NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

(NEWS #1:) YOU ARE BEING WARNED! CHANGES ARE COMING TO THE FAN. Well folks, with the May 15 issue, The FAN will be 7 years old!! It seems hard to believe I've been sitting here doing this for seven years. To be honest, it has been quite a bit more work than I'd like it to be, and for the last year or so it's been feeling rather "old" ... maybe "static and boring" would be a better way to put it. When something gets static and boring, changes are needed. I perceive three possible avenues I could follow: a) just stop doing it and walk away b) turn it over to someone else who wants to continue it, or c) make enough changes in it so that it stops being static and boring. Right now I'm leaning towards option c; but my feeling is that if option c is going to work it's going to require each of you (or at least enough of you) to do a little bit to help me make it work. It's going to need a more active and inter-active readership. I'm not sure at this point if that exists. Don't worry, as I work all this out in my own brain I won't just dump the final decision on you; I'll keep you in the loop on what my thought process is and what direction I'm thinking of going in so you can let me know whether you're willing to go with me or not. Once I have a feeling for that, then I can make a decision accordingly. So stay tuned in the upcoming issues as we try to develop a "makeover".

The site is regularly updated with news and ideas are welcome. We encourage community input to make the site more user-driven and interactive. FMI contact Adam "Sunny" Flanders by email at sunny@memarriage.com

(REMINDERS #1:) You can help the newsletter by sending me notices of upcoming GLBTI-related activities that you hear about in your area. Trust me, I would rather receive the same notice from 8 people than have everyone assume that I know about it and miss the chance to tell other GLBTI family members. Email megress@gwi.net

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTI community members that you think other GLBTI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

1. MAINE TRANS NET (www.mainetransnet.org) IS EXCITED TO NOW HAVE OUR OWN SPACE located in Portland at 640 Brighton Ave (West entrance, top floor). We are planning several events in the upcoming months. Please join us – email Alex (alex@mainetransnet.org for more information).

MTN business meeting: On Monday May 4 at 7pm, we will be meeting in the MTN office to discuss progress on various projects, plan upcoming events, and talk about possibilities for MTN's future. If you want to be a leader/planner/helper/suggestion-maker with MaineTransNet, we could really use you! (And we promise not to pressure anyone to take on unwanted work!)

New Group Starting: We are starting a peer support group for any person who is trans-identified, genderqueer, or questioning. Our first meeting will be Wednesday, May 6 at 7:00-8:30pm, where we will discuss what people are looking for in a group. If you are interested in attending, please email me first (alex@mainetransnet.org) for more information and directions. You could also leave me a message at 207-408-1685. If you cannot attend this meeting but are interested in being part of the group, or similar groups sometime in the future, please also let me know.

Group for Partners: This group is for partners of trans/genderqueer/questioning individuals. (For the sake of making this a confidential and comfortable place to talk, this group is open to partners ONLY.) The group will meet at the MTN office in Portland. This should be happening within the next month, but the date and time have not yet been set. If you are interested in attending or know someone who may be, please contact Ali (ali@mainetransnet.org).

Discussion on Gender Identity "Openness": How important is it to you that people know that you're trans (or genderqueer, or the partner of a trans person, etc.)? If you don't necessarily "look trans" (whatever that means), how do you navigate this aspect of your identity with others, be it people from work, friends, potential partners, or casual acquaintances? Is being trans a private part of your life you've already dealt with, or is it an important part of your identity that you want people to know about? There are many points of view on this issue. This is a one-time discussion group to share your own or listen to others' viewpoints. (This is a FRIENDLY discussion with no "right" answers--no one will be pressured to take on someone else's point of view.) WHO: open to anyone under the trans umbrella and SOFFAs WHEN: Wed. May 20th, 7-8:30pm WHERE: the MTN office, Portland Please let me know if you plan on attending. (alex@mainetransnet.org)

MTN office hours: If you or someone you know want to drop in and "ask the trans person a question," see our new space, read a good trans-related book, or just say hi, these are our drop-in office hours beginning the week of 4/29: When: Wed: 5-7pm or Thurs: 12-2pm Where: the MTN office, Portland. Anyone is welcome--feel free to send any bewildered family members just learning about trans issues who have questions they may be too uncomfortable to ask you! Any possible cancellations will be posted on the MaineTransNet website, www.mainetransnet.org.

It will allow me the opportunity to create a promotional video (10-12 minute dvd) about me as an artist including critical interviews & news coverage. I am very excited! In fact, the commission is featuring my grant in their arts publication based on my creativity, strength and how my idea fit their criteria wonderfully! The idea was prompted by recent news coverage of my CancerCare of Maine TV news stories. <http://mainearts.maine.gov/> Website: www.marknutt.com (I can always be reached here) or by phone at 862-2462.

6. LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS!! Family member Bobbie Lynn writes:

Last year the United World Citizens, based in Bar Harbor, grossed almost $19,000.00 dollars, mostly from the sales of Global Mamas products, at just a handful of events. By purchasing these beautiful hand batiked clothing and household goods, wholesale, from Global Mamas, the UWC contributes toward bringing women in Africa out of poverty (check out this wonderful non profit at www.globalmamas.org). We then sell the items at retail prices to raise money for our various causes. 100% of profit goes to the chosen causes. We do craft fairs in many locations, maybe one near you! For more info on specifics, email BL at below address.

In 2008 we raised money for half-a-dozen non-profits (both international AND local), helping orphanages, medical charities, low-income homeowners, and the disabled. This year we hope to expand the list to provide more help to children.

Times are tough all over, and that old phrase has never been more accurate than today. As we all struggle through these uncertain times, I believe (and I'm sure most or all who read this will agree) it can lift our spirits to reach out to those less fortunate than ourselves. Please consider committing to one event this year. With just a handful of extra volunteers, we should be able to increase that 19,000.00 to 25,000.00!

UNITED WORLD CITIZENS, promoting the concept and practice of humanitarianism to an ever widening audience through education and example. FMI contact Bobbie Lynn Hutchins by phone at 207-669-4275, by email at blhutchins@myfairpoint.net , or check the web site at www.unitedworldcitizens.org

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization—just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in—whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk—it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club—it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/>. Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone intersted in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____". Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER.

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to megress@zwi.net (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" in the subject line).

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTI (gay/les/bi/trans/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers a 50 mile radius around Bangor and also Aroostook and Washington counties.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBT and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTI-friendly", then do it!

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: megress@gwi.net

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
