Bath, Maine, January 23, 1922.

WHEREAS, on June 28th, 1921 the undersigned made a written contract for the erection of a Synagogue building in said Bath; and WHEREAS said contract has not been fully performed and said Synagogue building has not been completed; and WHEREAS the undersigned Congregation of Beth of Isroal is desirous of using the basement of said building, pending the completion of said contract, for its religious services;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that said Congregation may enter and use said basement for said purposes; and that such entry and use shall not be taken or construed as an acceptance of said building, or as a waiver of said contract; and that the undersigned A. L. Tripp will complete said contract and finish said building as soon as weather conditions will permit.
