The Public Information Office at UMP is pleased to be able to publish the "UMPus" for the benefit of summer school students. This paper, issued each Thursday morning, will include general announcements and a calendar of events for the ensuing week. ALL IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE UMPus*

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students who plan to attend either the fifth or sixth summer session should make application to Orono before Monday, July 25, to avoid the late registration fee. Application blanks are available at 106, Payson Smith Hall.

Students wishing to register for CED courses this fall should do so as soon as possible, since many of the courses have quotas and will be filled early. Applicants should note the increasingly large selection of courses over last year. There are about 179 courses representing approximately 20 disciplines.

GOING ON IN PORTLAND THIS SUMMER

Music lovers should be alerted to the fiftieth season of the Kotzchmar Memorial Organ Summer Series. Listeners may pick any one of the weekly Tuesday through Friday night concerts. These performances, which start at 8:15 P.M., will continue until August 19.

Concerts and performers for the forthcoming week:

Thursday John Doney, W. Hartford, Conn.
Friday John Fay, Portland, Maine
Tuesday John Weaver, New York, N. Y.
Wednesday Bernard Piche, Trois-Rivieres, Quebec

All concerts, held at the Portland City Hall Auditorium, are free of charge.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Mr. Freise has received notices of job openings recently which students may find very attractive. Information will be posted on the bulletin boards in both Payson Smith and Luther Bonney Halls. Interested students should check with Mr. Freise in the Placement Office, Payson Smith Hall.

There is an opening for a student with a year's accounting background. This is a full-time job for the rest of the summer and would become a part-time job in the fall.

There is an opening for three girls in the Telephone Company selling telephone service. This is a 37½ hour week, Monday through Friday.

New York State is looking for teachers. Schools in Central New York (Syracuse-Cortland Area) have many vacancies. See bulletin board for further information.

The City of Keene, New Hampshire wants to find a man who has had experience with the elementary program and curriculum to fill the position of Elementary Supervisor in Keene. Check the bulletin board for information.
