

going over to Mrs. Barrows and she is going to take me around that part of the city to-day & to-morrow.
Mattie has next week off and then she will go around with me. Shall not go out to see Aunt Sizzie until the last of my visit.
Shall be out to Herndon probably Saturday & Sunday and leave here the next Monday morning.

Must stop now and write to Mr. Dunn.

Love to all Harriet.

Dear Mammy,

Here I am O.K.

Reached Washington last evening at half past ten.
Mattie & her brother were there to meet me.

We have a lovely day to come and I did not get very tired.

The train made very few stops: Bridgeton, Potters Parsmouth Newburyport Salem & Lynn.

there at nine o'clock, taking the Colonial Express & stopping at Providence, New ~~Haven~~ London, New Haven, Bridgeport & Harlem River there we took the ferry and went around N.Y. passing under both of the big suspension bridges. Could see the Flatiron building and many of those 21 story buildings.
Landed at Jersey City & made no stop until Philadelphia.
The train was late and so many stations were passed where they usually stop.

We just flew from Philadelphia on. From Baltimore to Washington a run of 43 miles was made in 45 minutes.
It generally takes an hour and five minutes so when we got in did not find anyone to meet us until I found Ed. C.
Matter & Ed. B. sitting down in one corner waiting for a train they did not expect for a half hour. They were surprised enough to have us walk up to them in the station.

This morning I am
