NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

News #1: No news this issue.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

No announcements this issue.

OP/EDs:

This is your chance to spout off (or offer your insightful thoughts and opinions) about ANYTHING related to the GLBTQI community. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit. Please keep your thoughts as succinct (and civilized) as possible. Subscribers should be willing to allow at least their first name and an email address to be listed with the posting.

No one had any opinions this issue (that they wanted to have published).

EVENTS (CHANGING):

SEPTEMBER

September 21 (Wednesday) Portland. Seminar: Money Matters for the GLBTA Community of Maine. October 20 (Thursday) Portland. 2011 Catalyst for Change Award Dinner Honoring Howard M. Solomon. Howard M. Solomon, who has spent decades advocating for LGBT communities, is the 2011 Sampson Center for Diversity in Maine Catalyst for Change Award winner. The Sampson Center Catalyst for Change Award, given annually, acknowledges an individual who has been in the forefront for change regarding diversity, equality, and human and civil rights in Maine. Past recipients include Rabbi Harry Sky (2007), Dale McCormick (2008), Sallie Chandler (2009), and Allen Sockabasin (2010). Howard Solomon, a professor of history at Tufts and later University of Southern Maine, was scholar-in-residence for the Sampson Center's LGBT Collection, and invaluable to the development of that collection. His scholarship and contribution to exhibitions and public programming empowered LGBT communities and other under-represented groups in Maine. His work with EqualityMaine and Maine Initiatives reflects his wish to improve the lives of all. Thank you in advance for your thoughtful consideration of this opportunity to honor Howard. Individual dinner tickets are $50, but many sponsorship opportunities are available for individuals and businesses. Please see http://blogs.usm.maine.edu/libraries/2011/07/25/2011-catalyst-for-change-award-dinner-honoring-howard-m-solomon/ for more information or to register, or contact Susie Bock, Director of the Sampson Center for Diversity in Maine, at (207) 780-4269 or bocks@usm.maine.edu.

BUSINESSES:

NEW LISTINGS OF GLBTQI-OWNED BUSINESSES AND GLBTQI BUSINESS INDIVIDUALS:

The complete directory-to-date of folks who have asked to be listed is available on request. Also, it will be emailed to everyone every three months. If you are a GLBTQI business owner, an "out" GLBTQI business person associating with a non-GLBTQI-owned business, or a straight-owned supportive ally who wants a free listing, then contact me. I'm Zack at zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org or at 518-8663. I do not promise to answer the phone, but I do promise to listen to the voicemail and call you back, if requested.

No new businesses this issue.

JOB POSTINGS:

Posting #1: Help Wanted. A new Maine-based company will be offering "dignity and income to rural HIV+ men and women." Presently seeking: a person with talent and experience in web site implementation. Site design is already being addressed, so candidates must possess successful experience in implementing payment and ordering programs and demonstrated ability to do professional quality work. Interested candidates should present a cover letter, resume and list of links to web sites they have implemented. HIV+ men and women are especially desired. in your own words, LLC, 582 Quaker Ridge Road, Greene, ME 04236.

Posting #2: Help Wanted. in your own words, LLC is a Maine-based company creating paper goods wholesaled nationally, and dedicated to "offering dignity and income to rural, HIV+ men and women." We are looking for a few really great, HIV+ men and women for in-home, simple assembly of paper products. This is a legitimate, money-making opportunity: absolutely NOT a pyramid or ponzi scheme, absolutely NO recruitment of others, absolutely NO selling or phone calling anyone, absolutely NO financial investment on your part. The work is easy-to-do and supports our community. Materials are delivered and picked up at your home (so preference must be given to location.) Payment is for piecemeal production, so considerable income is possible. Get paid on pickup. Here is what is needed: Must be a smoke-free home (because paper absorbs smoke), dependability and responsibility, care, attention and pride in doing neat, efficient work. Send brief cover letter and resume to: in your own words, LLC, 582 Quaker Ridge Road, Greene, ME 04236.

PERSONALS:

Posting #1: Single transgendered woman, 54, seeking someone to have fun with, go shopping, just pal around. We could see how things go, and then maybe turn this into a long term relationship. If interested, please email mellanie @ mellanie462004@yahoo.com. I will answer all replies. thank you.

Posting #2: Youthful, 68 year old lesbian woman, healthy in body mind and spirit looking for friendship and companionship with other lesbians 55-70 years old. My interests include photography, loving and caring for animals, dancing, knitting, perennial gardening, reading and teaching myself to draw. I am a powerful woman and a creative thinker. I am able to see the whole picture. My beliefs include giving back to others what I have gained and viewing the world through a spiritual lens. tundrafriends@earthlink.net

SELL/BUY/TRADE/GIVE:

If you're a FAN subscriber trying to sell/buy something, want to trade for something else, or have something to give away, this is the category to post to. The FAN makes no guarantees about anything listed here, we simply provide the free listing as a service.

No listings this issue.

LIVING SPACE RENTALS or SEEKING LIVING SPACE:

If you are FAN subscriber with a living space (room, apartment, house/apartment sharing) to rent to someone, or if you are looking for a living space to rent from someone, then this is the category to post to.

Postings run for four (4) consecutive issues and may be renewed for additional 4-issue runs if you wish. Send your listings to me, Zack, at zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org.

SURRY: Mobile home for rent in Surry (near Ellsworth) - a nice single-wide mobile home in a very quiet neighborhood with almost no traffic (your closest neighbors are squirrels and an occasional rabbit), but still less than 10 minutes to downtown Ellsworth or Blue Hill. Spacious front yard, and an entire field for you to plant a huge garden, if you want. Storage shed available. Has a very large kitchen, a good-sized living room, a good-sized master bedroom and a smaller bedroom or office, washer/dryer, in-floor heat, and a recently remodeled bathroom with a huge tub, a separate shower, and lots of storage space. New roof will be constructed later this month. $625/month plus utilities. Security deposit (also $625) due with first month's rent on the day you move in. Non-smokers only. Available Sept. 1(or optionally earlier at no extra charge while the construction on the roof is happening). For more information, please contact Wayne at: wayne@mrlanguage.com.

BELFAST: Offering downtown apartments for rent. One and two bedroom units occasionally available. We offer great light, heat and hot water, parking downtown, laundry facility and trash removal. For more information on availability contact: abelfastrental@gmail.com

Gay Men's Prostate Cancer Support Group: For more information contact: Northern/Down East - gregc15@myfairpoint.net, Central Maine - mcclenahanbw@gmail.com, Southern Maine - stuarthunter@comcast.net. This support group was recently formed for gay/bisexual men who have been diagnosed with prostate cancer. Friends and partners are welcome to attend. The group offers the opportunity to share insights and discuss adjustment issues with other gay and bisexual men - whether they have recently been diagnosed or have been diagnosed and treated for prostate cancer. Our intent is to address the particular issues that arise for gay men and bisexual men with prostate cancer.

Get Out (GO) Ogunquit Get Out connects and supports gay, bisexual & questioning men through educational and community activities. This diverse mix of activities provides alternatives to bars and on-line hook up sites by drawing attention to the rise in HIV & STD infections, and the importance of establishing and maintaining a visible community. It's a safe and non-judgmental environment for the comfortable exploration of sexual identities. See http://www.googunquit.net/ for more information.

(GLAD) Gay & Lesbian Advocates & Defenders. To learn about and protect your rights under Maine's anti-discrimination law, visit GLAD's website at www.glad.org or call the free legal hotline at at 1-800-455-GLAD (1-800-455-4523). GLAD is New England's legal rights organization dedicated to ending discrimination based on sexual orientation, HIV status and gender identity and expression. GLAD's legal victories in Maine have addressed HIV discrimination, harassment of gay students, co-guardianship rights for same-sex parents, domestic partner benefits and more.

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or bocks@usm.maine.edu.

The Transgender Fund. With offices in Freeport, Maine, The Transgender Fund is a national, completely independent, 501(c)(3) tax-exempt public charitable foundation. It has been created by and for transgendered individuals. Our funding is derived from contributions by caring individuals of all levels of means. Our strength and independence come from the fact that there is no single benefactor who has seeded the Fund with a large amount of capital. Contributions you make are added to those of your sisters and brothers. Individually, they may seem modest, but collectively they add up to a powerful force that is reinvested in the support of projects fostering the well-being of all our gender variant minorities. FMI email info@tgfund.org OR check the web site at www.tgfund.org

Trans Youth Equality Foundation. Trans Youth Equality Foundation provides education, advocacy and support for transgender and gender-non-conforming children and youth and their families. Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru http://training.sprc.org as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/ Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or “The FAN” in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersex) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine only. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It’s crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?
Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it! However, outside events (such as holiday fairs, festivals, the local chamber of commerce, etc.) that are not focused on the GLBTQI community and do not have a significant GLBTQI component will not be listed in the FAN.

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, and no obscenity is allowed.

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Also, listings are posted with information as is submitted to me, and I have no independent knowledge of the accuracy, truth, or falsity of any posts, events, advertisements, job listings, rental listings, etc. Respond at your own risk. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
