Biographical Notes

Stan Fortuna

Stan Fortuna was born in February 1951 in Rochester, New Hampshire. He moved to Portland, Maine two weeks after graduating Spaulding High School in 1969. In 1972 he met future Maine Gay Task Force members Susan Breeding, Wendy Ashley and Stephen Leo; with the support of those friends, he came out to his family in 1972, then publicly the following year. Fortuna recalls driving all night from Portland to New York City to march in the 1973 Christopher Street Liberation Day Parade with these friends to commemorate the Stonewall riots of 1969. He described this first display of public defiance filling him with pride, and he returned to Maine determined to organize, educate, and agitate. Fortuna moved from Portland to Brunswick and shortly thereafter cofounded LAMBDA. In 1973, during a panel discussion in front of a hostile audience at Bowdoin College, Fortuna remembers fellow collection donor Peter Prizer, a member of the audience, defiantly joined members of LAMBDA on stage. In 1974, Stan met Susan Henderson at the first Maine Gay Symposium sponsored by the Wilde-Stein Club at UMO. He moved back to Portland in 1975, ultimately living in the same apartment building as Henderson and Prizer, where they worked together to publish the Maine Gay Task Force Newsletter and Mainely Gay and organized actions in Maine. In 2022, Fortuna is retired and still active in the southern Maine community, where he has co-hosted OUT Cast, a half hour radio talk show on LGBTQ+ issues on WMPG 90.9 USM Community Radio with Madeline Sanchi and Steve Bull since 2018. He lives with his husband, Andy, and their 4 cats.

Susan Henderson

Susan Henderson was born in March 1945 in Calais, Maine. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree at Goucher College and her M.A. and Ph.D. at the University of Maine at Orono. In the fall of 1973, Henderson was mobilized to attend a meeting of the newly organized Wilde-Stein Club after the group's plans to hold the first symposium on LGBT rights sparked vocal community protests. Through her involvement to support the club in what she then viewed as a civil liberties issue, Henderson eventually came out and became an active participant in the growing movement in Maine, eventually moving to Portland from Brunswick in 1975. Henderson describes her main contribution as writing for Mainely Gay magazine and taking part in its editing and publishing, which she did until the early 1980s. Henderson also worked for the Social Security Administration for 36 years, and says she is thankful to have had an employer with civil rights protections guaranteed by law, and whose mission was to assist people. In 2022, she has retired to a house surrounded by wildflowers, full of yarn and wool and four cats.

Peter Prizer

Peter Prizer was born in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania in February 1948, but describes his best adolescent memories spent during long summers at the boys' camp where his father worked on Damariscotta Lake in Jefferson, Maine. Prizer eventually moved to Portland in the early 1970s where he found work at a local lobster pound, and, in 1971, first heard about Roland's Tavern on Cumberland Avenue. He describes Roland's as his introduction to the ultra-discreet queer community in southern Maine. Two years later, Prizer attended a panel discussion at Bowdoin where Fortuna and other queer activists were presenting to an unfriendly audience; he was moved to leave his seat and join the panelists on stage, instantaneously befriending Fortuna and the others with his uncharacteristically bold action. Prizer describes this as the beginning of his activist period, which lasted until 1980. He is also proud to note that he found sobriety in November 1979, which he credits in part to the support and perseverance of a now deceased lesbian friend, Janice Mancini. Prizer remained in Portland during the 1980s and 1990s before moving to the small desert town of Bisbee, AZ in 1998, where, in 2022, he has retired and still resides.

Description of the Papers

Donated collectively by Stan Fortuna, Susan Henderson, and Peter Prizer, early activists in Maine's LGBTQ+ history, this collection of research material spans from 1974 to 2014, with the bulk of material from the mid-1970s.

This collection documents the development and activities of the Maine Gay Task Force, including the creation and publication of a newsletter from 1974 to 1980. It opens with planning materials and news coverage of the first statewide gathering for gay people, the Maine Gay Symposium held at the University of Maine's Orono campus, an event which sparked statewide organizing efforts, including the creation of the Maine Gay Task Force. Completed and draft versions of the Maine Gay Task Force Newsletter from August 1974 to November 1976 are included in this collection, as well as issues of Mainely Gay from January 1977 to April 1980. Please note that these publications are also available on Digital Commons.

The collection shows how the publication evolved from MGTF Newsletter to Mainely Gay; the initial issue under new name (Vol 4, #1) notes that "we are a lot more than a group newsletter now" and that "35% of our subscriptions go out of Maine," reflecting a growing engagement with the larger national community.

The bulk of the collection is comprised of LGBTQ+ newspapers and newsletters produced in Maine and across the U.S. between the mid-1970s and early 1980s. The collection's donors engaged in publication "exchanges" and collected relevant media coverage of local and national LGBTQ+ issues, as well as other areas of social justice interest, amassing over 100 statewide and national publications from over 20 states.

The collection also includes a number of subject files on LGBTQ+ and other sociopolitical issues, personal and organizational correspondence, registration forms and other planning information for the Maine Gay symposium, news clippings, pins, and other ephemera.

This collection is organized into 11 series:

Series 1: Maine Gay Symposium

This series includes information on the first statewide gathering for gay people held on the University of Maine's Orono campus in 1974, as well as subsequent symposia. Materials include registration forms, flyers for related events, tickets, and planning notes, as well as materials from subsequent symposia, including the script and program for "Gay Side Story" and an annotated script, program, music, and staging notes for "Star Gays." Note that some planning materials and registration forms that include participant contact information are restricted until the year 2097.

Series 2: Maine Gay Task Force

This series is divided into six subseries. "Newsletters" (2.1) includes both completed and draft material from August 1974 to November 1976 in chronological order, preserving provenance and original order. "Writings" (2.2) primarily includes newsletters from other organizations that made up the Maine Gay Task Force, including Portland based Gay Rights Organization, Maine Lesbian Feminists, and Seacoast Area Gay Alliance, as well as press releases from MGTF, unpublished, undated material, and an academic paper on the group's structure written by a member of MGTF. "Minutes" (2.3) includes unpublished minutes from a MGTF meeting (note that other Minutes are published in Newsletters in series 2.1). "Organization Correspondence" (2.4) includes blank letterhead and any organizational correspondence not included in subseries 2.1. "Events" (2.5) includes flyers for MGTF organized events. "Financial Info" (2.6) contains bank statements and checks for subscriptions to the newsletter.

Series 3: Mainely Gay

This series marks the change in name and scope of the publication from the Maine Gay Task Force Newsletter to Mainely Gay. The series is divided into three subseries. "Newsletters" (3.1) includes both completed and draft material from January 1977 to April 1980 in chronological order, preserving provenance and original order. "Organizational Correspondence" (3.2) includes blank letterhead and organization correspondence, including a press release issued by Mainely Gay. "Financial Info" (3.3) contains blank checks and other materials that reflect the change of the name to Mainely Gay.

Series 4: Collected Mail Exchange Newspapers/Newsletters

This series is divided into three subseries. "Exchange Publications" (4.1) is organized alphabetically by state, and then alphabetically by publication. This subseries includes about 100 LGBTQ+ or allied publications that were collected from over 20 states and Canada primarily through mail exchange during the time that MGTF Newsletter/Mainely Gay was actively being published (or were collected at conferences or circulated among members of the allied organizations). While not all of the publications are specifically focused on LGBTQ issues, items were included in this series if it was clear they were part of the mail exchange with MGTF/Mainely Gay. "LGBTQ+ Guides" (4.2) consists of local and national travel and information guides organized in chronological order. "Literature and Music Catalogs" (4.3) includes collected catalogs, press releases, and ordering information for LGBTQ+ artists, writers, and publishing houses, organized in chronological order. Please note that additional collected publications can be found in Series 7.1 and 7.2, and collected news clippings of local and national LGBTQ+ issues can be found in Series 5. Please also note that many items in this series are Oversize.

Series 5: News Clippings

This series contains collected news clippings collected during the 1970s from both local and national papers. Clippings are divided into folders chronologically by year from 1974-1978. An undated folder is also included. Notable events covered by these clippings include early symposia, a lesbian mother's successful custody case, and protests surrounding Anita Bryant's 1978 rally in Portland. An additional list of local news coverage is included in the Appendix; these articles focus on local LGBTQ+ issues and the activities of the donors and the physical copies were returned to the donors as they are all readily accessible elsewhere.

Series 6: Personal Correspondence

This series includes personal correspondence addressed to the three donors, Stan Fortuna, Susan Henderson, and Peter Prizer. Notable correspondents include the NYC based activist and writer John Paul Hudson. Note that some letters from this series have been restricted until 2097.

Series 7: Subject Files

This series is divided into seven subseries and represents the varied interests of the donors during the period of the mid 1970s and beyond. "Post 1980 LGBTQ+ Publications" (7.1) is arranged alphabetically and includes both local and national collected LGBTQ+ publications amassed after the donors stopped publishing Mainely Gay and participating in an active mail exchange. Several publications in this subseries feature coverage of the donors. "Other Collected Publications" (7.2) is arranged alphabetically and includes newsletters, newspapers and magazines collected by the donors that were not part of the LGBTQ+ specific publication exchange. Publications within this subseries include nationally distributed "mainstream" publications with featured articles on LGBTQ+ issues, as well as publications focusing on other social justice issues. "Press Releases – Received" (7.3) is arranged chronologically and includes national and local press releases containing calls to action on LGBTQ+ issues. "Maine Politics" (7.4) includes collected documents related to other political issues in Maine, including donor Peter Prizer's participation in Maine's Criminal Justice – Standards and Goals program. "Articles, Pamphlets, and Other Educational Materials" (7.5) includes local and national resources on a range of topics for LGBTQ+ audiences. "Conference Materials" (7.6) includes information on various conferences, including the NYC based Gay Academic Union (GAU), where donor Susan Henderson presented in 1976. "Flyers" (7.7) includes collected flyers promoting local and national LGBTQ+ events and activities.

Series 8: Photographs

This series contains collected photographs of the donors and various other MGTf members and activities.

Series 9: Objects

This series contains LGBTQ+ pins from the personal collections of Stan Fortuna and Susan Henderson, as well as MGTf friend and financial supporter, Marilyn Richards. Other ephemera (matchbooks, bumper stickers) collected by the donors, is also included, as well as the Maine Gay Task Force banner, t-shirts, and posters from local and national LGBTQ+ actions. One of the original electric typewriters used to produce their newsletters is also part of this series, as are ten font balls (Orator, Script (3), Courier, Courier Italic, Advocate, Elite, Adjutant, Prestige Elite 12).

Series 10: Oversize

This series contains materials too large to fit into regular boxes. Listed within their regular series, they are included here to give their physical location.

Series 11: Restricted

This series includes materials removed from other series and restricted until 2097 to preserve the privacy of third parties. The former location of restricted materials is indicated in the Box and Folder list.
