1. LGBT Recovery System in Maine

In "greater Bangor" area:

Hammond St. Congregational Church is starting up an Addictions Ministry very soon and they certainly will be LGBT friendly. There is an AA meeting that is gay friendly that meets at noon at the Unitarian church on Park Street (in Bangor). They will be welcoming, as there are already members who are gay.

There is a Gay AA meeting (we like to think of it as a generic recovery meeting) in Ellsworth, Friday night 6:30, UU church, it is listed in the area meetings as Gay and Lesbian.

The one that meets on Saturday at Husson (11 AM) has gay members too that are very comfortable being out gay AA members.

In Portland area:

I know that Portland has an AA group that meets Sunday nights that is gay only.

There are a number of good support organizations in Portland. Contact Portland Public Health on India St. and/or The Frannie Peabody Center on Oak St.

General Info:

There are a number of gay-friendly AA meetings in the area, and none should be gay-averse.

More information can be found on the Central Maine AA meeting site: www.aamaine.org

Then click on the list of over 700 meetings. There is a legend there letting one know that the meetings he is looking for have a legend of G for gay meetings.

(ed. note: These are the listings I found at the aamaine web site that are specifically GLBT)

PORTLAND, SUNDAY, 6:30 PM, WILLISTON WEST CHURCH, 32 THOMAS ST

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, 6:30 PM, ST LUKE'S CHURCH, 143 STATE ST (USE PARK ST ENTRANCE)

ELLSWORTH, FRIDAY, 6:30 PM, UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, 121 BUCKSPORT RD (AKA RT 1)

KENNEBUNK, TUESDAY, 8:00 PM, ST DAVID'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, 138 YORK ST

2. Looking for piano technician/tuner. I am in search of a gay or gay friendly piano technician/tuner in the eastern part of the state. The one I used to use still has a Bush/Cheney bumper sticker on his vehicle. I find myself experiencing visceral resistance to continuing with him, and would like to find someone "in the family" or very family friendly. I've asked around, but anyone I know who has experience with piano techs considers them to be ultra conservative. It occurred to me that someone reading the FAN might be aware if there is someone more suitable working in my area of the state, particularly the Bangor/Ellsworth area. Persons who think they could help please contact Ron at martron1@yahoo.com

3. Family member, Mark Nutt shows Vivid Abstractions at Penobscot Theatre Company. Mark was invited to show at Penobscot Theatre Company through the remainder of their performance season this spring in conjunction with their production, Little Shop of Horrors. You can view his work, 16 abstract paintings, weekdays 10a to 4p & during performances in the theatre gallery at 131 Main St, Bangor, Maine. www.penobscottheatre.org

Mark is also scenic artist for the Penobscot Theatre Company. He writes: "My strongest scenic work to date, Little Shop of Horrors by Alan Menken and Howard Ashman, received rave reviews with a sell-out crowd opening night at Penobscot Theatre Company. For this show, I not only painted, but designed some scenic elements including dead floral arrangements and almost 500 feet of vines that take over the theatre house! A volunteer crew of 14 helped me and Production Designer, Lex Liang, create the phenomenal Skid Row set." I continue to paint in my studio and with the theatre and enjoying every minute of it! #### 4. Be A Part Of GLBT Maine History !!

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or bocks@usm.maine.edu

6. Maine SpeakOut Volunteer Trainings: Learning to Tell Your Story

Maine SpeakOut Project is looking for people who are interested in using their personal experience to provide educational opportunities for people all over the state, and for volunteers who would like to further SpeakOuts mission to create a society that is inclusive and respectful of people of different sexual and gender orientations by providing opportunities for dialogue. SpeakOut works because open dialogue creates shifts in perception that lead to lasting change. By giving Maine people an opportunity to hear about daily experiences with prejudice and discrimination, MSOP volunteers provide a very effective way for communities to hear and begin to understand how prejudice and discrimination hurt us all. There are several MSOP Volunteer Trainings scheduled for Spring 2008.

8. Make Beautiful Tribe Gathering: April 24-27 2008

This is a weekend retreat offering the opportunity to live in an intentional gay male community produced by, and for, participants to celebrate our unique wisdom and diversity. It's an event for men to get to know each other, have fun, build community, hang out, network, and explore being gay or bi in an attitude-free safe space.

Situated in a wooded, rustic setting, the Tanglewood 4-H Camp provides wonderful place for us to hold our gathering! The lodge we utilize is a wonderful single great room with a huge fieldstone fireplace and a brand new restaurant kitchen off to one side. There are various large and small cabins throughout the camp numbering more than a dozen. There is even a wood-fired sauna available for relaxation along with acres of wooded trails for hiking.

Our gathering weekend format is open, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do - attend a workshop, go for a hike, play cards or just sit by a roaring fire at the main lodge. We have a talent show on Saturday evening. So come sing, perform, dance, lip-sync, read poetry, tell stories & just come perform and show off! Have fun celebrating our diversity. #### 9. GLBT Art Show.

Susan Maasch Fine Art, Portland, presents an art show called Equality: Art By and For the GLBT Community. The work explores gender and includes the portraits of Berenice Abbott who photographed many prominent artists and writers in the 20's who were Lesbian and Gay. There are photographs of Frida Kahlo, and there are paintings that focus on gender questioning art. The curatorial effort is to see how art can tell a sensitive and effective story. The most fascinating people have come in to see the show, and we are collecting a book of comments and personal stories from those who volunteer to share their stories. Please visit this strong exhibition. SMFA is at 29 Forest Ave, near Congress Street. Hours: Wednesday thru Friday 11-6 and Saturday 11-4. The show runs through Wednesday, April 23. You can check the web site at www.susanmaaschfineart.com. #### 10. Share Your Story By April 25TH !

Rita and Sara Jane met in 1980 in South Paris. At a time when there were few role models, the couple thought they were the only lesbians on the planet, let alone in Maine. Times have changed since then. But as a community we still need to educate Mainers about the reality of the same-sex couples who are their neighbors, friends, and colleagues.

Help us today by sharing your story.

As part of a long-term public education campaign to raise awareness of same-sex relationships in the state, Equality Maine and GLAD have launched an exciting new project called Our Stories: Profiles of Same Sex Couples in Maine. These stories will be collected at www.ourstoriesme.org and in a print storybook. By showing Maine citizens what love really looks like, we'll open minds and hearts - and move closer to full equality for the LGBT community.

If you are in a committed same-sex relationship, I hope you and your partner will take a moment to share your story. If you have been inspired by a committed same-sex couple, we'd love to hear from you too. And please forward this message on to others - we need your help to spread the word. And know that your privacy is important to us. You can share your story without using your full name - visit www.ourstoriesme.org for details. Do you have questions about Our Stories? Email stories@ourstoriesme.org

We need 150 more stories to reach our goal by April 25, 2008.

12. Gay Men Together: May 1-4, 2008

GMT is held twice a year, in May, and in October, with this May being our 24th WEEKEND. GMT was formed by a group of gay men, feeling a need to do "community" work, moving into the 21st century having dealt with such a devastating disease as AIDS for fifteen years which took all, and even more of our energy. GMT has been very successful. We hold approximately twenty different workshops at each retreat, some with laughter, some with tears and all are led by participants. The GMT week-end is an open format, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do. There are up to 5 different workshops for each time period. The food, prepared by volunteer participants under the direction of our chef is fabulous. We have a dance and talent show on Saturday evening. The lodge where this event is held is a wonderful turn of the century lodge, located in W. Gardiner, Me., connected by a boardwalk on the lake's edge to twenty different cabins. There are fieldstone fireplaces, loons calling in the morning (for real) and over a hundred acres of land. The lodge offers a wonderful place for us to hold our week-end! Canoeing, swimming, hiking and much more is offered as things to do, in addition to the workshops that GMT has. We do fill very quickly, and you must be pre-registered to attend. FMI and/or to register, see the web site at www.gaymentogether.net

13. We've Saved You A Seat at the Maine LGBTI Health Summit: Challenges/Opportunities/Changes.

In Healthy Maine 2010: Opportunities for All, sexual orientation and sexual minority status are factors that can lead to health disparities. These health disparities are intensified by a lack of population based data on the LGBTI community resulting in a scarcity of information on the health of LGBTI Mainers.

That's why the Maine Center for Disease Control and Prevention (ME CDC) will be hosting its first LGBTI Health Summit - Challenges, Opportunities, Change on Thursday May 29th, 2008 at the Augusta Civic Center, Augusta, Maine, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Through a combination of educational sessions and workshops the 2008 Summit will focus on increasing awareness of health disparities, advocacy for consumers, and the collection of health related data in LGBTI communities.

Registration fee $25. To register: visit www.neias.org/mecdc/lgbti08.html or call 207-626-3615

* APR 22 (Tuesday), Bangor, Legal Issues For Lesbians

Last Spring the Lesbian Health Project conducted two focus groups under the direction of Tracey Minervino, graduate student in social work. More information on legal rights for lesbians was one of the needs strongly expressed by participants. Therefore, the Lesbian Health Project of the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center is sponsoring a free educational session:

Getting It All Together: Legal Issues for Lesbians

5:30 to 8:30 pm

Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center
700 Mt. Hope Ave., Suite 420
Bangor

This session, for both singles and couples, will cover estate planning issues of particular interest to lesbians. If you want to direct where your assets go after your death, you must plan carefully. A will alone might not achieve what you wish. You must also plan for your care if something happens to you and you cannot care for yourself. This includes assuring who will have access to your medical records, make medical decisions, and have visitation rights. Lynne will discuss wills, trusts, durable powers of attorney and health care powers of attorney, as well as what role domestic partnership might play in your planning. We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to receive extremely important information at no cost. * APR 27 (Sunday), Portland, 7:30 PM, Women of the Rising: A Celebration in Music and Drama. The St. Lawrence Arts Center (located at 76 Congress St) and the Center for Ethics in Action are co-sponsoring a special commemoration on the anniversary of the Easter Rising in Dublin. The evening will feature Maine's own all-women Irish band, Ladies of the Lake, presenting a program of traditional Irish music. It will also feature the North American premiere of the play The Countess and the Lesbians by Carolyn Gage. This is a play about Countess Markiewicz, the only woman leader of the Rising, and her relationship to her lesbian sister Eva Gore-Booth and Eva's life partner Esther Roper. All three women were activists and all three were involved in Ireland's struggle for freedom. The play is being showcased this year the Dublin International Gay Theatre Festival. There were many lesbians among the women of the Rising. This is not surprising, as these were women without traditional responsibilities toward husbands and children. Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chilern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/>. Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join...however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! #### THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
