Malden Mass.

January 6 - 1936.

Dear Miss Michaud:

Received, the four journals for which I asked. Your story was very very good. I was greatly surprised to read of the Maine girl who is traveling with the Ballet Russe Company. The entire company seemed total strangers to the United States, that is why I felt so surprised.

Enclose, please find six, three cents stamps to cover cost of the four editions I have recieved, and for two extra editions to be sent me as soon as possible.

Doctor Roger's, a professor at Northeastern University, insist on having a copy, to place on file at the University, that is where one of my extra copies will go.

Thanking you for all the consideration shown, will keep you posted, on future, worth-while happenings.

Thanks again.

Respectfully

Mrs. Oscar A. Auger.
