Calendar—Winter 1995

January 12: Let's Get Away From It All! Escape the winter blahs as Paul Bernard, of Adventure Travel, leads a discussion of travel and vacation ideas designed especially for our community.

January 26: "Straight from the Heart," a film profiling parents who have developed a new understanding of their gay and lesbian children. Produced by Dee Mosbacher and Francis Reid, this documentary is a powerful antidote to Radical Right media portrayals of who we are.

February 9: Love Makes the World Go Round: Matlovich Throws a Valentine Party! Warm up the winter doldrums by sharing your expressions of love with Matlovich friends. Dust off those love letters, that special poem, sing or play your favorite love song. This is an open mike evening, and everybody's invited to participate. Refreshments!

February 23: "Towards a Lesbian Health Agenda: The Lesbian Health Project of Southern Maine." Tania Hathaway, Project Coordinator of the Lesbian Health Project of Southern Maine, gets us thinking about lesbian health. Come hear about, and give input into, this pilot project's agenda for lesbian-focused medical and educational services, health issues advocacy, and health-profession education.

March 9: "Places of Peace: Sources of Spirituality." How can we walk a spiritual path in a homophobic world? Come hear members of the clergy discuss this topic.

March 23: "The National Political Scene: What's Happening and What It Means to Our Community." Lisa Keen, Senior Editor of The Washington Blade analyzes this topic. If you missed her at last year's MLGPA banquet, you'll not want to make that mistake again!

Programs are held: Holiday Inn by the Bay
88 Spring Street, Portland
7:30-9:00 P.M.
Free hotel parking

"Angels in America" is coming to Boston. Adventure Travel is organizing a day trip as well as an overnight excursion from Portland to the Saturday, April 1 performance. For more information, call 885-5060 or 1-800-234-6252 by February 1.
