THINGS LOOK GOOD

From the appearance of West and Payson Smith Halls, the campaigns for class officers and student council representatives is well under way.

At the interim council meeting last Thursday afternoon, it was decided to introduce as many candidates as possible to their electorate at a "rally" in the cafeteria Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 12:00 and at 1:00, rather than Wednesday evening as previously proposed. At the same council meeting, October 25 was tentatively established as the date for Mountain Day. More concrete plans will be made following the election of the regular Council.

The voting booth will be open from 10:00 until 2:00 on Thursday, Oct. 15, and from 9 until 4 on Friday, Oct. 16. Don't forget that the proposed amended Constitution will be "up" for approval at the same voting times.

Good luck to all candidates!

Robert Silva
President, Student Council

HOMECOMING

A great time was had by all who attended homecoming at Orono last weekend whether they stayed for the weekend or just a day. It was a big weekend with fireworks, a rally, a dance, the displays in front of the dorms, the big game (which Maine won 33-18) and the concert by the Four Preps.

Anyone from UMP felt right at home. Between the transfers who once went to UMP and the kids who were up visiting we wondered if the friendly rivalry between UMP and Orono had been won by UMP and Orono had been eliminated.

Really a lot of thanks should go to everyone at Orono for the friendly welcome they gave to all Portland students and a special thanks to the powers that be for the long-awaited ID cards.

THURSDAY DISCUSSION

If you haven’t been to a discussion group yet, then this is the week to go. Carmen Landry from our own UMP is going to discuss her adventures in the Far East where she worked last year.

She has been in Cambodia and Viet Nam and must have had some exciting as well as educational experiences. Let’s go, all you wet birds who fly at night and take advantage of what goes on at UMP.

CONSIDERING GRADUATE SCHOOL, ANYONE?

Mr. Jaques would like to speak to you if you are. He’s interested in forming a pre-graduate school club, so all you future doctors, lawyers, and holders of Master’s Degrees in anything from anthropology to zoology, please see Mr. Jaques if you are interested in such a club.

PIZZA PARTY

Five o’clock Friday is the time so make sure you order your pizza on Wednesday or Thursday so you will be able to join in the fun and festivities at the Pizza Party in the Union.

The Owls and Eagles will be taking orders for the pizza at Steve’s outside the cafeteria on both Wednesday and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. The cost will be 50¢ per pizza. Be sure to order yours and come and join the fun.

MRS. BRINKLEY AND MRS. CASEY VISIT UMP

Thanks to Mrs. Jadine O’Brien, the assistant librarian at Westbrook Junior College and state committeewoman for Cumberland County, Mr. Pease’s government class, Democratic Governments of Europe, was fortunate enough to hear Mrs. David Brinkley and Mrs. Joseph Casey speak.

Mrs. Brinkley and Mrs. Casey are two of the sixteen women chosen by Pres. Johnson to “bring the real issues home to men and women of good will everywhere”. They will visit New Hampshire and Pennsylvania after leaving Maine.

While at UMP they briefly discussed the difficulties encountered by women in politics. Women are generally given routine work and are put into the background. However, there are opportunities available for women who want to make politics a career. Most of Mrs. Casey’s and Mrs. Brinkley’s time was spent answering questions about their efforts for Pres. Johnson.

Their UMP visit was a rather sudden decision and Mr. Pease regrets that it wasn’t possible to make arrangements so all interested students could have heard the ladies.

A FRESHMAN’S OPINION OF CLUBS

Let’s face it. Clubs at UMP aren’t, from a freshman’s point of view, anyway. On orientation day, somewhere in amongst the ten billion welcomes (from the President’s right down to the janitor’s), we heard that UMP had an active social life - a club for every interest, well, almost every interest. It’s too bad that we never heard another thing about it. When we were handed our information about the joyous UMP life, somehow the social side of things got lost in the shuffle. Why don’t you upperclassmen start a big campaign to get freshmen interested in your club?
INSIDE SPORTS
with Walt Abbott

Coach Sturgeon has asked me to remind the forty or so people who have signed up for basketball that tryouts begin Thursday, Oct. 15, for freshmen and Friday, Oct. 16, for upperclassmen. Thus, if you have signed up, be sure and appear. Hear that, Jed? I understand that the full squads will be posted on Monday, Oct. 19 and that the official practice will commence on this day.

Last week the "Pabes" knocked off the "Moneymakers" to remain the only undefeated intramural football team. D. Emerson's pass receiving was a prime factor. More about him in next week's initial CAMPUS publication. How about those guys who wonder why you don't print Tuesday's games for publication in Wednesday's UMPus? A short trip to Student Publications will produce the explanation that the story deadline for the UMPus in Monday noon. "The Matured Muscles" are finding tough competition among the undergraduates. They have lost at least two games, to my knowledge. The secondary on H. Moulton's side is vulnerable to the long bomb. I will have to conserve material as the CAMPUS appears next week; so look for roundup on UMP sports in that publication.

THE PE 1-DERs

Commissioner Sullivan and Coach Sturgeon have just released the final standings in PE 1 intramural touch football. This closes the first of many activities in which all freshman men at UMP must participate as part of their gym course - activities ranging from tumbling and track to relay, wrestling, and cage ball. Here's the rundown:

Chenard's team- 2 wins vs. Morrison's team- 0 wins 3 scoreless ties- victors Chenard's team
Walker's team- 2 wins vs. Callahan's team- 0 wins 2 scoreless ties- victors, Walker's team
Eagles- 2 wins vs. Moody's Marauders- 1 win victors- Eagles
Honky Tonks- 5 wins vs. Studs- 1 win victors- Honky Tonks
Blue Bears- 3 wins vs. Chicken Hawks- 1 win 1 scoreless tie- victors, Blue Bears
Maulers- 2 wins(18 pts. total) vs. Mighty Sea Devils- 2 wins(6 pt) 1 scoreless tie- victors, Maulers

Anythings- 2 wins vs.
Rockets- 1 win 2 ties(one scoreless)- victors, Anythings

The fine playing ability of all team members should display itself well during the next activity, which is soccer. Although Mr. Sullivan seems to be pleased by the overall physical improvement in his students, he says we still have a long way to go.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Student Council

October 15 and 16 is the time to choose the best person for class office and also the fate of the proposed constitution. The reason for the council's existence is stated in the preamble - "to promote the general welfare of the student body through a representative form of student government". Note "representative form" not a "representative student government"; the difference is not semantic because the policy of representative form permeates the whole constitution.

You elect your representatives, yet you yourself are excluded from regular meetings, though there will be one meeting a year that you will be allowed to attend (see Article III, section 1 & 3). Here is the organization which avows itself to encourage student participation while it prevents a majority of the students from partaking in its affairs. Why bother calling this a student council, which is the most important organization on campus, if it segregates itself from the student body?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Why I Am Voting:
Jay Sparrow for Frosh Class Vice-President

"I wish there were a used book store on this campus!" Have you ever heard that phrase around the beginning of each new semester? Well, if I have anything to say about it you won’t be hearing it again.

I am proposing a "Used College Shop". This shop would be open on a full-scale basis during the beginning of each semester with a complete up-to-date list posted during the interim. There are many students and alumni who would be glad to have a place to leave their used books, drafting materials, etc.

I would like to go into the details of the proposed shop, such as how it will be run, by whom, and where, with anyone interested.

I feel as being Vice-President I would have more time to devote to this lengthy project whereas the class president would be too involved with dances and various other projects.

Jay Sparrow
Class of 1968

Fellow Sophomores:

We, the undersigned, have become concerned about the upcoming elections. We honestly believe that the name of the man best qualified for the office of class president will not be on the ballot.

In an effort to afford our class the effective and dynamic leadership it needs and deserves, we have started a DRAFT DICK EMERSON movement.

Dick is well known to most sophomores. Since his arrival at UMP last year, he has shown great interest in participating in the undergraduate program and activities. He has been active in the sports programs and his leadership abilities resulted in his being selected as head Owl last spring. To allow his services to go unused will be a great disservice to our class and ourselves.

With these facts in mind, we encourage all sophomores to throw their support behind Dick. Since his name will not be on the ballot, we will have to write it on the ballot.

This much we urge for this much we need.

Emerson for President Committee
