GORHAM, MAINE

Foreword

The editors of this year book of 1919, the first to be published by the Gorham Normal School, present it with the hope that it may find a place in the hearts of the class which nothing else can fill. As time goes on, may each member learn to turn to its pages as one turns to an old and valued friend.

Long live the Green and White!

May Ball

'Twas the very first of Maytime
And the school on Normal Hill
Was alive with busy people,
Girls were working with a will.

'Twas a night for joy and dancing,
Friends and brothers soon would come;
All were ready for the party,
All were ready for the fun.

Soon the town clock tolled the hour,
Soon the music sounded clear.
When we marched around the dance hall
We began to lose our fear.

Joy and laughter filled the building,
Jokes and jests were passing on.
Dances seemed to pass too quickly,
As we smoothly moved along.

But at last, refreshments eaten,
And the dancing almost o'er,
From above, confetti dropping
Fell about upon the floor.

All were happy, but were sorry
Now to leave East Hall for home;
But the dance will be remembered
Where e'er its happy guests may roam.

Then hurrah for Gorham Normal!
For the faculty three cheers!
This May First will be remembered
Long, thruout the coming years.

Societies

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. at Gorham Normal School is made up of members from both the student body and the faculty. It has a twofold purpose; first, to bring the members of the school in close touch with each other and thus inspire friendship and good feeling throughout the institution, second, to be loyal to the great organization by aiding in the world-wide work. The Cabinet Officers for the year have been as follows:

Senior Cabinet.

President,	Celia Hatch
Vice President,	Thelma Woodbury
Secretary,	Georgiana Hayes
Treasurer,	Rena Chappell
	Mary Sweetser
	Louise Frohock
	Agnes Grant

- 14—Reception in center—our formal meeting.
- 21—"Hare and hound chase"—some "hot dogs."
- 28—Moving pictures, featuring a horse walking upside down—manager, "Woody."
- 30—One month over—Juniors prove to be exceptionally brilliant.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

To win—overlearn lessons, obey all rules, don't get homesick.

OCTOBER.

- 1—New Hampshire State College robs us of half our "Bartlett pear."
- 2—Arrival of a delicious "Appel" to replace our loss.
- 10—Influenza ban goes on—no week-end permissions—some sad bunch.
- 14—A hike to Overlook Inn to dispel gloom of "shut-ins."
- 20—Tag Day to raise funds for War Drive—too conspicuous for slackers.
- 30—Hallowe'en—boys spook around East Hall—ghostly figures frighten them away.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

Cheer up—"There's a silver lining to every cloud."

NOVEMBER.

- 3—Costume party in gym—Who's Who?
- 11—Victory day—we celebrate—ring house committee bell at 5 A. M.—bon fire in evening—Great Day—some "kercitement."
- 13—Beethoven Concert—faculty member stars.
- 20—Oh! Another Tag Day!
- 27—Thanksgiving—we are some thankful to depart for home.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

Remember to profit by experience of others and indulge next year in a G. N. S. Thanksgiving.

"Our voices keep tune."—CHORUS.

DECEMBER.

- 2—Back again—grind begins.
- 4—Flying Squadron visits us—Life looks bright.
- 7—Influenza scare causes an eruption—soon quelled by doctor.
- 10—Silent meal—hits talkers hard.
- 14—Thanks to influenza—home tonight—Oh, joy!

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

"Safety first"—Don't be afraid.

JANUARY.

- 1—All start with a clean slate—it is filled by night.
- 4—Party at the minister's—a few boy specimens present.
- 10—Senior-Faculty Tea—who was the biggest story-teller?
- 11—Straw ride to Sebago Lake and "deviation."
- 15—"Flower of Legislature" with us—reception in the evening.
- 23—Silver Tea in Centre—Heap good time!
- 27—Y. W. C. A. Fair in Gym—great success.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

Resolve—To keep "straight" ahead.

FEBRUARY.

- 21—Colonial Junior—Faculty Tea.
- 22—Costume party in Centre—faculty portrayed.
- 25—Dr. Klotz's address.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

Don't put too much faith in camouflage.

"Much study is a weariness of the flesh."

MARCH.

- 3—Stepladder—the downfall of a “great ruler.”
4—“Over the Top” on the War Drive.
5—Drama—“A Girl in a Thousand.”
7—Teachers’ Convention—all go prepared to “listen intelligently.”
19—Signs of Spring—Bare heads.
20—Basketball game—We were the whole show? Hey, Juniors?
25—Annual election of Y. W. C. A. officers.
27—Basketball game—a fair exchange.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

"When in doubt, consult the Ladies' House Journal."

APRIL.

- 1—April Fool's Day—Abnormality universal.
3—Basketball game—the "rubber"—Cheer up, Juniors, your day is coming.
4—Spring vacation.
15—On duty again.
19—No lessons—"Blessed be the Patriots."

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

"Don't count your chickens before they are hatched."

MAY.

- 1—Phenomenon—"prom"—G. N. S. knights—a "regular" time.
- 2—After the ball.
- 3—A 2's experience their first "morning bird walk."
- 4—Rehearsals for the Pageant begin.
- 10—Adams' camera stands a great strain.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

Remember, "Nothing is impossible, even in G. N. S."

"Man looks around but does not venture far."

JUNE.

- 1—Violent coughing during South American travels in Geography—Remedy?
4—A Senior discovers the difference between a dog license and a marriage license.
10—Baseball game—Some fanners.
15—Baccalaureate Sunday.
17—"On parade"—The Pageant.
18—Graduation exercises—school closes.

ADVICE TO JUNIORS.

During the summer months, train yourselves for the responsible position you are to hold this coming year.

 Twin Dance—Midgets.....Doris Partridge, Helen Ware
 First appearance of these infant prodigies.
 All the newest dances, so new they aren't out.
 Lecture—How Not to See Birds.....Bird Study Classes
 Illustrated by personal experiences.
 Song—Put Out That Light.....House Committee
 A song familiar to all dormitory inhabitants.
 Grand Finale.....Sumfunny Orchestra vs. Har Munny Chorus
 Admission—One ladylike grin.

Miss P. (in chorus)—Sopranos, you're just a little bit too late on your "speed."

Miss W.—"What are the resources of Brazil, Miss H.?
 Miss H. (standing)—"Well—"
 Miss W. (interrupting)—"Is that one of the resources?"

Mr. Houdlette (before basketball game)—"I'd like to be mascot."
 Miss S.—"All right—they always have a goat of some kind."

PHYSIOLOGY CLASS

We wonder just what was in Esther's mind when she made the following statement: "Our hearts may cause our death after a while."

Will Helen B. please illustrate "Heel forward and back?"

"To show how much we have learned."—EXAMINATIONS.

ECHOES FROM "NORMAL HILL."

M. Card (in botany about spruces)—"The leaves are arranged spirally and crowded at the ends."

K. B. (helping Junior in grammar)—"Kiss is either proper or improper. It may or may not be declined. I can't decline it."

"What kind of fruit grows in G. N. S. gym?"

"Peaches."

"No."

"Surely not prunes?"

"Wrong again."

"Well, I give it up."

"Why, Appel of course."

A case in scansion: Ruth C. (deep in thought)—"Beauty o'er snored."

M. Cummings (in physiology, discussing posture)—"As the child grows older the chair seat should be larger so his feet will touch the floor."

Modern instruction (in reading class)—"Some day you may have a principal who will advise one-hand holding."

There had been much discussion as to whether Mr. Corthell's picture should be taken from the main room for the play.

On the morning of that day, Miss P. met Marie, and said, "Mr. Corthell is coming down."

"Good," says Marie. "Now I can see the man. My mother knew him."

Miss Buker (shopping)—"Have you any colored ladies' umbrellas?"

"Many are called, but few are chosen."—SUPERINTENDENT'S VISITS.

Mr. R. (to Miss J., who was trying to think of the line that follows, "ten thousand saw I at a glance.")—"What word rhymes with glance?"

Miss J.—"Dance."

Mr. R.—"See if you can do it now."

We wonder just why Mr. W. should ask C. B. the question, "Where would you go to get a man?"

Mr. R.—"Large bodies move slowly, so I suppose that accounts for Miss Cragin's being late."

Remember the old adage, "Keep Smiling," doesn't mean a perpetual grin or peals of laughter during study hours.

Miss P. (writing scale)—"What shall I put in next?"

Voice from rear—"Me" (mi).

NORMAL FASHION NOTES

Middy blouses are not the dinner gown.

Hats are worn in the best society from December until April.

The transparent waist should be worn only on Sunday and then under a coat.

A touch of distinction is given a middy blouse by the addition of service stripes.

PERPLEXED SENIORS.

Will the juniors ever be able to fill the places of the seniors?

Dare we hope that an odorless chemistry course will be established?

When will dancing, rather than silence, accompany the victrola concerts?

When will there be no names of "tardy" or "ill" people on the record book?

When will there be just as many boys enrolled as girls?

When will Gorham Normal School have another baseball team?

Will the May dance become an annual affair?

When will the class of 1919 meet again?

"Heels raise with a deep breath." (?)

WE cater to a discriminating public who desire artistic photographs at a reasonable price.

Our handcarved and veneer frames are especially designed to complete the effect of our work.

LEST WE FORGET.

Walter Russell—"Now, for instance, here is Johnny"—

Viola White—"I have laid down many rules for the conduct of man's life."

Katharine Halliday—"May I leave it that way?"

Gertrude Stone—"Let us take our old friend, 'The grass is green.'"

Emily Parsons—"Watch the baton!"

Faye Bartlett—"Are there any questions?"

George Hutcherson—"Roll on your arm muscle."

Louis Woodward—"You'll find a reference for that in the Revised Statutes."

Jessie Keene—"Was it the size of a robin or an English Sparrow?"

Emma Daggett—"Right in here."

Hilda Appel—"We will have a teaching lesson today. Who wants it?"

Welthie Buker—"What is the pupil's aim?"

George Brown—"That makes me think"—

JUST SUPPOSE THAT:

We had a few more county conventions.

Chaperones weren't needed.

Everyone had less work to do.

There was something romantic about a telephone call.

Mary Collier didn't have a man.

Miss Woodward didn't go for the mail.

Linnie should specialize in fine arts.

Margaret should forget to study.

Mr. Hutcherson should miss the morning train.

"It pays to advertise."

1. Observation

He donned his new spring overcoat,
Which was so short and sweet,
Took off his flannels,
Clipped his hair,
And ambled up the street.

2. Inference—Pneumonia.
