LHS Notes

Lewiston High School students are backing the attack with action, not words, as is proved by the $6,845.50 total bond sales that was reported for Monday morning by the high school students. All rooms at the school have not, as yet, reported. Largest sale to date has been made in the homeroom of Miss Frances Cronin who reports a sale of $317.30. Two $1,000 war bonds were sold, one to Jere Clifford the other to his brother, William Clifford, Jr.

Each week the drive is on at the school and the three highest rooms receive a "Certificate of Excellence." Last year the school was awarded the Minute Man Flag which was presented at graduation for a 90% sales in bonds for the entire school. This year the Lewiston High School students are out to achieve a higher goal.

Band Officers Elected

Election of Lewiston High band officers was held Friday with Richard Young being selected president, S. Parker Hoy, vice president and John Kelly, secretary for the year.

Alton Robinson appointed Robert Smith as student leader and Janet Small was appointed senior councilor by Mr. Smith.

U. of M. Scholarship

One of the best scholarships offered by the University of Maine was awarded Miss Madeline Giguere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Giguere, an honor student at Lewiston High School in 1943. The two semester tuition scholarship, offered on the basis of achievement in the State of Maine scholarship contest, was given Miss Giguere. The announcement was not made until Miss Giguere had made arrangements to attend the College of New Rochelle, N. Y., so she had to decline it. The scholarship then was presented to Miss Florence C. Palmer, also of Lewiston High School, another honor student from the '43 class who made a fine record in the scholarship contest. Miss Palmer is now attending Maine.
