NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) I recently learned about two new social groups for men in the southern part of Maine. You can check them out in the SOCIAL GROUPS (MORE THAN 50 MILES FROM BANGOR) category: GetOut (PORTLAND and OGUNQUIT) and also Guy2Guy (BRUNSWICK and LEWISTON/AUBURN)

(NEWS #2:) 3rd Annual Dyke March, in Portland. Friday, June 13, 7:00 pm, leaves from Monument Square. Sponsored by EqualityMaine. Afterparty 9:00 pm at the North Star Cafe (225 Congress St). FMI contact portlanddykemarch@gmail.com

(NEWS #3:) It's not like I (your editor) need any other diversions in my life, but for some reason I've lately been taken with a bug for cryptoquip puzzles. Those are the short word puzzles where a saying, either a famous quote of some kind or a funny little quip, are encoded using a simple letter-for-letter substitution. The goal of "solving" the puzzle, of course, is to decode it and read the saying. Well, I've always enjoyed solving them and recently figured out that they are very easy to make. So, as your publisher/editor, I've decided to start something new in The FAN ... purely for fun. In each issue of The FAN there will now be a cryptoquip that I have written. (I'm going to call them CYBER-QUIPS because I don't know if the term "cryptoquip" is copyrighted in any way.) The solution to each quip will be printed in the following issue of The FAN. For those of you who like puzzles (or have nothing better to do), take a shot at it and have fun. The rest of you, just skip over it.

(NEWS #4:) Southern Maine Pride. This year's Southern Maine Pride events will be held on Saturday, June 21, and will include the annual PRIDE Parade, PRIDE Festival, and PRIDE Pier Dance. FMI check the web site at www.southernmainepride.org

(NEWS #5:) Thirtieth Annual GAYLA gay men's conference in Saco, will be held at Ferry Beach on July 12 - 19 (Saturday - Saturday)

For gay or bisexual men, fighting to make our way in the "straight man's world" can sometimes be a very lonely and often perilous journey. As we have discovered in our "coming out" process, there is no ready-made role model or single template for us to follow as we strive to make progress in our life-long journey toward becoming the best gay or bi man we can possibly be—spiritually, sexually, emotionally, and physically. In an effort to be successful and safe in our quest, many thoughtful gay and bisexual men have realized that we can maximize our personal, as well as collective growth, by forming a community or a brotherhood of men expressly designed to provide mutual support, nurturance, friendship, loving, and mentoring of one another.

Thirty years ago the GAYLA Conference was established at Ferry Beach as one of the earliest communities of gay brotherhood in the United States. During the week of July 12-19, 2008 more than 100 diverse gay and bisexual men will celebrate the spirit of 30 years of brotherhood, as they reunite in GAYLA's intentional community. Over the years hundreds of men from Maine to Texas, Florida to Canada, and from Scotland to Hong Kong have come to the Beach to rekindle friendships, renew their gay spirituality, find love, and experience the re-creation of a community of purpose and brotherhood. For thirty years, the spirit of GAYLA brotherhood has continued to be a very important personal touchstone in the growth of all the men who have attended. Sustaining the spirit of this far-flung brotherhood developed during GAYLA week throughout the year has also become very important to GAYLA brothers.

Single and partnered gay and bisexual men ages 18 and up are invited to come to GAYLA XXX for an all-inclusive, affordable vacation alternative that could potentially change their lives. Help celebrate our past, present, and future. FMI and/or to register, check the web site at www.ferrybeach.org/summercon/gayla.html

(NOTES #1:) AIDS Walk of Northern New England (formerly Maine AIDS Walk). On Saturday, May 3, 2008, the AIDS Walk of Northern New England (AWNNE) will be held in Bangor and Brunswick. On Sunday, May 4, the Walk is being held in Augusta, Brunswick, Ellsworth, Machias, Ogunquit, and Portland, Maine and Portsmouth, New Hampshire. FMI about the walk nearest to you, check the web site at <http://www.maineaids.org/walk> and/or phone your area's local AIDS Network office. (NOTES #2:) No-Cost Women's Health Screening Day in Greenville, Millinocket and Patten. See the postings below at MAY 14 & 15.

(NOTES #3:) 2008 Summer Face to Face - a GLBTI Community Weekend. Some of the folks on Maine Gay Net are organizing a great summer GLBTI community weekend: 2008 Summer Face to Face. The weekend will take place on Mount Desert Island from Friday, July 18 - Sunday, July 20 and will consist of a variety of fun, indoor and outdoor activities that all GLBTQI folks and allies are welcome to take part in. Get OUT, get to the island, and enjoy some of the great Maine summer !! Many of the events listed are still in the planning stages and will go off depending upon how much interest there is for each. If you plan to attend, please contact Dawn at bbginANP@roadrunner.com to sign up for the events you plan to attend. In some cases, space is limited, and there may be some fees involved, so please make your plans early! Here's some of the going's on that are being planned so far:

Friday Evening: Open Mic Comedy (come hear the pantyhose story!) , talent show, and improv plus an Ice Cream Social featuring Dawn F's Hot Fudge Sauce. This will be at the Otter Creek Hall.

Admission is free, donations accepted. Performers and storytellers welcome!

Saturday Day: Photography hike around Upper Hadlock Loop in Acadia National Park
Golfing at the Southwest Harbor Causeway Club
Brook fishing
Big potluck cookout/picnic in Acadia National Park at noon (at the Fabbri Picnic area)
Carriage rides through the park

Saturday Evening: Theatre of Marvels Magic Show featuring Dr. Miller (aka Rusty), at the Otter Creek Hall, 7:00 pm, Admission $5 at the door.

(Please note this is not an exclusively queer event, but a public show.)

Sunday Day: Sunrise coffee and muffins atop Cadillac Mountain
Gentle bike ride on Acadia's carriage trails (perhaps with a lunch stop at the Jordan Pond House)
Men's hikes led by Sturgis and/or Mike G., followed by tea and popovers at the Jordan Pond House
More golf, fishing, and photo hikes
Anything from Saturday that didn't happen but that you still want to try.

Some events may incur a small fee, contact us to sign up and for more information.

At present we're looking for folks who are interested in attending, and perhaps folks who might be willing to lead small groups of gaynetters around to your favorite spots and places here on the island.

LODGING: Many options are available, from camping to chain motels, posh hotels, cozy B&Bs, and people's couches. We're also looking for folks who might be willing to offer a spare bedroom or fold-out couch to some of our out of town guests. We'll try to help hook you up; let us know what you need.

PARK PASSES: Are a must for events in the park. They cost $20, are good for a week, and 80% of the money stays local to help support services at Acadia National Park. Discounts are available for seniors and for people with disabilities. Information about passes and discounts is available at the Hull's Cove Visitor's Center of Acadia National Park after May 1, or by visiting the website: <http://www.nps.gov/acad/> and following the links for fees & reservations.

As you can tell, we're still fluid at this point. We'd like to include as many people as we can, both local and from away so that we have lots of options so nobody will be able to go away saying they were bored. We're still looking for input, we're still looking for volunteers, and we're still looking for people who want to participate. FMI and help in planning your weekend contact Dawn at bbginanp@roadrunner.com

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@zwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. Charming retail store for rent in center of Bar Harbor. Great location. Ideal for upscale, unique merchandise. 990 square feet. $20,000 a season. Respond to Ann at alfhildanda@mac.com

2. WE'VE SAVED YOU A SEAT at the Maine LGBTI Health Summit: Challenges/Opportunities/Changes.

In Healthy Maine 2010: Opportunities for All sexual orientation and sexual minority status are factors that can lead to health disparities. These health disparities are intensified by a lack of population based data on the LGBTI community resulting in a scarcity of information on the health of LGBTI Mainers.

That's why the Maine Center for Disease Control and Prevention (ME CDC) will be hosting its first LGBTI Health Summit - Challenges, Opportunities, Change on Thursday May 29th, 2008 at the Augusta Civic Center, Augusta, Maine, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Through a combination of educational sessions and workshops the 2008 Summit will focus on increasing awareness of health disparities, advocacy for consumers, and the collection of health related data in LGBTI communities.

Registration fee $25. To register: visit www.neias.org/mecdc/lgbti08.html or call 207-626-3615

3. Primary Day Action: The June primaries are less than two months away, and EqualityMaine will be out on Primary Day talking to voters about LGBT equality. With the ever-increasing possibility of anti-LGBT petitions circulating at the polling places on June 10th, it's even more critical that we show up in full force to spread this message: Maine is not interested in discriminating against LGBT citizens. This is an incredible opportunity for us to unite, to make our voices heard, and to out-organize our opposition. Here are two things you can do right now:

- Sign up to volunteer in your town for Primary Day, June 10th
- Help us recruit more volunteers for other polling places around the state. We'll be calling supporters from now until Primary Day, Monday through Thursday, 5:30-8:30, at our office in Portland.

Please email Matt Moonen for more info or call him at 207-761-3732 if you can help!

4. SHARE YOUR STORY - DEADLINE EXTENDED TO JUNE 21 !

What do same-sex relationships in Maine really look like? You and I know they look a lot like any other relationship: we have jobs, families, friends, spiritual communities, pets, homes, and hobbies. We have ups and downs, and love that helps us through.

But as the recent anti-gay referendum proposal has shown, some people in Maine are still struggling with misperceptions and misunderstandings of our lives. There's a simple way for you to help spread the truth: share your story at ourstoriesme.org.

Click here - we've extended the submission deadline to June 21!

To build this storybook, EqualityMaine and GLAD want to hear from Mainers from all walks of life, from Fort Kent to Kittery to Machias and all points in between. Who has a story to tell?

- A committed same-sex couple who's facing life's joys and sorrows together, for better or for worse.
- A parent, grandparent, sibling, or relative who has a family member in a same-sex relationship.
- A straight ally who has stood by friends in same-sex relationships.
- A religious leader who feels called to support same-sex couples.
- You!

In order to give more people a chance to tell their stories, we've pushed the deadline back to June 21. When it's complete, "Our Stories: Profiles of Same-Sex Couples in Maine" will be a dynamic, inspiring portrait of our community.

Be a part of it. Share your story before June 21.

If you've already submitted your story, thank you! Be sure to let your friends and family know they still have time to share theirs.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/>. Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
