PLAN PUBLICATION OF SOUVENIR PAPER.
 A souvenir publication noting the Maine sesquicentennial celebration is being planned by the Androscoggin County Sesquicentennial Committee. Such action was decided at a meeting Wednesday morning at the Lewiston council chamber with Adelard Janelle presiding.
 The publication would be dedicated to the late J. B. Couture, former owner and publisher of LeMessager, French language newspaper.
 Couture owned and published this French language newspaper in Lewiston for 30 years, and it was only this past week that the mechanical department of this publishing firm was dismantled, and microfilm copies of the paper sent to the Maine State Library at Augusta.
 The committee feels this makes the proposed publication a timely one, as well as a souvenir for many Lewiston-Auburn residents for whom the reading of Le Messager was long a tradition.

Sesqui Com. Has Meeting This Evening
 Rep. Louis Jalbert, chairman of the Androscoggin Sesquicentennial Committee, has called a special meeting of the committee, to be held at 7:30 this evening at the County Building grand jury room.
 Special attention will be given to the Candian visitation Days scheduled in mid-July (23-24-25) in conjunction with Lewiston Dollar Days.
 In addition members will discuss observances being planned in surrounding towns and cities in connection with the Sesquicentennial. Included is the Poland 175th anniversary, July 25; Lisbon Sesquicentennial program, Aug. 22, including a fireman's muster, obsolete auto parade, and a chicken barbeque; Leeds and Greene, planning an old-fashioned dance on the Morgan IGA black top; and Livermore and Livermore Falls, co-operating in the public visitation of 'Norlands', ancestral North Livermore Falls neighbor of the famous seven Washburn brothers.
