THE (F)AMILY (A)FFAIRS (N)EWSLETTER

FORWARD THIS OR PASS IT AROUND
TO AS MANY GLBTI-FAMILY MEMBERS AS POSSIBLE.
THE MORE FOLKS WHO TAKE PART, THE BETTER.

1 MARCH 2008

NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) Well folks, this is the first issue of The FAN that is being produced on my new computer. Thanks to all the folks who commiserated with me about the PC-to-Mac changeover. I was surprised at how many people have been through the same ordeal recently. I'm hoping you won't notice any difference at all in the way The FAN looks. Also, as you can tell by the posting "Just the Opposite" at the beginning of the EVENTS postings, it looks like the new computer might allow me to insert graphics in a way that I couldn't do with the old computer. So, if anyone or any group wants to try to include graphics in their enhanced postings, we'll give it another shot and see if it works better this time around.

(NOTES #1:) Don't forget to make your reservations soon for the Equality Maine Annual Awards Banquet and Dance. FMI and/or to order tickets see the web site at www.equalitymaine.org.

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email meagress@qwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. Job Opening. The THRIVE program of the City of Portland, HHSD, Public Health Division has a job opening for "Community Health Promotion Specialist". The position is part of the HIV/STD Prevention Program. The individual will provide education and social marketing services to members of Portland's Gay male community. FMI about the opening and how to apply, check the web site: <http://www.portlandmaine.gov/jobs.asp#Job%20Opportunities>

2. PRYSM is looking for new advisors

PRYSM, or Proud Rainbow Youth of Southern Maine, is a community program of Community Counseling Center in Portland. We hold Drop-Ins for LGBTQ youth ages 22 and under every Tuesday night and the 1st and 3rd Fridays of every month. The purpose of the Drop-Ins is to create safe and supportive community for young Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Questioning, and Allied people through a collaborative effort of youth and adults. This mission is accomplished by providing social support, leadership development, community education and connections to community resources. We usually have between 10 and 20 youth at each Drop-In, and we have a staff of culturally competent volunteers who help facilitate the Drop-Ins. Our monthly events calendars are posted online at www.commcc.org.

In addition, we host an annual LGBTQ Prom each spring at the Holiday Inn By the Bay, and each year between 250 and 300 youth attend from Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and even Canada. This year's LGBTQ Prom is scheduled for Friday, May 9th, at the Holiday Inn By the Bay, and the theme is OUT Through the Decades, as decided on by the Youth Prom Committee.

Those age 25 or older interested in the application process to become a PRYSM Advisor should pay attention to the dates and contact info. listed below.

Paper applications due: Friday, March 21st, 2008 (All applicants will be interviewed by a team of youth, Advisors, and the Program Coordinator. The team will decide which applicants would make appropriate PRYSM Advisors, and those individuals will be invited to attend an all-day training). All-day training: Saturday, April 12th, at 9:30 AM at the PRYSM Drop-In space at Community Counseling Center. For questions or to request an application, please contact Joanna Testa, Program Coordinator, at (207)874-1022 or prysm@commcc.org.

3. Maine SpeakOut Volunteer Trainings: Learning to Tell Your Story

Maine SpeakOut Project is looking for people who are interested in using their personal experience to provide educational opportunities for people all over the state, and for volunteers who would like to further SpeakOuts mission to create a society that is inclusive and respectful of people of different sexual and gender orientations by providing opportunities for dialogue.

SpeakOut works because open dialogue creates shifts in perception that lead to lasting change. By giving Maine people an opportunity to hear about daily experiences with prejudice and discrimination, MSOP volunteers provide a very effective way for communities to hear and begin to understand how prejudice and discrimination hurt us all.

There are several MSOP Volunteer Trainings scheduled for Spring 2008.

Saturday, March 15: Portland

Saturday, April 12: Orono

Saturday, April 19: Ellsworth

Saturday, May 3: Wiscasset

Training covers a variety of topics that will help to prepare you for volunteering with Maine SpeakOut Project:

- Developing and telling a personal story
- Speaking and working with a co-speaker
- Non-divisive dialogue and responses
- Responding to difficult or hostile questions and comments
- How to refer and recommend community resources for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons

This training free, and is also open to people who do not wish to become members of the Speakers Bureau but would like to learn these skills.

Pre-registration is required; lunch and snacks are provided. To register, or for more information, contact Program Coordinator Jen Hodsdon at 207-874-1030 or speakout@commcc.org.

4. Seeking a volunteer illustrator. I am publishing a book of short stories and novellas, The Godmothers and Other Lesbian Fairy Tales. One of the stories is a fairy tale, "Becca and the Woman Prince" – about an interracial, teenaged, lesbian romance between a princess from medieval France and a woman prince from the ancient kingdom of Mali in Africa. What I am wanting for the cover is an illustration of Becca and the Woman Prince, and I would like to communicate with artists who might be interested in the project. This would be a volunteer art project. I can offer the illustrator two copies of the book when it's published, and, of course, the artist retains copyright of her art. This is my sixth book. There's more information about my work at www.carolyngage.com. If interested, please contact me, Carolyn Gage, at carolyn@carolyngage.com

5. Make Beautiful Tribe Gathering: April 24-27, 2008

This is a weekend retreat offering the opportunity to live in an intentional gay male community produced by, and for, participants to celebrate our unique wisdom and diversity. It's an event for men to get to know each other, have fun, build community, hang out, network, and explore being gay or bi in an attitude-free safe space.

Situated in a wooded, rustic setting, the Tanglewood 4-H Camp provides wonderful place for us to hold our gathering! The lodge we utilize is a wonderful single great room with a huge fieldstone fireplace and a brand new restaurant kitchen off to one side. There are various large and small cabins throughout the camp numbering more than a dozen. There is even a wood-fired sauna available for relaxation along with acres of wooded trails for hiking.

Our gathering weekend format is open, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do - attend a workshop, go for a hike, play cards or just sit by a roaring fire at the main lodge. We have a talent show on Saturday evening. So come sing, perform, dance, lip-sync, read poetry, tell stories or just come perform and show off! Have fun celebrating our diversity. Bring your own costumes, accessories and music.

For more information and to be added to the mailing list, please contact Jim at bangoremail@yahoo.com

6. Gay Men Together: May 1-4, 2008

GMT is held twice a year, in May, and in October, with this May being our 24th WEEKEND. GMT was formed by a group of gay men, feeling a need to do "community" work, moving into the 21st century having dealt with such a devastating disease as AIDS for fifteen years which took all, and even more of our energy. GMT has been very successful. We hold approximately twenty different workshops at each retreat, some with laughter, some with tears and all are led by participants. The GMT week-end is an open format, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do. There are up to 5 different workshops for each time period. The food, prepared by volunteer participants under the direction of our chef is fabulous. We have a dance and talent show on Saturday evening. The lodge where this event is held is a wonderful turn of the century lodge, located in W. Gardiner, Me., connected by a boardwalk on the lake's edge to twenty different cabins. There are fieldstone fireplaces, loons calling in the morning (for real) and over a hundred acres of land. The lodge offers a wonderful place for us to hold our week-end! Canoeing, swimming, hiking and much more is offered as things to do, in addition to the workshops that GMT has. We do fill very quickly, and you must be pre-registered to attend. FMI and/or to register, see the web site at www.gaymentogether.net

7. Save the Date: Youth Activism Gathering, April 19-21, 2008 at Turner Grange, Route 117, Turner, ME (near Leavitt HS). More information coming soon.

OP/EDS:

This is your chance to spout off (or offer your insightful thoughts and opinions) about ANYTHING related to the GLBTI community. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit. Please keep your thoughts as succinct (and civilized) as possible. Subscribers should be willing to allow at least their first name and an email address to be listed with the posting.

Issues Comparison: Barack & Hillary

The article I Refuse to Buy into the Obama Hype, found at the following URL at The Daily Kos, is one that might be very helpful for people having trouble cutting through the subjective presentation of "facts" as reported by the Clinton and Obama campaigns and their supporters and detractors.

It was written by a woman who laid aside the media hype as well as resources of the so-called fact-checking websites that often seem slanted themselves. She went to the Library of Congress and actually looked up and compared the voting and bill sponsoring records of Sen. Hillary Clinton and Sen. Barack Obama. She presents detailed information about bills they sponsored and co-sponsored (does it address a need?), who they were able to convince to co-sponsor their bills (are they able to gather support for their work?), passage successes (were their efforts fruitful, did they become law?) and comparisons of similar bills as to how they actually affect issues important to her.

She was surprised at the results of her research. Perhaps this information, from a research project approached with an open mind toward both candidates, will be useful to someone else. The link is <http://www.dailykos.com/storyonly/2008/2/20/201332/807/36/458633>

RE: Ellsworth Picnic Area

Ellsworth Woods on route 1 is gone. The old sign and picnic table etc. are gone. The driveways are blocked. This is not the usual seasonal closing which I always assumed was to give the much used trails a chance to recuperate over the winter. Now I wonder who controls the former park and who made the decision to erase it and exactly why? In my opinion this is a sad loss for the gay community as it had been a popular spot for socializing. Also, it seemed to be a well used picnic spot for the general public. And I especially miss it as a great place to exercise the dogs after the long ride up from 'away.' What's up with the closing? Who is responsible and what does "the Family" think about it?

Gay Guys Group Gatherings (Thanks to Wayne for this report)

Although the weather wasn't the greatest (READ: very slippery), about 15 fearless souls ventured out for a wonderful evening of food and chit-chat at the Pumpkin Club, John C.'s private club (in his heated barn) in Surry last Feb. 13. John had decorated the entire area with girl band posters and all sorts of Valentine's paraphernalia. What a lot of work! He has promised to host again perhaps in the summer when the weather is more agreeable. We all had a great time!

Our strength and independence come from the fact that there is no single benefactor who has seeded the Fund with a large amount of capital. Contributions you make are added to those of your sisters and brothers. Individually, they may seem modest, but collectively they add up to a powerful force that is reinvested in the support of projects fostering the well-being of all our gender variant minorities. Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk---it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoo.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/>. Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____". Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
