Dear Sumner:

We are certainly glad that you are able to relieve the monotony of Aberdeen by getting away for the week-ends. From what you told us yesterday you had a very pleasant one.

Mother certainly enjoyed your call and we think you did exactly the right thing in referring the charge. It certainly would not have seemed right for Aunt Ida to pay for this particular call.

Helen went with Charles Chason to the formal of her sorority and she had a wonderful time. For some time now she will be hubba hubba about him and psychologists tell me that is to be expected at her age. Of course you know more about those things, for some one must have been that way about you at some particular stage.

Another day checked off. Another day nearer home and Harvard.

Affectionately,
