NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) OH SH*T ! Well folks, I hoped it would never happen, but it looks like someone somewhere has hijacked the megress email address and attached it to spam VIAGRA notices! I got an email today from: "megress @ gwi.net" (the email address for The FAN) and the subject was: "Newsletter - January, 14" and the content was all about, what else, bigger anatomy! Sooo, just be aware as you go about opening your emails that The FAN should be coming to you with my name (not the megress address) in the FROM line, and that the SUBJECT line of The FAN will spell out the entire name of the newsletter, followed by the date in xx/xx/xx format. If you see something else in the the FROM and SUBJECT lines, then you should probably delete it. I'd appreciate feedback from folks to get an idea if the problem is widespread. If it is, then I'll think about changing the email address. Thanks loads everyone. Jean megress@gwi.net

(NEWS #2:) RBPA Scholarship Fund Seeks Applicants. The Rainbow Business and Professional Association (RBPA) Scholarship Fund will grant scholarships for the eleventh year in May 2008. The mission of the Scholarship Fund is to promote positive role models for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered individuals in an academic environment and community at large, to recognize and foster diversity and to reward and support sensitivity to human rights. The scholarship is granted to deserving Maine individuals who are planning to further their education in a four-year college, two-year college or trade school.

The RBPA Scholarship Fund was established in 1997. From the first award of $500 in 1998, the Scholarship Fund has grown steadily, and in 2007 granted two students scholarships of $3000 each. In 2005, the Scholarship Fund achieved a long sought after goal by establishing an endowment fund with an initial deposit of $10,000 and an additional deposit of $10,000 added in 2007. This endowment fund will enable Scholarships to be awarded to worthy students for years to come. It is a tribute to the support received from the RBPA membership and the LGBT Community.

The Scholarship Committee of RBPA will be accepting applications through March 15, 2008. Recipients are selected by the committee who review the essay applications. The awards banquet will be held on May 14, 2008 at the Holiday Inn by the Bay in Portland. Application forms may be downloaded or completed online at www.rbpa.org . Any questions regarding the application process, contact Chairperson Sue Davis at shdavis1953@aol.com or 883-0227.

(NEWS #3:) The Downeast Maine Chapter of GLSEN (Gay Lesbian Straight Educators Network) now has a "local" email address: downeastglsen@roadrunner.com

(NEWS #4:) Family member Medea Steinman is on the "Cool Bangor Coalition" and is hoping that GLBT businesses that provide smart energy solutions will take part in and display their products and/or services at the 14th annual HOPE Festival sponsored by the Peace & Justice Center of Eastern Maine. This year the Festival will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, April 19, in the Field House at the University of Maine in Orono, and will feature a Green Expo. Since hundreds of people attend to enjoy the children's programs, live music and dance performances, the Festival is a good opportunity to showcase your enterprise. For information and application forms, contact info@peacectr.org or cpdiebold@yahoo.com. Early registration is recommended.

(NEWS #5:) Choice & Chocolate (Celebrating 35 years of Roe v. Wade). See the listing below at JAN 22.

(NEWS #6:) Two weeks left to the Vanity Plates Contest. Let's see what fun ideas you can come up with for Vanity license plates, those automobile license plates that people pay extra money for that usually try to express something personal about the car's owner. (an example might be: L8L8L8 for someone who always feels in a hurry). Plates can be cute, funny, political, social, job related, hobby related, angst-ridden, spiritual, mathematical, musical, scientific, pet related, horticultural, agricultural, biological, historic, gustatory, artistic, automotive, gay, or whatever. The rules are that you can use up to 8 letters and/or numbers (or up to 7 letters and/or numbers and one blank space). You can submit your own plate if you have one, but you can't submit someone else's. You can submit more than one. Make up your best plate(s) and send them to me at megress@zwi.net before the end of January. Be sure to include an explanation of WHAT they are saying for those of us who might be a little slow on the uptake. I will list everyone's efforts in The FAN and my lovely assistant and I will choose a winner (who will be announced in the FEB 1 issue). The winner will receive a gift certificate for a free dinner-for-two at the Bahar Pakistani Restaurant here in Bangor ($45 value). The choice of winner will be final. These are the submissions we've gotten so far. SEND US YOURS !

(NOTES #1:) Help raise money for womens' (and of course lesbian) health. January is Cervical Cancer Awareness Month and the Penquis Breast and Cervical Health Coalition is participating in a fundraising event at UNO Chicago Grill in Bangor on the Bangor Mall Boulevard. On January 24, 2008, if you dine in or order take-out and present a UNO Dough Raiser ticket, up to 20% of your check will be donated to the Penquis Breast and Cervical Health Coalition.

The Coalition provides education concerning breast and cervical health and information on no-cost mammograms and pap smears available to eligible women (of any sexual orientation) through the Maine Breast and Cervical Health Program. The coalition also provides assistance in recruiting patients into the program for the medical providers of the program. The Maine Breast and Cervical

Health Program (MBCHP) pays for mammograms, clinical breast exams, pap tests, pelvic exams, limited diagnostic services and a network of referral services if further support is needed. If you are a woman age 40-64 with no insurance or your insurance does not cover Pap tests or mammograms please call 1-800-350-5180. FMI about the program, or about the fundraising event at UNO Chicago Grill, or to get your free Dough Raiser Tickets emailed to you, contact Maria Staples at 973-3586 or email her at mstaples@penquis.org

(NOTES #2:) Donations for Silent Auction Items and Door Prizes sought. Eastern Maine AIDS Network (EMAN) will be holding its 2nd Annual Red Ribbon Ball on February 9, 2008, at the Buchanan Alumni House at the University of Maine. This is our biggest fundraising event of the year. To that end, we are contacting local area businesses and are seeking their help with donations for silent auction items and door prizes. All items would be prominently recognized at the Ball as having been donated from your establishment. We are looking for a variety of items including such things as gift certificates, gift baskets, local crafts and art, etc. Anything that you can provide would be appreciated, and as EMAN is a not for profit agency, all donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent provided by law. To contribute, please contact EMAN at 207-990-3626. Thank you!

(NOTES #3:) It Takes a Community to Place a Memorial. The Bangor City Council unanimously approved the placement of a memorial for Charlie Howard near the Kenduskeag Stream. The memorial will be contemplative in nature with flowers and a bench facing down stream. All the plans have been approved by the city engineer and the Arts and Cultural Council. A professional architect did work pro bono. In a month you will be able to access pictures and plans of the Charlie Howard Memorial. The inscription on the memorial will read as follows:

" May we, the citizens of Bangor, continue to change the world around us until hatred becomes peacemaking and ignorance becomes understanding. Charlie Howard, an openly gay man, died here at the hands of hatred and ignorance on July 7, 1984."

In the near future, the Charlie Howard Foundation, not to be confused with groups with similar names, will be asking the community to help make this memorial a reality. You will be asked to help with money, plantings, weeding and other odd jobs. We have told the city we will maintain this site. This project truly will take a community to erect, make beautiful and maintain. If you have any questions or would like to start donating money and or time, please contact Sue at sdavies@bts.edu or Deb at dcarney3@roadrunner.com

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@gwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. LAST CALL FOR LESBIAN MOMS. Graduate student seeks to interview lesbian moms. I am a graduate student in Human Development at the University of Maine. I am interested in interviewing lesbian biological moms with children of any age living in Maine communities about their experiences: 1) to explore how living in a rural state helps or complicates the experiences of lesbian mothers in how they negotiate institutions such as health care and school, and 2) given social and political constraints that lesbian mothers need to overcome or adapt to, explore how mothers make use of support systems and form family. Almost all of the previous research has been conducted with moms living in urban or metropolitan areas. To maintain confidentiality, I'm trying to get the word out through intermediaries and having participants contact me directly if they are willing to be interviewed. If you would be willing to be interviewed or have questions about this study, please contact Sharon LaBrie at the Margaret Chase Smith Policy Ctr, University of Maine at Orono: phone 207-581-1652 or cell 207-570-2400

2. Catalyst for Change Award seeks nominations. The Jean Byers Sampson Center for Diversity in Maine presented its first Catalyst for Change award this October. We are seeking nominations for 2008. The award honors someone who has furthered civil rights or social justice in Maine.

For information on the award and instructions on nominating, please go to:
<http://library.usm.maine.edu/specialcollections/catalystforchangeaward.html>

The deadline for nominations is January 31, 2008. If you have any question please contact Susie Bock at bocks@usm.maine.edu or at 207-780-4269

3. Family Member Mark Nutt will have his art exhibited at a group show. He writes: "In February 2008 I'll return to Quebec City to show at iceBEARg during Carnaval de Québec at ForHom - 221, rue St-Jean, Sun., Feb. 17th at 1:00 pm.

Mark is also now the resident scenic artist for the Penobscot Theatre Company, Bangor, ME. "My backdrop and set decoration for Peter Pan at Penobscot Theatre Company in December 2007 not only earned rave reviews – I became their Resident Scenic Artist as a result! Designer Lex Liang and critics seemed pleased with my recreation of my oil painting Prevenance which provided the atmospheric setting desired for the show. Painting the 23 by 23 foot backdrop proved an incredible experience utilizing a state-of-the art drop elevator and theatrical painting system. I look forward to more scenic work throughout their remaining season including: The Last of the Red Hot Lovers by Neil Simon; Little Shop of Horrors by Alan Menken and Howard Ashman; and The Night of the Iguana by Tennessee Williams at the theatre located at 131 Main St, Bangor, Maine." Website: www.marknutt.com (I can always be reached here).

OP/EDS:

This is your chance to spout off (or offer your insightful thoughts and opinions) about ANYTHING related to the GLBTI community. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit. Please keep your thoughts as succinct (and civilized) as possible. Subscribers should be willing to allow at least their first name and an email address to be listed with the posting.

No one has any opinions this issue.

COMMUNITY REPORTERS:

We'd all love to hear how your event, activity, gathering, show, wedding, project, etc went. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit news reports about the going's on in their geographical area (or about GLBTI community events that they have participated in elsewhere). Please keep your reports as concise as possible. Let's keep everyone "in the loop"! The Maine areas we're presently covering in this category are: Aroostook County, Washington County, Ellsworth/MDI, Bangor, Belfast/Camden, Waterville/Skowhegan, and Dover-Foxcroft.

1. Out on MDI Potluck (thanks to Jean for this report)

Well, the OMDI folks had another one of their successful gatherings. Although OMDI is for anyone in the GLBT community, for some reason or other it seems to be mostly women who tend to show up. When men do show up to join in, we all still have a great time, so everyone certainly is invited and encouraged to take part! The most recent event was held at Anne's beautiful place in Hancock ... lots of room, lots of warmth, and lots of people! I'd say about 25 - 30 folks attended. Conversation was lively (and animated ... something about a bunny hopping through the meadow, scooping up the field mice, and bopping them on the head). There was also music and dancing, and that was just at OUR table, there was a whole other group of folks on the another side of the room who seemed to be having just as much fun. Food was: a red cabbage slaw, pasta salad, chicken with capers, chicken pot pie, string bean casserole (just like your mom's ... maybe better), crepes, lobster strudel, assorted nuts, wines, sodas, two kinds of brownies, chocolate chip cookies, and probably lots of other things that escaped my notice. It was a great way to spend a January evening in Maine.

EVENTS (CHANGING):

* JAN 16 (Wednesday) Bangor, Maine Eat-Out Project, 6:30 pm. Join our group for dinner at different area restaurants. The January MEOP will be at China Wall, 930 Stillwater Ave (corner of Stillwater Ave and Hogan Rd) Reservations are needed. FMI and/or to reserve contact Jean at 862-2063 or email megress@gwi.net no later than Tuesday January 15.

* JAN 22 (Tuesday), Bangor, Choice & Chocolate. The Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center, which provides a full range of health services for women (including The Lesbian Health Project ... see the listing below in the GLBT COMMUNITY SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS category) will be celebrating 35 years of Roe v. Wade with a "Choice & Chocolate" event at the Center: 700 Mt. Hope Ave, suite 420. The event starts at 5:30 pm. You and your pro-chocolate, pro-choice friends are welcome. An RSVP is required. The doors open at 5:30 when chocolate will be served. At 6:00 pm there will be a showing of the film: Jane: An Abortion Service. At 7:00 pm there will be a conversation with Peaches Bass, a former member of the Jane Collective and a winner of the Mabel Sine Wadsworth Women's Health Achievement Award. * FEB 9 (Saturday), Orono, The 2nd Annual Red Ribbon Ball. You're invited! Dig out your fancy duds and join us for Eastern Maine AIDS Network's largest fundraiser of the year! The Ball goes from 7:00 pm to Midnight and will be at the Buchanan Alumni House (Two Alumni Road) at the University of Maine. Tickets are $50/person if purchased before January 25th, $65/person after that date. This year we will be featuring an evening of live music by the Brian Catell Band, dancing, and a silent auction. Hors D'oeuvres and a Cash Bar will be available. Black tie is optional. FMI and/or to purchase tickets call 990-3626 or email Jean at JELavigne@aol.com

* FEB 16 (Saturday) Bangor, Le Salon Du Somerset, 5:00 - 9:00 pm, Chris & Jean's, ever-changing event. It ranges from the silly to the serious, the arts to the sciences, politics to philosophy, history to histrionics, and all areas in between. The February Salon will be a potluck dinner and a showing of the BBC TV mini-series: FINGERSMITH. Plot: Raised in a den of petty thieves, plucky orphan Sue agrees to help a con man defraud and betray an heiress. Plans change when the two women fall in love with each other. Adapted from the novel by Sarah Waters (Tipping the Velvet), this is "a tightly plotted tale of lust, deception, and intrigue" - The Guardian (U.K.) approx. 180 minutes. Dinner will be from 5 - 6 pm and the movie (with a break or two) will be from 6 - 9 pm. Reservations are needed and will be limited to 10 people. FMI and/or to reserve, contact Jean at 862-2063 or at megress@gwi.net

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Maine Lesbians listserve Anyone who identifies as a lesbian is welcome to join. The website address is: <http://groups.google.com/group/maine-lesbians> Women can request to join from the website or email me: patput@midcoast.com

Rubyfruit Cafe. A Maine-based, on-line, lesbian virtual community. Rubyfruit Cafe is a lesbian community magazine designed to showcase our lives, creativity, spirituality, politics, and much more. It is a website that will be driven by your submissions, your music, poetry, videos, photos, and stories. Show us where and how you live (show us your "crib") ... Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it...it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
