ART ACTION
by Jean Scanlan

The Sophomore Owls and Eagles are sponsoring an art auction on April 16 at 10:00 a.m. in Luther Bonney Auditorium. Objects d' art that have been gathered from the Greater Portland area include paintings, frames, a silver candelabra and a woodcut by Portland artist Lennie Hatch.

A group of Owls and Eagles will sponsor on Wednesday on Six on April 13 to advertise the auction. Mr. Larry Garety will be the auctioneer. Refreshments will be served and proceeds will benefit the cultural fund for the proposed Student Center.

ATTENTION ORONO-BOUND MEN

All male students going to Orono next year should see Mr. Vernon Ellsmore Director of Men's Housing and married student housing. Also present with him will be Colonel John Garety, the director of ROTC of the University program, who wants to explain about a new program, especially for students at a branch of a University with ROTC.

Mr. Ellsmore and Colonel Garety will be available from 9:00 a.m. until late afternoon, in the small dining room (next to the cafeteria) in PSH.

Any student unable to make contact with Mr. Ellsmore or Colonel Garety, please get in touch with Mr. Jaques and he will help you make other arrangements suitable to your time.

UNO & UMP CLASS OFFICERS TO MEET

On Saturday, April 9, the four class presidents and 4 class representatives from the Orono campus will visit UMP to a meeting with a similar group from UMP to hold a day long meeting to coordinate campus relations. Mr. Roger B. Cobb and Mr. George Van Amburg will also be present at the meeting.
Welcome Back

After a whole nine days with no classes to cut or prelims to study for, we're back. And the grand opening of the new bookstore, flowers and all, certainly made things a little more bearable.

After ambling through, we have come to the unanimous conclusion that the University Bookstore, Portland campus has it all over the old store. Self-service, attractive displays, and a wide selection of paperbacks are only a few of the many improvements.

The bookstore is not the only thing lending a bright and shiny look to the campus. There's the freshly painted parking lot fence - some one was playing Tom Sawyer; and the newly swept walks and roads. The whole place has the aspect of a thorough spring cleaning. Welcome back.

STUDENT SENATE

By Gene Berg

The March 22 meeting of the Student Senate continued discussing future expansion of services offered to the student by the school. There was little new information on next year's placement bureau, but other plans for next year were reported, among them, full time medical service.

Estelle Watson spoke to Mr. Burke about rotating the time for the discussion group, but it was decided that it will remain unchanged.

The need for a change machine in Luther-Bonney Hall's student lounge was discussed. Pat Feury was given the job of clearing this with Mr. Lawrence and the Canteen Co. It was reported that the lounge will now be open until 10 p.m. and the cafeteria until 9:30.

The Senate decided to send a letter to President Young requesting a priority change for the proposed student center. Sue Rosen and Mark Eastman will prepare the letter.

The dates and rules for the mayorality campaign were changed. Nomination papers are due this Friday, April 8, and the election is scheduled for Thursday and Friday of next week, April 14 and 15. Candidates are urged to have a theme and a platform.

The current art exhibit in Luther-Bonney Hall is from UMO's traveling graphic art collection. The collection of originals includes examples of the relief, intaglio, planographic and stencil processes.

Four of the prints especially struck this reporter. "Regata" by Robert W. Brown is a serigraph (silkscreen process) captures the blue and green of the water and the colorful sails and blowing pennants. "Carousel" by Helen Gerardia is a color lithograph (planographic process). "Boy and a Carousel Horse" are portrayed in a vibrant red. "Storm Ledge" by Stow Wengenroth is also a lithograph. It is reminiscent of Two Lights with the gray worn rocks against the ocean. "Storm Over the Cimmaron" by Doel Reed is an aquatint (intaglio process) contrasts a bare calm open space with a budded tree on the far right.

ORONO SENATE TO MEET WITH UMP SENATE

Representatives of the Orono Student Senate have been invited to a dinner and meeting by UMP Senate April 12th. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss similar problems and share ideas.
INSIDE SPORTS
With Walt Abbott

Including this week, the next three weeks should provide the best action in the Intramural League. Those teams nearest in ability will be pitted against each other which should provide certain spectator interest. In the featured games before vacation the "Unquenchable-Humpers" gave the "Holes in the Head" their first loss. The latter team is one good rebounder and scorer away from being a top team. In the second game "Poor Ernie's" pulled away in the second half to beat the "Joint Tortfeasors". This game was marked by a close first half with "Poor Ernie's" losing their poise much of the time.

Intramural Impressions: Unquestionably the most efficient referee is J. Coyne. He makes the calls which spectators often don't see because they're usually watching the ball... Crunch Inc. has been a disappointment in the league so far. They haven't performed to potential as of yet... Some rookies have shown well in the league; for example B. Clark of the "Eagles", E. Lynch of "Poor Ernie's", and B. Christie of "Unquenchable-Humpers", R. Strout of "Eagles", E. Durham of "Junkies", and B. Small of "Poor Ernie's" have the intangible advantage of experience. This latter player, B. Small, is a pleasure to watch. He doesn't score much but has many moves which contribute to the victory. Watch him on defense, stopping a fast break, or assisting on baskets. One of the best players in the League... Featured games this week are today's and Friday's action when more undefeated teams will go down.
