NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) THE HEARING DATE FOR LD 1020 (the marriage bill) HAS BEEN CHANGED TO WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22 AT THE AUGUSTA CIVIC CENTER.

The campaign for marriage equality in Maine is moving to the next level: a public hearing on Sen. Dennis Damon's bill "An Act to End Discrimination in Civil Marriage and Affirm Religious Freedom".

April 22nd will be the single most important day of this campaign outside of the final vote. The media, legislators, governor, and people of Maine will be watching. We know that busloads of the opponents from in and out of state are planning to attend. Fair-minded Mainers need to be present and visible in even larger numbers.

If you have not already RSVP'd for the hearing of the marriage bill on Wednesday, April 22 at the Augusta Civic Center (even if you had earlier RSVP'd for the original April 24th date), please email: april22@equalitymaine.org so we can gauge how many folks are planning on showing up.

Below is very important information from Equality Maine, It explains why we must arrive so early and how to get yourselves on the list to testify:

1. The hearing will begin at 9 am. Doors open at 8 am. Lines are expected to begin forming at 7am.
2. Several thousand people are expected to attend.
3. Plan to arrive by 7am.
4. It's critical that we out-number the opposition. Please bring your friends, family and children with you.
5. It's also important that we out-message the opposition. Signs will be allowed outside the building, but not inside. It's important that we use positive, respectful messages on our signs – ones that undecided legislators and voters can identify with. Leave the negative messages to the opposition.
6. Be visible: Wear something red. Marriage equality supporters will be wearing a splash of red that day – shirt, tie, scarf, hat – as a visible sign of support.
7. Testimony for the hearing is being organized ahead of time. If you are interested in testifying in support of the bill, please send an email as soon as possible to acashin@glad.org. Be sure to include the following information: a) your name, b) town, c) phone number, d) partner or kids (if any), e) occupation, and f) ideas about your story or why you want to testify. Each person testifying will be given 3 minutes. Written statements may also be submitted.

8. In addition to the public hearing inside, there will be an organized program outside that is intended to engage supporters and the media.

FMI check the Equality Maine web site at www.equalitymaine.org . To see LD 1020, visit http://www.mainelegislature.org/legis/bills/bills_124th/billtexts/

(NEWS #9:) ALL MAINE LESBIAN PICNIC, JUN 27 (Saturday). EARLY NOTICE: The Coastal Women's Connection will sponsor a day-long picnic event and overnight camp out at Thomas Point Beach in Brunswick. The picnic plans are going well, we will have a group area at TPB, live entertainment by maine musicians, kayaking is available, we'll probably have some gay games, and genteel lawn games, and for those who are coming from afar or who want to camp, there's that too. If you dont want to camp, there are hotels in the area. See the website www.thomaspointbeach.com for camping and park info (and if you do want to camp, you should probably make a campsite reservation soon). Please pass this info along and if you know anyone else who wants to be on the e-mail list have them contact me. We want to fill up that group area and meet the women of maine, NH VT MA, and new england too. Kick off the summer with new friends and a good ole grass roots Maine picnic. FMI and/or to be on the mailing list for this event, contact Diana at diana5cents@yahoo.com or at her cell phone at 207-522-4546.

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@gwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS!! Family member Bobbie Lynn writes:

Last year the United World Citizens, based in Bar Harbor, grossed almost $19,000.00 dollars, mostly from the sales of Global Mamas products, at just a handful of events. By purchasing these beautiful hand batiked clothing and household goods, wholesale, from Global Mamas, the UWC contributes toward bringing women in Africa out of poverty (check out this wonderful non profit at www.globalmamas.org). We then sell the items at retail prices to raise money for our various causes. 100% of profit goes to the chosen causes. We do craft fairs in many locations, maybe one near you! For more info on specifics, email BL at below address.

In 2008 we raised money for half-a-dozen non-profits (both international AND local), helping orphanages, medical charities, low-income homeowners, and the disabled. This year we hope to expand the list to provide more help to children.

Times are tough all over, and that old phrase has never been more accurate than today. As we all struggle through these uncertain times, I believe (and I'm sure most or all who read this will agree) it can lift our spirits to reach out to those less fortunate than ourselves. Please consider committing to one event this year. With just a handful of extra volunteers, we should be able to increase that 19,000.00 to 25,000.00!

UNITED WORLD CITIZENS, promoting the concept and practice of humanitarianism to an ever widening audience through education and example. FMI contact Bobbie Lynn Hutchins by phone at 207-669-4275, by email at blhutchins@myfairpoint.net , or check the web site at www.unitedworldcitizens.org

2. LOOKING FOR INTERVIEWEES. Judy Harrison, the Legal Affairs Reporter for the Bangor Daily News, is interested in finding gay and lesbian couples in the papers' service area who want to get married and who would be willing to be profiled for a story about the same-sex marriage bill. It would mean being photographed and interviewed. She writes: "I'm seeking couples in two different age groups -- over 60, under 40 with kids. I realize that I am asking a lot of people. Our stories on gay adoption were very well received and, in the end, I think the couples were very glad they decided to be so public. If you'd like to talk about possibly doing this interview, please contact Judy at the Bangor Daily News: 990-8207 or by email at jharrison@bangordailynews.net

3. STORIES SOUGHT FOR "DIVERSITY AND END-OF-LIFE CARE" PRESENTATION. Al Boyce writes: I have been asked to part of a professional, televised panel presentation addressing the topic of "Diversity and End-of-life Care" to be held on April 25th in Ellsworth, sponsored by a variety of physical and mental health service providers. I have been asked to address end of life issues as they pertain to our LGBT community. Though I will be sharing current research on the topic, as available, I would really like to present the realities that we face in life experiences. So, I am asking FAN members to share their stories with me. It is a way for our community to help people understand some of the social, legal, medical challenges we face like no other minority community in the nation. Hopefully, in the sharing you will find some level of comfort as well, knowing your story will be told.

Perhaps you have experienced discrimination medically regarding a sick or dying partner; perhaps you have experienced medical or mental health discrimination because of religious bias etc. I want to do more than share statistics. I want to help the state and nation, in the 15-20 minutes I have, to have a better understanding of the challenges in society, family, the legal system and medical community, we face regarding end of life issues. Also, though I would not use last names, if you are willing to allow me to use your first name and/or community name, Please let me know.

You may reach me by email at revalb@yahoo.com Thanks, Rev. Al Boyce, MA Psy, PhD Psychology Candidate

4. NEW WEB SITE. Douglas in Hancock has been thinking for a long time about working to set up a Website that can give us a "virtual community center" for the State of Maine. He invites all FAN readers to visit his attempt to do this at <http://grou.ps/maineglbtcmmunity/home> . He writes:

"It's easy to join and I invite you to do so. Photo is optional, of course, but helpful. Note also your photo, if you upload a profile photo, will be cropped to a square, so pay some attention to this set up. The site has a number of useful resources (links) and uploaded files, such as Jean Vermette's monthly calendar. Any member can upload appropriate files and links. Please be sure these are appropriate for a general GLBT audience, of course. It has an interactive calendar where any member can add an event and, if selected, announcements will be sent by e-mail to all members. Please use this feature appropriately so folks don't get turned off by too much e-mail. Photos can also be uploaded: events, gatherings, etc. Of course, anything that is uploaded should be with the consent of everyone in the photo. There is (sometimes) a chat facility, although this seems not often available. Please let me know what you think of this venture and ways to improve it. There is the possibility of forming "groups" such as "aging interest" or "hiking" or "skiing" or "knitting" whatever. Explore it and see what you think. Seems to be a good platform, but we'll have to see. Cheers, Doug"

 APR 23-26 (Thursday - Sunday), Lincolnville Beach, The Annual Make Beautiful Tribe Gathering. Spring is here...time to prepare for the spring gathering of the Make Beautiful Tribe at Tanglewood Center in Lincolnville Beach

This weekend offers the opportunity to live in an intentional gay male community produced by, and for, participants to celebrate our unique wisdom and diversity. It's an event for men to get to know each other, have fun, build community, hang out, network, and explore being gay or bi in an attitude-free safe space.

Our gathering weekend format is open, which means you pick and choose what you would like to do - attend a workshop, go for a hike, play cards or just sit by a roaring fire the main lodge. We just ask that all the participants attend opening and closing circles, and to try to be at meals on time, but the rest is up to you. We also have a dance and talent show on Saturday evening. So come sing, perform, dance, lip-sync, read poetry, tell stories — just come perform and show off! Have fun celebrating our diversity.

The lodge/camp we utilize is a wonderful single great room with a huge fieldstone fireplace and a brand new restaurant kitchen off to one side. There are various large and small cabins throughout the camp numbering more than a dozen. There is even a wood-fired sauna available for relaxation.

Participants create the retreat. We ask everyone to chip and help with chores so that we can all enjoy the weekend. We operate as a completely volunteer, not-for-profit, so the weekend is affordable for all. We create our meals fresh (they are just fabulous!), and many of the guys find kitchen duty the most fun ... a great way to meet each other.

Men that attend range in age from 18-95 years old and come from all walks of life. We hold a number of different workshops at each retreat that are led by participants, providing the chance to share, laugh, cry, dialogue and/or relax.

We do fill very quickly, and you must pre-register to attend. Some scholarships are also available.

FMI and/or to get a registration form emailed to you, contact Ron King 207-326-8287 or David Vaughan 615-4555

 APR 23 - MAY 10 (Thursdays - Sundays), Portland, Mad Horse Theatre Company presents *The Normal Heart by Larry Kramer. Mad Horse closes its season with The Normal Heart, a powerful drama dealing with the rise of the HIV-AIDS crisis in New York City from 1981-1984, through the eyes of Ned Weeks, the founder of a prominent HIV advocacy group. Considered one of the most important plays of all time, we follow one man as he tries desperately to break through a conspiracy of silence, indifference and hostility as his friends are dying around him of AIDS-related illnesses. Filled with power, anger and intelligence, this play dramatizes what actually happened at the time of the disease's discovery. Kramer's forthright indictment of his government, the media and the public's refusal to deal with the rise of the epidemic is horrifying realism. "Kramer's astounding drama about AIDS is too urgent to ignore!" - LIZ SMITH For More Info: call: 207-730-2389 or visit: www.madhorse.com

 APR 24-26 (Friday - Sunday), Portland. Maine LGBT Power Summit, The National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, working closely with Equality Maine, will be sponsoring the Maine LGBT Power Summit, a three day grassroots organizing training for new and experienced activists. It will be taking place at the Holiday Inn by the Bay, April 24 - 26.

We teach you how to build a large base of volunteers, create a grassroots lobbying campaign, develop a volunteer team that represents the full diversity of our communities, and raise money to support your organization.

Maine may be the next state to secure marriage for LGBT couples! That's why the focus of this year's Power Summit will be on the Marriage Equality Bill working its way through the legislature. We're just a few weeks away from the first vote on the Marriage Bill, and even if it passes through the legislature, we'll still have to fend off attacks at the ballot box. We need to be prepared to win and defend the freedom to marry in Maine this year, and the Power Summit will get us there! All of the skills we're teaching at the Power Summit can also be transferred to any campaign, whether securing trans rights, students' rights, HIV/AIDS awareness and outreach, or just plain getting people engaged in a strategic and smart way.

Already we have registered activists from all over the country—organizers from the No on Prop 8 campaign in California, Southerners mobilizing communities for a United ENDA, LGBT families from the rural areas of Maine, and students from Kalamazoo, MI to Anchorage, AL.

If you want to be a part of this ground-breaking training, please take a moment to send me an email with your name and best telephone number. I will get in contact with you and we can go over all the information on the current political situation and figure out how to get you (and your organization) to the Power Summit!

FMI and/or to register, contact Trystan at ph: 646-358-1451, cell: 202-329-2871 or by email at treese@thetaskforce.org

Click here for Community Little Theatre's online box office where you can get tickets for the plays!

* APR 30 - MAY 3 (Thursday - Sunday), West Gardiner, Gay Men Together Retreat. Gay Men Together (GMT) is a group of men who meet twice a year, in spring and fall. GMT was formed by a group of gay men who desired to build "community" looking into the 21st century. Looking back at the last 20 years and dealing with such a devastating disease as AIDS which took all of our energy and many friends, our retreats and community building have been very successful. We gather as gay and/or questioning men in a non-threatening environment where we each are free to be and celebrate ourselves.

GMT is held at a wonderful turn of the century lodge on a forested hillside overlooking a crystal clear lake in West Gardiner, Maine. Twenty cabins at lakes edge are connected by a boardwalk to the main lodge. With a fieldstone fireplace in the Main Lodge, and rocking chairs on the front porch, our gathering spot for the weekend is warm and welcoming.

During each weekend we have space to hold about twenty workshops, some with laughter, some with tears, always with fun and each is lead by a retreat participant. GMT retreats are an open format, which means that you can pick and choose what you would like to do: attending workshops, hiking the trails, canoeing on the lake, quiet conversations in front of the fire, games in the lodge, or a nap in the cabin, it's up to you. FMI and/or to register for the Gay Men Together gathering, check the web site at www.gaymentogether.net

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join...however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! It is a website that will be driven by your submissions, your music, poetry, videos, photos, and stories. Show us where and how you live (show us your "crib") ... Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@gwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
