Journal".

I do hope you are the right person -

Very Truly yours,
Dorcas Weston.
