BRITISH CONSUL GENERAL TO SPEAK AT UMP
NEXT TUESDAY, MARCH 10

The general public, as well as the faculty and student body of UMP is invited to hear the British Consul General, John N. O. Curle, speak at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 10, in Room 203, East Hall, at the University of Maine in Portland.

The Consul's topic is "Britain Meets the Challenge of a Changing World."

The meeting is sponsored by UMP's
International Relations Club, and James Athanus will introduce the speaker.

John Noel Ormiston Curle was born in 1915, the son of Major Noel Curle,
M. C., Royal House Artillery, and educated at Marlborough (one of the best known boys schools in England) and New College, Oxford, where he took first class honors in modern history and an M. A. degree; he represented Oxford against Cambridge and the British Universities against the Swiss Universities at downhill ski-racing. As Laming
Travelling Fellow of Queen's College Oxford he also studied at the Universities of Hamburg and Paris.

He entered the Foreign Office in 1939, but left is again in October of that year to be commissioned in the Irish Guards. After some regimental service he spent two years as a Captain in the War Cabinet Secretariat. He was recalled to the Foreign Office in 1944,
and he has served in Lisbon, Ottawa, Brussels, Stockholm, and Athens, in the last two posts as Counsellor of Embassy.

When in Sweden he competed in the world's longest cross-country ski race, the 53 mile Vasaloppl. On the occasion of Queen Elizabeth's State visit to Stockholm in 1956, he was made a Commander of the Royal Victorian Order and a Commander of the Swedish Order of the North Star. His pastimes, besides skiing, are riding to hounds and heraldry.

UMP INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB
MEMBERS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE AT MONTREAL

Seventeen delegates from UMP will attend a three-day conference at the University of Montreal, at which delegates will be present from the principal colleges of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Northern New York, and the Province of Quebec.

Seminars will be conducted by members of various Canadian embassies concerning significant developments and problems in Latin America, Africa, the Middle East, and the Far East. The sessions will last from Friday evening, March 6, until Sunday noon, March 8.

The UMP delegation, under the leadership of Professor and Mrs. Allen G. Pease and Miss Mary Helen Fernald, will leave UMP at 7:30 a.m. on Friday.

NEW PLAN FOR FRESHMAN COMPOSITION CLASSES

UMP Freshman Composition classes will be changed next fall to allow several sections to meet once a week in the lecture hall for a common lecture. Also small groups will meet to discuss themes with the instructors. Miss Fernald and Mr.
Jaques have been working on the plan, which has been approved in principle by the Enlish Department.

LIBRARY HOURS

The library will no longer be open on Sunday afternoons. The other hours will remain the same: Mon. - Fri., 8a.m.-10p.m.
Sat., 8a.m.-2p.m.

LAST CALL FOR THE BASEBALL TEAM!

Coach Sturgeon announces that anyone interested in playing for the UMP baseball team MUST sign up with him before March 9.

Baseball players, don't get left out.
See Coach Sturgeon immediately before it is too late.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES (Feb. 27)

The meeting was called to order at 4:20 p.m. The Council is to meet Monday night at 7:00 p.m. If anyone can't make it, he will be forced into voluntary retirement, maintaining his status, with the vice-president of his class taking over.

Treasurer's Report - No money has been taken out as yet; all money thus far has been taken from the cash box.

Plans for Winter Carnival were continued.

The Council wants to keep in mind those who have helped the Council with Winter Carnival in order that they get their due thanks.

CIRCLE K WINS OWLS AND EAGLES TROPHY

Circle K has just won the annual plaque awarded by the Owls and Eagles to the club showing the most participation and enthusiasm in the Winter Carnival.

With 65 points for best club attendance on both Friday and Saturday morning, best costumes Friday night, and first place in the Charleston Contest, Circle K outdistanced the AWS and the Young Demos with 30 points each, the Tech Boys with 15 points, and the Frosh with 10.

OUTER MONGOLIA THIS THURSDAY NOON

Want to hear something really unusual? Dr. Bernard will speak on "Outer Mongolia" this Thursday noon in the small dining room near the entrance of the cafeteria.

All UMP students and faculty members are invited to this meeting, which is the second in a series of Thursday noon meetings. Dr. Eugene McCann, who attracted so much interest last year that students were standing five deep outside the doorways of the room, will be the third speaker in the series.

AN EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES

Ward Graffam has received acceptances from all four law schools to which he has sent applications: our U of M School of Law, Suffolk University Law School, Boston University Law School, and the University of Miami Law School.

Ken Benson has received an acceptance from the Graduate School of Business Administration of Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri.

Does UMP have a good rating? Just look at these acceptances!

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. Allen MacKinnon on the birth of Allen, Jr. on February 29.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

UMP wishes to thank the Portland papers for their fine coverage of our Winter Carnival.
