

---

Early Life and Education

Madeleine Giguère

---

1960

Giguère SOC 361 Course Evaluations

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.usm.maine.edu/giguere-early-life-and-education>

---

Recommended Citation

Madeleine Giguère Collection, Franco-American Collection, University of Southern Maine Libraries.

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Madeleine Giguère at USM Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Early Life and Education by an authorized administrator of USM Digital Commons. For more information, please contact jessica.c.hovey@maine.edu.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND CRIMINOLOGY

SUPPLEMENTAL EVALUATION

COURSE: SOC 361

INSTRUCTOR: Figuerre

- I. All courses combine three basic elements: content, techniques of presentation, and procedures for evaluation (exams, papers, etc.). In the spaces below we ask that you evaluate this course in these three important areas. Listed after each area are items that you may wish to consider in your comments. Please feel free to add additional considerations which you feel to be pertinent.

- a) Content (Conceptual and theoretical content of class presentations and readings, level of student sophistication assumed in class presentations and readings.)

Course content was very diverse. It was very educational to have approached this subject from so many different "angles". Each lecture provided a look at Franco-American Sociology from a different perspective such as religion, politics, family.

- b) Techniques of presentation (Clarity of class presentations and readings; receptivity to, respect for and encouragement of student participation; organization and integration of materials)

Presentations were both lectures from Professor Figuerre and guest lecturers. This provided us with a good opportunity to be exposed to the views and ideas of others.

- c) Procedures for grading (Clarity and consistency of expectations, appropriate emphasis on materials covered in lectures and readings, fairness of grading.)

Grading procedures were very fair and consistent.

- II. Faculty should be available to students for advice and consultation on matters of course work, and should be responsive to students' academic needs. Please evaluate the instructor of this course concerning availability and responsiveness beyond the classroom. (If you did not require consultation outside of class, please indicate.)
- III. Your instructor would like to know if there is something you believe she/he has done especially well in the teaching of this course.
- IV. Your instructor would also like to know what specific things might be done to improve her/his teaching in this course.