

1985

Social and Economic Status Papers

Madeleine Giguère

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.usm.maine.edu/giguere-publications-and-presentations>

Social and Economic Status Papers
Madeleine Giguere, Professor Emeritus
University of Southern Maine

Social and Economic Profile of French and English Mother Tongue
Persons: Maine, 1970. 1974

Indicator used: French Mother Tongue

Source: Public Use Samples of Basic Records From the 1970 Census on computer tape.

Selected Characteristics of the French Language Population and the Total Population: Maine and Connecticut, 1970. (Tables only) 1976

Indicator: French Mother Tongue.

Source: Census Public Use Sample, 1970.

The Franco-Americans: Occupational Profiles 1981

Area: Individual New England States

Indicator: French Mother Tongue

Source: Census Public Use Sample, 1970

The Franco-Americans: Continuities and Variations 1981

Area: Individual New England States.

Indicator: French Mother Tongue

Source: Census Public Use Sample, 1970.

Assimilation of Franco-Americans in Maine: A Preliminary Reconnaissance 1985

Area: Maine

Indicator: French and French-Canadian Ancestry

Source: General Social and Economic Characteristics, 1980
(See sample sheets enclosed)

Detailed Population Characteristics, 1980.

The Assimilation of the Franco-Americans of Maine as Reflected in the Microdata of the 1980 Census of Population 1985

Area: Maine

Indicators: Language currently spoken at home.

Ancestry- First listing, Second listing

Source: Public Use Micro-Data Sample (PUMS).