NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) SAVE THE DATE! The Third Annual Red Ribbon Ball will be on February 7, 2009. Lights! Camera! Action! The Red Ribbon Ball is Eastern Maine AIDS Network's biggest fundraiser, and this year's theme is "The Red Ribbon Meets the Red Carpet". So don your finest duds, prepare for the paparazzi, and plan to join us for a glitzy evening of dancing and entertainment for a very worthy cause at the Spectacular Events Center. Tickets will be available soon!

(NEWS #2:) Tickets for the 25th Annual Equality Maine Awards Banquet are now on sale. The banquet will be on Saturday, March 21st. Get your tickets online at www.equalitymaine.org

(NEWS #3:) I hate to have to admit it, but I'm running out of Cyber-Quips !!! If any readers would like to submit quips for possible inclusion in the newsletter, I would welcome them. Don't bother "coding" them ... just send the quip itself, in English, and I'll take care of the rest. Quip writers will be credited when/if their quip gets used.

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@gwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. Job Announcement: Field Organizer / Senior Field Organizer

EqualityMaine has several immediate, full-time job openings for organizers. We are looking for energetic and self-motivated individuals to join our existing team of organizers focused on winning full equality for LGBT people in Maine. These positions will involve recruiting and motivating large teams of volunteers to work on activities designed to win equality in the legislature and at the ballot box. We are hiring both Field Organizers and Senior Field Organizers; the difference in title and salary is related to an applicant's experience. The start date is January 12, 2009 and all positions are based in Portland.

The Field Organizer/Senior Field Organizer will work as part of a dynamic field team on issues of importance to the LGBT community. Our current focus is identifying and mobilizing thousands of constituents who support marriage equality. We have an ambitious goal to identify 20,000 pro-marriage voters in the next three months, building on the momentum of our most recent action at the polls where we identified over 33,000 pro-marriage voters. As part of this plan, the Field Organizer/Senior Field Organizer will be responsible for ramping up a series of volunteer recruitment initiatives already under way. The Field Organizer/Senior Field Organizer also will be responsible for thinking creatively about additional opportunities to build the volunteer team we need to succeed. Organizers will work under the supervision of the Statewide Field Director.

Qualifications: Demonstrated experience in recruiting, motivating, and training volunteers. Experience in grassroots organizing, including direct voter contact through door-to-door canvassing and phone banking. Experience organizing house parties a plus. Self-motivated and the desire to excel as an organizer. Attention to measurable results. Ability to be a team player and work in a highly collaborative, fast-paced environment. Strong work ethic. Willingness to travel, and work evenings and weekends. Curiosity about all aspects of the LGBT community. Prior experience working in LGBT community is strongly desired.

Send cover letter, resume, and three references to:

bsmith@equalitymaine.org
PO Box 1951, Portland, ME 04104

EqualityMaine does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, disability, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or marital status. Transgender and people of color are especially encouraged to apply.

2. Equality Maine is inviting everyone to join in a very special project that need to be completed by January 1.

We're collaborating with GLAD to make a storybook that depicts the everyday lives of same-sex couples in Maine. It's a critical piece of our strategy to advance the discussion about marriage equality.

This is where you come in. We need you to share your story, whatever it may be.

If you're in a same-sex relationship, tell us how exclusion from marriage affects your family.

If, like so many people, you simply hope to get married someday, tell us how exclusion from marriage might affects your future.

If you have loved ones in same-sex relationships, tell us why you want them to have the same rights and responsibilities as other couples.

Read Rita and Sarah Jane's inspiring story and share your own at www.ourstoriesme.org

As the discussion about marriage equality continues in Maine, we need to remind people what's really at stake: our lives. Yours and mine.

Thank you for adding your voice.
Sincerely,
Betsy Smith
Executive Director, Equality Maine

3. We at the Charlie Howard Memorial Foundation find ourselves in a bit of a financial bind. The memorial is now in place by the Kenduskeag Stream in Bangor, and the Bridge Alliance will do plantings in the spring. The monument will be dedicated on July 7, 2009 in the evening as part of the 25th anniversary events. However, much to my surprise, the installation costs along with the costs for a slightly larger bowl amount to $3611.88. I've paid the last $400 available from the Charlie Howard Memorial Foundation account, and we now find ourselves with a bill of $3211.88. I'll negotiate with Rogan's Memorials about a payment scheme, but would surely appreciate any tax-deductible contributions anyone might make. Those willing could send a check to the Charles O. Howard Memorial Foundation, 1442 State Street, Veazie, ME 04401. (Susan Davies at sdavies@bts.edu)

4. Call for Submissions About Queer Relationships. Family member and activist, Jo, writes: I'm currently working on a project/publication/zine and would like your help! I'm collecting submissions that focus on queer relationships and/or on relationships outside of the traditional one-man-one-woman model. The idea is to present some of the evolution of how queer folk relate to each other (specifically within intimate relationships for this go-round). Essays, thoughts, stories, experiences, rants, etc are all welcome!! Artwork, poems, pictures, etc. are great too. (Some works may be edited for length/content. All contributors will be acknowledged for their submission.) The working title for the project is "Transrelating: A Memoir on Creating Queer Relationships". The initial thought behind it was about how we are redefining and retranslating the old ideas to suit our needs. I plan on putting the zine everywhere and anywhere that I can in as many formats as I can, though there's still a bit that hasn't been worked out yet as it's still in the early stages. FMI and/or to submit entries, email me at amari.jo.s@gmail.com (NOTE: If you don't want to contribute but would like to be kept in the loop on future go-rounds or want to know when this one is done and how to view it, let me know!)

5. Seeking Nominations, 2009 Catalyst for Change Award. The Sampson Center for Diversity in Maine is seeking nominations for its 2009 Catalyst for Change Award. The award acknowledges individuals who have been catalysts for change regarding diversity, equality, human and civil rights in Maine, particularly (but not exclusively) as it relates to the Sampson Collection populations (African American; Jewish; and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender), and to commemorate the life, work, and values of Jean Byers Sampson. Previous award winners are Rabbi Harry Sky and Dale McCormick. You can read details of the award and fill out an online application at: <http://library.usm.maine.edu/specialcollections/catalystforchangeaward.html> Only completed applications will be considered. The deadline is January 31, 2009. If you have questions, please contact: Susie Bock at 207-780-4269.

TAX TIPS FOR THE GLBTI COMMUNITY:

Each month we'll have here a little nugget of advice regarding tax preparation for the GLBTI community. This is provided to us courtesy of Carol Thompson, EA, a family member and federally licensed tax preparation specialist who has graciously volunteered her time for this project. This issue is just a little introduction to get us going, but I've asked Carol if, in her advice, she could put a bit more emphasis on the area of tax preparation for domestic partners. If anyone would like to see some info regarding something specific, let me know and I'll see if Carol can oblige.

Here is the "expanded" version (with additional categories) of the tax tips that appeared in the DEC 1 issue of The FAN. On JAN 1, I will begin the info that Carol has passed along for "domestic partners".

DOCUMENTATION MOST FREQUENTLY FORGOTTEN BY TAXPAYERS FOR THE PREPARATION OF THEIR TAX RETURNS!

Tax preparers need the help of their clients to finish returns quickly and completely. Many taxpayers do not receive all of the deductions they are entitled to because of incomplete records. These are the top twelve items taxpayers generally forget to bring to their tax appointment.

Excise Tax on Automobiles. Not all towns send a bill! Use your checkbook to find payments, or check your car registration.

Sales Tax vs. Income Tax Withheld. You may be entitled to deduct the sales tax you paid if it is higher than your state withholding and if you itemize deductions. The IRS provides a chart based on your income and state of residence. If you purchased a new car, RV, boat, or other large ticket item, you may add the tax for that item to the chart amount. You will need the receipt for the purchase. Most practitioners will automatically calculate the highest deduction for your return.

Child Care Providers: By law, you must provide the child care worker's name, address, Federal ID number, and the total amount paid for the year. If you do not have the provider's ID number, download Form W-10 from the IRS website (irs.gov). This form requires the person to give you his or her Federal ID number (either an employer ID or social security number).

Auto Expense and Mileage. If you used a personal vehicle for work, you must have the total mileage driven, plus the total business mileage for the year for each vehicle. Write down the odometer reading as of today to help determine mileage. (For tax purposes, you should write down your odometer reading every January 1st.)

Charitable Contributions - CASH: There is NO standard deduction for contributions - you may deduct only what you gave, not what you wish you had given! You must provide documentation from the organization for any single contributions over $250.

Charitable Contributions - Non-Cash: Provide a list of items given to Goodwill, Salvation Army, etc., plus a receipt from the organization. The rules for donated goods have been tightened significantly. Call your tax practitioner for details.

Automobiles: If you donated a car to a charity in 2008, stringent new rules determine what you may deduct. The charity you donated your vehicle to must give you a statement of value based on new IRS rules. In most cases, the value will be less than the current "Blue Book" value.

Fourth Quarter Estimate for 2008 paid in January 2009. Be sure to bring in a list of estimated taxes paid in January 2009 for your 2008 income tax returns. If you paid a 2007 state estimate in January 2008, please bring that information, also.

Business Equipment Purchases. Keep all receipts or a list showing the description, date, and amount of any new equipment purchased for your business. This includes telephone systems, copiers, computers, tools, and so on.

Stock Sales. Keep the buy and sell slips for all stock sales - as well as the Forms 1099-B from your broker (whether online or office brokerage). The broker's statement does not list the purchase amount unless you have had a management account with that broker during the entire time you purchased the stock.

Telephone Bills. Personal and business calls must be separated on both the home and cell phones. By law, the first phone in any house is always personal (except for business, toll, and long distance calls). The base fee is never deductible. The base fee of a second line for a home-based business is allowable as a business expense. Cell phones must be allocated based on the time used for business vs. personal calls (the IRS has won all related court cases on this issue!).

HUD (or "escrow") statements for sales of property. If you buy, sell, or refinance any piece of property (home, rental, condo, vacation home, etc.), you will need the final escrow (HUD) statement all property bought or sold (or refinanced) in 2008. If you had a house foreclosed on, make sure to have all HUD statements and lender notices and information.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoo.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
