

her in charge most of the time. I've had an awful time with that care of mine and could not talk about much while she was here. This morning I can't get my shoes on.
Have some tasks to look over so must get about it. wishing you a pleasant birthday

Loveingly
Harriet

May 29/08

229 [May 29, 1908]

Dear Mamma, - Probably
you have seen Bess by this time and she has told you all the news I must not stop to write much this morning but as Sunday is your birthday will try and remember it this year.
Last night I went to a concert given here which was quite a treat

I think I've heard you speak of Hans Kronold. You heard him at a Festival once I think, and Henderson also sang at the Festival some. He is a Portland man. Really I think it was the best thing I've heard for a great while.
I drew up a program along which perhaps you might keep to show Carr & Em.

I never was so busy in my life before I could go to the concert. I corrected examinations for several hours. To-day we give our last exams for the Sept. I think. 'Twas too bad that it happened to come while Bess was here for I feel that I gave her very little attention. Grace took