NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) There will be no OCT 15 issue of The FAN as I will be away on my annual vacation.

(NEWS #2:) I'd also like to remind everyone that while The FAN has specific guidelines for political announcements (i.e. notices from individual campaigns about specific events that they are sponsoring) those guidelines do not apply to political opinions (i.e. thoughts from individuals, who are not running for a particular office, about why someone or other is ... or is not ... best qualified for that office). Subscribers are welcomed to submit political opinions (succinctly and in good taste) for inclusion in the OP/EDS category. Since there will be no OCT 15 issue of The FAN, that means that folks who would like to voice an opinion before the November 4 election date should get them to me by OCT 31 for inclusion in the NOV 1 issue of The FAN.

(NOTES #1:) Twin Ponds Lodge is a new private social club in Maine for adult male naturists and men who are comfortable with naturists. Check out the listing below in the SOCIAL GROUPS (MORE THAN 50 MILES FROM BANGOR) category.

(NOTES #2:) The Rainbow Business & Professional Association (RBPA). Based in southern Maine. Check the web site at www.rbpa.org and the listing below in the SOCIAL GROUPS (MORE THAN 50 MILES FROM BANGOR) category.

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@gwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. The National Center for Transgender Equality and The National Gay and Lesbian Task Force is conducting a comprehensive national survey on transgender discrimination.

"This is an absolutely critical national effort. We urge all transgender and gender non-conforming people to take the survey to help guide us in making better laws and policies that will improve the quality of life for all transgender people. We need everyone's voice in this, everyone's participation." — Mara Keisling, Executive Director, National Center for Transgender Equality

2. Equality Maine Looking for Poll Captains. We're looking for 50 more poll captains. On November 4, a record number of Mainers will arrive at the polls. We're seizing this opportunity to launch the largest single-day action in EqualityMaine's history, and we need your help to do it. This is unlike anything EqualityMaine has done before: a campaign to identify not 1,000, not 5,000, but 10,000 pro-equality voters - in one day. If we can get 10,000 new supporters to stand with us, we'll move into the upcoming legislative session with the strongest base we've ever had. That's the kind of strength we need in order to make the next steps toward full equality for Maine's LGBT community. With the potential for pro-equality majorities in both chambers, 2009 is our time. We're moving forward in a big way, so we need to be ready. As a poll captain, you'll organize and supervise volunteers at your polling place. No experience is necessary - our field organizers will provide all the training and support you need. One day. One action. Ten thousand voters who share your belief in equality. This is your chance to be a part of it. FMI about this effort, check the web site at <http://equalitymaine.org/get-involved/adopt-poll>

3. Call for talent for The 2nd Annual Lesbian All-Star Show. The 2nd Annual Show is now booked at One Longfellow Square, Portland, on December 6th. Last year we had such a successful evening we have booked a larger space just so all of you can come! We don't want a single one of you to miss this show! If you are interested in performing in the All-Star show, please write to Lesbian Radio at: lesbianradio@gmail.com Last year we had approximately 8 performances throughout an almost three hour evening. It really is a spectacular event. You will smile! So let us know if you would like to participate!

OP/EDS:

This is your chance to spout off (or offer your insightful thoughts and opinions) about ANYTHING related to the GLBTI community. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit. Please keep your thoughts as succinct (and civilized) as possible. Subscribers should be willing to allow at least their first name and an email address to be listed with the posting.

Why We've Got To Help Tom Allen Win

As election day approaches, I'm excited at the prospect of Obama winning. And worried that Tom Allen may lose. I worry that the barrage of pro-Collins advertising, while none too truthful, could well win the day. I believe that would be VERY bad news.

I feel like I've gotten to know Tom Allen a bit over the years. I've spoken with him at gatherings focused on health care, and been impressed by his understanding of the issues, the solutions he proposes, and his candor in admitting the difficult choices and tradeoffs. He doesn't pretend that there are easy answers when, for example, balancing health care access, quality, and choice. He admits that solutions involve difficult tradeoffs ... and I like the choices that he would make. At these events, and at others in the gay (GLBT) or HIV/AIDS communities, I've noticed that he stays beyond the photo opportunity, talking and listening to people. I've come to really LIKE the guy.

Tom's going to be wildly outspent in this campaign, and will probably stick to telling the truth, both major handicaps. I want to see him win anyway. Most of the ads I see (whether from Susan Collins or from Republican/business/etc interests on her behalf) bash Tom in ways that strain credibility, but may resonate for many. It seems that their strategy is to make Susan Collins look like the better option by lying ... by misrepresenting Tom Allen's progressive stands as less supportive of the working/middle class than hers are. I worry that their strategy may work. For example:

1. A full-page color ad in the Portland Press Herald on 9/19 offered a "quiz" showing how your taxes would be raised by Tom. My favorite was this one: "Is it possible you will DIE one day? Dying is usually bad enough. Getting taxed for it is even worse. Yet that's exactly what Tom Allen supports. He's voted against eliminating the death tax, hurting countless families". I remember that issue. I remember learning that estate taxes target just the most wealthy, and already spare low-to-moderate income families. I remember a piece published in the NY Times back then, which made the case that "repealing the estate tax would enrich the heirs of America's millionaires and billionaires while hurting families who struggle to make ends meet. The billions of dollars in government revenue lost [would] inevitably be made up either by increasing taxes on those less able to pay or by cutting Social Security, Medicare, environmental protection and many other government programs so important to our nation's continued well-being." This was written by William H. Gates, father to Bill, and signed by (among others): George Soros, the billionaire financier; two Rockefellers, including Steven, who's chairman of the Rockefeller Brothers Foundation; and Ben Cohen, a founder of Ben & Jerry's.

2. Then there were the recent television and radio ads criticizing Tom's support for the Employee Free Choice Act. Some linked organized labor with organized crime, with an ex-Sopranos star playing the role of a corrupt union boss. Others misrepresented Tom's record of consistently standing up for the rights of workers, saying that the bill (intended to make it easier to organize by giving workers an additional way to sign-up for a union) would deprive workers of their right to a secret ballot. Both the first ad (bashing unions) and the second (worrying about workers' rights to unionize) got enormous play.

The Tom Allen for Senate website makes these compelling contrasts between Tom & Susan Collins:

- On health care: While Susan Collins voted for the Medicare Prescription Drug program that gave billions to big drug companies and denied our government the ability to negotiate lower drug prices for seniors ... Tom Allen is strongly committed to universal health care, and is recognized as a national leader in the fight to lower the cost of prescription drugs.

- On the economy: Susan Collins is the only member of the Maine delegation to support all of President Bush's economic policies. She has voted for every one of the Bush Administration's tax cuts since 2001.

- On social issues: Susan Collins cast one of the deciding votes to confirm Samuel Alito to the Supreme Court, despite his widely known aversion to reproductive freedom, environmental protection, and equality for women. Collins has supported all but 2 of President Bush's Judicial nominees.

- On the war in Iraq: Susan Collins has "continually bowed to the President's terrible judgment". [Though not from Tom's site, I also remember a television news piece about Collins' lack of oversight of waste, fraud & abuse related to this war, when she was Chair of the Senate's chief oversight committee].

For more information: http://tomallen.org/free_details.asp?id=189

Tom Allen is SO different than Susan Collins on the issues ... and so much better. And he'll tell us the truth about where he stands and why.

If you agree, I'm asking that you do whatever you can to help him. Volunteer your time; send money; slap his bumper sticker on your car; and/or add your own comments to this note, and forward it to others who may not fully understand why replacing Susan Collins (such a nice, pro-choice woman) is so important.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@ghi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@zwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
