The Public Information Office at UMP is pleased to be able to publish the "UMPus" for the benefit of summer school students. This paper, issued each Thursday morning, will include general announcements and a calendar of events for the ensuing week.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The University store will be open between the hours of 8:30 and 4:30 Monday through Friday, and 9:00 to 12:00, Saturday.

JOBS AVAILABLE

Mrs. Carver, Bluehill, Maine is looking for a young lady to live in and chauffeur her around. There is neither babysitting nor night work involved, and the pay is 45 dollars a week plus room and board. Mrs. Carver has a car.

Please contact Dick Emerson in Mr. Van Amburg's office in the Student Union if you are interested.

Any student who thinks he is eligible for the work-study program, see either Dick Emerson at the Student Union or Mr. Freise at 108 Payson Smith Hall for particulars.

LIBRARY BOOKS ON RESERVE

Students attending the University of Maine in Portland Summer School are alerted to check the library for reserve books if they have the following instructors: Alpander, Ba 325; Burke, Eh 43; Cole, Hy 5; Duclos, Lt 182; Fernald, Eb 1; Flanagan, At 69; Hansen, Sh 162; Kern, ZO 3; McNeally, Hy 111; Pease, Ge 189; Prinn EdX 110; Rand, Hy 174; Robinson, EdM 251; Southworth, EdA 51; Theriault, EdM 13; York, Hy 35; Talbot, EdY 201.

NEWPORT

Music lovers, drive south on the Maine Tpke. to route 128 in Massachusetts to route 24 to Newport, R.I. In the best folk and jazz festival traditions the new Opera Festival will be held through Sunday. The Metropolitan Opera Company of New York will enrich listeners with productions including Bizer's "Carmen" and Verde's "Aida."

In addition to the regular evening performances, workshops will be held and soloists will perform in the afternoons.

BACKSIDE TO

UMP students may breathe a sigh of relief after reading the article in the Portland "Evening Express" stating that the proposed science building and the gymnasium will face inward toward the center of the campus rather than out toward Falmouth Street. It is hoped that this sudden reversal will of course break a monotonous array of buildings lining the seaward side of Falmouth Street.
