NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) There will be no FEB 15 issue of The FAN because I will be away on my first ever mid-winter vacation (courtesy of my parents ... God bless 'em). The next issue of The FAN will be on MAR 1, so start sending me all your notices for events going on in March!

(NOTES #1:) Tickets for the 25th Annual Equality Maine Awards Banquet are now on sale. The banquet will be on Saturday, March 21st. Get your tickets online at www.equalitymaine.org

(REMINDERS #1:) EqualityMaine to Host Community Events in Southern Half of State

(Ed. Note: For the little that it's probably worth, your humble editor highly encourages EVERYONE to attend one of these meetings, listen to what is said, and be sure to voice your own thoughts on the matters presented ... whatever those thoughts might be. I will certainly be doing so.)

A new year is upon us -- and EqualityMaine is gearing up for some very important work in 2009. On Election Day we went to the polls to identify 10,000 voters who want marriage equality for same-sex couples. In a stunning show of support, we ended the day with over 33,100 signatures. Now we have a lot to talk about. Please join us at one of our Community Conversations in February. When you RSVP, be sure to include a daytime telephone number and use RSVP - TOWN as the subject line. Here are the towns and dates: EqualityMaine's organizers will be on hand to discuss our strategies and plans for the future, and to answer any questions you may have. That's not all: as we lay the groundwork for 2009, we want to hear your ideas, suggestions and concerns. The time has come for a conversation about marriage equality, and we can't do it without you. This is your chance to be part of an exciting new chapter in EqualityMaine's history. Don't miss it!

(REMINDERS #2:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@gwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. Did you know Charlie Howard? My name is Penny Davis-Dublin, and I am the Interim Scholar-in-Residence of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered Collection of the Jean Byers Sampson Center for Diversity at USM's Glickman Library. I am currently working on a digital presentation about the life of Charlie Howard, a young gay man who drowned after being thrown from a bridge in Bangor in 1984. July 7, 2009 will mark the twentieth-fifth anniversary of his death. To commemorate this tragic occasion as well as to celebrate Charlie Howard's life, I would like to interview people who knew him. My goal is to bring Charlie to life metaphorically as the multi-dimensional person that he really was. If you are interested in participating in this effort, please contact me at pdavisdublin@usm.maine.edu or at 780-4003 or 751-7447. (FEB 1 & MAR 1)

2. RELIABLE GIRL DRIVER WANTED, part-time (up to 10 hours/month). Must have own car and a phone. Duties will be pick-ups/deliveries, and driving me to appointments and/or around town (Portland & vicinity). Must be available a few mornings a week. Salary is minimum wage plus gas. Please contact Denise at 878-0819.

3. For all FAN subscribers who go to the Boston Pride Week festivities. Subscriber Barbara says that a personal friend of hers (and a great Lesbian comedian), Amy Tee, is in the running to be the Grand Marshall for the Boston Pride Parade in 2009. The contestants are being voted on by the GLBT community, and Barbara encourages everyone to go to the Boston Pride web site, check out who the contestants are, and "vote for Amy". You can do that at www.bostonpride.org/vote.php before February 15th.

TAX TIPS FOR THE GLBTI COMMUNITY:

Each month we'll have here a little nugget of advice regarding tax preparation for the GLBTI community. This is provided to us courtesy of Carol Thompson, EA, a family member and federally licensed tax preparation specialist who has graciously volunteered her time for this project. This issue is just a little introduction to get us going, but I've asked Carol if, in her advice, she could put a bit more emphasis on the area of tax preparation for domestic partners. If anyone would like to see some info regarding something specific, let me know and I'll see if Carol can oblige.

DOMESTIC PARTNERS (COUPLES WHO LIVE TOGETHER)

ESTATE TAX PLANNING

No Automatic Right to Inherit

One of the basic rights unmarried couples do not have is the right to inherit property automatically (whether gay or straight). Unmarried couples must plan carefully to avoid estate and gift taxes on the transfer of assets, to will assets to one another, and to provide for the care of each other should one become ill.

No Written Will

If no will exists, and assets meant to be held jointly are in the name of the decedent, the surviving partner may have to sue the statutory heirs for property that he or she helped to purchase.

Writing a Will

A valid will can be prepared by anyone who is of "sound mind" and 18 years or older (19 in Wyoming, 14 in Georgia). Most bookstores and office supply stores carry boilerplate wills, with fill-in-the-blank formats. A simple will can solve many problems for unmarried couples. Unmarried couples with children should consult an attorney to be sure the wishes of both partners are in writing.

A While it is acceptable to use an office supply store boilerplate will, unmarried couples should at least have the will reviewed by a competent attorney. The smallest error made now can turn into a giant nightmare later.

DOMESTIC PARTNERS CHECKLIST

The issues listed below should be discussed with all domestic partners. The couple should be referred to an attorney or other professional when appropriate.

Wills. The issues to discuss include the following.

Jointly held property.

Are there any children? If so, are the children from the domestic partnership, or previous partners/spouses?

Bank accounts and investments.

Life insurance.

What type of policy or policies is appropriate for the couple?

Does the couple own a home and have a mortgage to protect?

Health Insurance

Is one partner going to cover the other partner with a policy from his or her employer?

Will the cost of the insurance be reimbursed? The taxes?

If the relationship terminates, will the non-employee partner be able to use the Cobra plan?

Bank accounts.

How is the banking and bill paying set up?

Are all funds commingled, and if so, is some separation of finances necessary?

Trusts.

Is a trust appropriate?

Does the couple have an estate problem?

Are there joint assets that should be split between beneficiaries?

Are there family issues that need to be discussed?

Deductions.

Who is entitled to the itemized deductions?

What percentage does each partner pay?

What about contributions, auto excise tax, property taxes, and investment fees?

Is one partner eligible to be the dependant of the other?

Capital Assets.

Were there any sales of jointly held capital assets?

Whose social security number are the gains reported under?

Is a nominee 1099 necessary?

Durable Powers

Medical - file with all doctors.

Financial - file with tax professional and investments.

General - file with everyone possible!

Pensions

Beneficiary?

Multiple Heirs?

Should this go into the trust and be designated for the use of a current partner and later for beneficiaries?

What about during a disability?

Asset Ownership - Especially Residential Property

How is the title held?

Who paid for the down payment?

Who makes the monthly payments?

Which account do the payments come out of and who signs the checks?

Is a split by income more appropriate than a 50/50 share?

Is there a contract in place?

Which assets are separate, which are joint?

Tax problems associated with the assets?

Children

Dependents - who gets the deduction?

Head of Household considerations - which person qualifies?

Two people, each with children, one house. Who get to take Head of Household? (NOTE: Only one person in a "household" may be the Head of Household for tax purposes.)

Property Division in the Event of a Termination or Dissolution of the Relationship

Who gets the house?

Is the house to be sold and split?

How are the shares valued (payments vs. services)?

How is personal property to be split?

Our strength and independence come from the fact that there is no single benefactor who has seeded the Fund with a large amount of capital. Contributions you make are added to those of your sisters and brothers. Individually, they may seem modest, but collectively they add up to a powerful force that is reinvested in the support of projects fostering the well-being of all our gender variant minorities. Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/>. Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____". Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
