Society Of
HONORARY DOG CATCHERS
AUBURN, MAINE

Dear Member:-

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY.

AND Auburn's Honorary Dog Catchers will have their night on Tuesday, January 20, at the DeWitt Hotel in Lewiston, at 7 P.M. The doings will be preceded by a turkey dinner.

As a duly appointed member of this exclusive society, you are eligible and cordially invited to attend the first annual Honorary Dog Catchers Dinner. Tickets are $2.00 each and may be secured from Prescott's Gulf Station, 21 Court Street, Auburn; Arthur Legendre, 63 Broad Street, Auburn; or from the member of Ticket Committee who phones you.

According to Ben Jones, who will act as Toastmaster, a highly interesting, instructive and entertaining program has been arranged with John Gould, noted author and radio commentator, of Lisbon Falls as principal speaker. Plans for a field day during dog days next summer will be discussed.

Don't miss this big event of the season--an occasion in the life of every Dog Catcher. As space is limited, be sure to get your ticket early.

Yours for bigger and better hydrants.

The Committee of Ten

P. S. It is rumored that the meeting will be covered by feature story writers from several of the large metropolitan newspapers.
