

NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email medress@gwi.net

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or books@usm.maine.edu

I am publishing a book of short stories and novellas, The Godmothers and Other Lesbian Fairy Tales. One of the stories is a fairy tale, "Becca and the Woman Prince" – about an interracial, teenaged, lesbian romance between a princess from medieval France and a woman prince from the ancient kingdom of Mali in Africa. What I am wanting for the cover is an illustration of Becca and the Woman Prince, and I would like to communicate with artists who might be interested in the project. This would be a volunteer art project. I can offer the illustrator two copies of the book when it's published, and, of course, the artist retains copyright of her art. This is my sixth book. There's more information about my work at www.carolyngage.com. If interested, please contact me, Carolyn Gage, at carolyn@carolyngage.com.

3. Auditions For A Play Reading.

Sunday, April 6 at 4 pm. Auditions for THE COUNTESS AND THE LESBIANS written and directed by Carolyn Gage. A new play about Countess Markiewicz, the Easter Rising, and lesbians in love. Seeking three female actors, 30's, for performance at the Maine Association of Community Theatres Conference on Saturday, April 26 in Dover-Foxcroft and on April 27 in Portland (venue to be announced).

Also for reading scenes from Gage's new book NINE SHORT PLAYS at book signings on April 24 at Longfellow Books in Portland and on May 3 at Gulf of Maine Books in Brunswick.

Lesbians are especially encouraged to audition. Email for directions: carolyn@carolyngage.com or call 774-4231.

4. PRYSM is looking for new advisors

PRYSM, or Proud Rainbow Youth of Southern Maine, is a community program of Community Counseling Center in Portland. We hold Drop-Ins for LGBTQA youth ages 22 and under every Tuesday night and the 1st and 3rd Fridays of every month. The purpose of the Drop-Ins is to create safe and supportive community for young Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Questioning, and Allied people through a collaborative effort of youth and adults. This mission is accomplished by providing social support, leadership development, community education and connections to community resources. We usually have between 10 and 20 youth at each Drop-In, and we have a staff of culturally competent volunteers who help facilitate the Drop-Ins. Our monthly events calendars are posted online at www.commcc.org.

In addition, we host an annual LGBTQA Prom each spring at the Holiday Inn By the Bay, and each year between 250 and 300 youth attend from Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and even Canada. This year's LGBTQA Prom is scheduled for Friday, May 9th, at the Holiday Inn By the Bay, and the theme is OUT Through the Decades, as decided on by the Youth Prom Committee.

Those age 25 or older interested in the application process to become a PRYSM Advisor should pay attention to the dates and contact info. listed below. Paper applications due: Friday, March 21st, 2008 (All applicants will be interviewed by a team of youth, Advisors, and the Program Coordinator. The team will decide which applicants would make appropriate PRYSM Advisors, and those individuals will be invited to attend an all-day training).

All-day training: Saturday, April 12th, at 9:30 AM at the PRYSM Drop-In space at Community Counseling Center

For questions or to request an application, please contact Joanna Testa, Program Coordinator, at (207)874-1022 or prysm@commcc.org

5. Maine SpeakOut Volunteer Trainings: Learning to Tell Your Story

Maine SpeakOut Project is looking for people who are interested in using their personal experience to provide educational opportunities for people all over the state, and for volunteers who would like to further SpeakOuts mission to create a society that is inclusive and respectful of people of different sexual and gender orientations by providing opportunities for dialogue. SpeakOut works because open dialogue creates shifts in perception that lead to lasting change. By giving Maine people an opportunity to hear about daily experiences with prejudice and discrimination, MSOP volunteers provide a very effective way for communities to hear and begin to understand how prejudice and discrimination hurt us all. There are several MSOP Volunteer Trainings scheduled for Spring 2008.

Saturday, April 12: Orono
Saturday, April 19: Ellsworth
Saturday, May 3: Wiscasset

Training covers a variety of topics that will help to prepare you for volunteering with Maine SpeakOut Project:

- * Developing and telling a personal story
- * Speaking and working with a co-speaker
- * Non-divisive dialogue and responses
- * Responding to difficult or hostile questions and comments
- * How to refer and recommend community resources for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons

This training free, and is also open to people who do not wish to become members of the Speakers Bureau but would like to learn these skills. Pre-registration is required; lunch and snacks are provided. To register, or for more information, contact Program Coordinator Jen Hodsdon at 207-874-1030 or speakout@commcc.org

6. Eighth Annual: Youth Activism Gathering,

April 19-21, 2008 at Turner Grange, Route 117, Turner, ME (near Leavitt HS). This is a chance for youth to come together, organize, & share ideas. Meet people from around the state; have a voice in our communities; share skills and information to empower ourselves. Come to workshops & discussions on: *Youth Empowerment *DIY Health and Reproductive Health *Direct Action *Political Prisoners *ConsentHerbal Healing *Know Your Rights *Atlantica Teach-in And much more..... Everyone is encouraged to bring their own ideas for workshops or discussions.

ALSO: #Movies #Cook/Bake-off #DIY music and entertainment #Punk Show on Sunday evening #Icebreakers and time to hang out and meet activist youth from around Maine

All meals and lodging will be provided.

Who is the Youth Activism Gathering for? We welcome people of all ages. People at the last seven gatherings have been mostly people in their teens, with others in their twenties and a little older attending too. The gathering is on a weekend in the hopes that more people who are busy during the week can make it. Diversity of opinions and backgrounds (including GLBTI youth) is welcome! Come with an open mind to share ideas and meet great people. The Gathering is a place to learn and teach about activism and organizing! And have fun! This is an open, participatory gathering—we'd love to have you lead a workshop.

Please try to register by April 15. FMI Contact Info: Ariel, (207) 774-9979 or arielhp@riseup.net to register or Larry, rosc@psouth.net or (207) 525-7776 for general questions and more details. Also, see our page at www.myspace.com/youthactivismgathering

When youth get together, there is ENERGY, there is CREATIVITY, there is INSPIRATION, and there is POWER.

7. Make Beautiful Tribe Gathering: April 24-27 2008

This is a weekend retreat offering the opportunity to live in an intentional gay male community produced by, and for, participants to celebrate our unique wisdom and diversity. It's an event for men to get to know each other, have fun, build community, hang out, network, and explore being gay or bi in an attitude-free safe space.

Situated in a wooded, rustic setting, the Tanglewood 4-H Camp provides wonderful place for us to hold our gathering! The lodge we utilize is a wonderful single great room with a huge fieldstone fireplace and a brand new restaurant kitchen off to one side. There are various large and small cabins throughout the camp numbering more than a dozen. There is even a wood-fired sauna available for relaxation along with acres of wooded trails for hiking.

Our gathering weekend format is open, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do - attend a workshop, go for a hike, play cards or just sit by a roaring fire at the main lodge. We have a talent show on Saturday evening. So come sing, perform, dance, lip-sync, read poetry, tell stories & just come perform and show off! Have fun celebrating our diversity. Bring your own costumes, accessories and music.

For more information and to be added to the mailing list, please contact Jim at bangoremail@yahoo.com

8. Gay Men Together: May 1-4, 2008

GMT is held twice a year, in May, and in October, with this May being our 24th WEEKEND. GMT was formed by a group of gay men, feeling a need to do "community" work, moving into the 21st century having dealt with such a devastating disease as AIDS for fifteen years which took all, and even more of our energy. GMT has been very successful. We hold approximately twenty different workshops at each retreat, some with laughter, some with tears and all are led by participants. The GMT week-end is an open format, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do. There are up to 5 different workshops for each time period. The food, prepared by volunteer participants under the direction of our chef is fabulous. We have a dance and talent show on Saturday evening. The lodge where this event is held is a wonderful turn of the century lodge, located in W. Gardiner, Me., connected by a boardwalk on the lake's edge to twenty different cabins. There are fieldstone fireplaces, loons calling in the morning (for real) and over a hundred acres of land. The lodge offers a wonderful place for us to hold our week-end! Canoeing, swimming, hiking and much more is offered as things to do, in addition to the workshops that GMT has. We do fill very quickly, and you must be pre-registered to attend. FMI and/or to register, see the web site at www.gaymentogether.net

9. We've Saved You A Seat at the Maine LGBTI Health Summit: Challenges/Opportunities/Changes.

In Healthy Maine 2010: Opportunities for All, sexual orientation and sexual minority status are factors that can lead to health disparities. These health disparities are intensified by a lack of population based data on the LGBTI community resulting in a scarcity of information on the health of LGBTI Mainers.

That's why the Maine Center for Disease Control and Prevention (ME CDC) will be hosting its first LGBTI Health Summit - Challenges, Opportunities, Change on Thursday May 29th, 2008 at the Augusta Civic Center, Augusta, Maine, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Through a combination of educational sessions and workshops the 2008 Summit will focus on increasing awareness of health disparities, advocacy for consumers, and the collection of health related data in LGBTI communities.

Registration fee $25. To register: visit www.neias.org/mecdc/lgbti08.html or call 207-626-3615

EVENTS (CHANGING):

 MAR 21 (Friday), Blue Hill, "8,000 DRUMS"—A GLOBAL EVENT. Noon to 2 PM. Location TBA.

"When 8,000 sacred drums play together, an intense healing of Mother Earth will commence."
~from a 500 year-old Otomi Prophecy

On March 21 at noon, native peoples and tribal people worldwide will join together by drumming (in groups or as individuals with hand drums) and pray for healing our Mother Earth. In the Eastern time zone, we drum at 12:00 noon, while people in the Western time zone will drum at 10:00 a.m. The event is called 8,000 Drums. The full moon is on March 21 and the spring equinox, March 20. The purpose is to fulfill the 500-year-old Otomi Prophecy, which was written on a rock within a sacred cave in Mexico. The Otomi are Mayan Olmec and Toltec descendants. A huge group gathers in Mexico/Mayan ruins for this event. Two Huron Clan Grandmothers, who will pray and drum from their part of Canada, send this call-to-drum message. Please join us in Blue Hill to send out our healing intentions through the drum. Extra hand drums will be available. Stop in for a bit during your lunch break—or stay for the whole two hours. If you can't make it at that time, offering a silent prayer or chant will connect you to the more than 8,000 drums around the world and will give the effort more strength. Everyone is welcome to participate! A'ho (It has been spoken) FMI, please contact Eileen at 667-2019 or via e-mail: hearme@natisp.com

 MAR 22 (Saturday), Bangor, Easter Egg Hunt

GLBTA families and Friends
Come join the Hunt!

The Bridge Alliance is teaming up once again with The Maine Discovery Museum to provide some holiday cheer for GLBTA parents and their children of all ages. Please join us our first annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 22, 2007 from 5:30 PM to 8:30 PM at The Maine Discovery Museum, 74 Main Street, Bangor, Maine. Free and welcoming to all LGBTQ families & friends. Easter eggs will be hidden for children to find and The Easter Bunny will be on hand to liven up the festivities. And of course there are 3 floors of interactive exhibits for all ages. A great time is certain to be had by all. FMI contact John Costello at 945-5925 or The Maine Discovery Museum at 262-7200. You can also check their web site at www.mainediscoverymuseum.org

 MAR 29 (Saturday), Portland, SWAN DAY !! SWAN Day is an idea whose time has come! Sponsored by the Fund for Women Artists, it is a new initiative to encourage communities around the world to celebrate women in the arts. SWAN stands for "Support Women Artists Now!" and SWAN Day has been designated as the last Saturday of March, which is Women's History Month. Portland's first-ever SWAN Day event, organized by Laura Emack is going to be a reading of short works by women playwrights at the University of New England Art Gallery, 716 Stevens Avenue, 4-6:30 PM. It's co-sponsored by the International Center for Women Playwrights and the Maine Women Writers Collection at UNE. Family member Carolyn Gage will be presenting Calamity Jane Sends a Message to Her Daughter. The other writers include Laura Emack, Danie Connolly, Joye Cook-Levy, Cynthia Thayer, Karmo Sanders, Kimberly Grindle, Julia Clapp, and Robin Byrd. FMI can contact Laura Emack LKECPA@prexar.com or (207) 567-3437.

* MAR 31 (Monday), Portland, screening of the film KEEP NOT SILENT: ORTHO-DYKES, two showings at 5:30 and at 8:00 pm. The Maine Jewish Film Festival's Annual LGBT Film Project. The Director of the film, Ilil Alexander, will be visiting from Israel to participate in a forum after each screening and the 7:00 PM reception. This event will be held at SPACE at 538 Congress St. in Portland, ME. To learn more information or purchase tickets, visit www.mjff.org or call (207)831-7495. The price of the tickets is $7, $5 for youth 18 and under and adults over 65.

Director Ilil Alexander's debut film boldly documents the clandestine struggle of three remarkable lesbians within their beloved Orthodox Jewish communities in Jerusalem. All three women are piously committed to their faith and their families. Instead of walking away from a religious community, whose leaders insist that God did not create people with homosexual "tendencies" that cannot be overcome, each of these women choose a unique approach to express both her sexual and religious identities.

* APR 4 (Friday), Ellsworth, Drag Show with Lady Valrie and Madame Katrina, at the White Birches Motel, 8 pm, to benefit Down East AIDS Network.

* APR 10 (Thursday), Machias, Singer/Songwriter Jessi Mallory will be performing live at UMaine Machias. Portside Hall at UMaine Machias Will Be Rockin' again this year with Jessi and a great bunch of female performers for Chicks With Picks!

* APR 12 (Saturday), Machias, UMaine Machias Rainbow Ball. The Rainbow Ball is a formal prom event for the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgendered, and Allied students of Maine. All associated High School and College students are invited to attend this event, which we hope will become a yearly tradition of fun and inclusion. High School students will pay $10.00 per person, which includes dorm housing for students and their chaperone on the night of the prom. All others will pay $15.00 per person or $20.00 per couple for advanced tickets, or $20.00 per person, $25.00 per couple at the door. Dorm housing is also available for college students for an additional fee of $10.00. Ticket prices include the Dance, Prom Photos, "Mocktails" (non alcoholic beverages) and Hors D'oeuvres. FMI contact Lois-Ann Kuntz, faculty advisor: lkuntz@maine.edu - please include "Rainbow Ball" in the subject line.

Howard Foundation. This is a foundation dedicated to building a permanent scholarship endowment for high school seniors and post secondary students. The foundation focuses on students who are entering any profession that promotes diversity and a better understanding of differences in people within our communities. Guidelines for allotting the scholarships are presently being formulated. A second goal for the foundation is to establish a 3-day festival called "Multi-Cultural Days - Bangor" which will be open to every ethnic/cultural group in Maine with a focus on education, food, music/entertainment, dancing, and inspirational speakers. People interested in being on the Planning Committee, or being involved in any way, can contact Dan Williams at 942-9319 or at knead24u@yahoo.com. The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or bocks@usm.maine.edu.

Lesbian Health Project. Initiated in 1992, the Lesbian Health Project of the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center seeks to promote non-homophobic health services which will provide lesbians with the ability to make the best health decisions possible based on accurate knowledge. The focus of the project is on developing educational materials for lesbians and trainings for health and social service professionals. In addition, the project sponsors a Lesbian Health Clinic at the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center which provides low-cost, woman positive, lesbian-centered health care including: pelvic exams, breast exams, health education, instruction in breast self-exam, pap smears, mammography referrals, health advocacy, screening and treatment of STD's. For more information or to become involved in the work of the project contact the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center at 947-5337

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahooogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Maine Lesbians listserve Anyone who identifies as a lesbian is welcome to join. The website address is: <http://groups.google.com/group/maine-lesbians> Women can request to join from the website or email me: patput@midcoast.com

Proud Lesbians of Poverty We seek people to join the group as we explore ways to improve the civil rights of GLBTQ's of poverty who cannot afford a lawyer to enforce their Gay Civil Rights, or their orginial Human Rights as a person. We are open to all people of any background. FMI contact Jan at janshouse@yahoo.com or phone 207-453-2353 or join the yahoo group at <http://health.groups.yahoo.com/group/ProudLesbians/>

Rubyfruit Cafe. A Maine-based, on-line, lesbian virtual community. Rubyfruit Cafe is a lesbian community magazine designed to showcase our lives, creativity, spirituality, politics, and much more. It is a website that will be driven by your submissions, your music, poetry, videos, photos, and stories. Show us where and how you live (show us your "crib") ... Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It is covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on.

There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
