Harnet.

October 3rd 1899.

My dear Mamma:-

I guess you will be somewhat surprised when you know what I have ^{been} doing to-day but I guess I will begin with last Saturday night. I went down with Charles as you know and got there about seven o'clock. Saw Helen Foster in Portland before we went down to the boat. She was waiting for a car and so did not see her long. We go to Portland a new way now or at least we did Saturday night. We go to Westbrook Sacarappa on the P. R. R. R. & then take the electric. if we are going home we save five cents but the fare to Portland is just the same as if we went all the way on the railroad.

Well I had a lovely time at Peaks.
It was awful cold but I had a good time just the same. We got out to Gorham the same time Anne & Grace did and had a little supper out in the kitchen. Everyone was getting ready for the reception.
I had to hurry and get my dress changed so that I could get down stairs as I had to lend the door.

We had a real nice time only I got rather tired. About nine o'clock Mr. Corthef said he was going to let all of the scholars who wanted to go into Portland to-day and go to the Musical Festival off from school. He said he thought we ought to hear Madame Seubrich and that we could get good tickets.

The outcome of it all was that over a hundred of us went into Portland this morning on the eight o'clock train and we to the Festival. We made a rush for the Amory as soon as Pembroke was the most beautiful singer I ever heard or ^{ever} expect to hear.

She is said to be the greatest ~~soprano~~ singer in America. We missed our train that we intended to take and had to wait until three o'clock. I went down to the stable a little after two o'clock thinking perhaps ~~that~~ that papa was in and I felt bad enough when I found that he had just gone.
I would have given considerable to have seen him. I am pretty tired to night but am awful glad I went to ~~the~~ Mrs. Pembroke.
I hope you will not care. The fare in the P.R.R. & return was only thirty cents. I shall not expect to go any where else this winter now that I must to that. I guess if it keeps on growing cold I shall have to come home for my winter cloak and hat as my thin shawl is looking rather summeryish.

Well, I can't stop to write any more to-night and have quite a lot of studying

to do.
Why don't you
write longer letters? I got your letter &
the cheese cloth
all right &
thank you very much.
I'm sending
it.
Tell Ernest that there is some looming solution
in a bottle
marked Solis.
Looming Solution
but it is not good. If he uses it tell

we struck Portland and got lovely seats on the ground floor as near the front as we wanted to go.

They were only 25¢ tickets - but you know we are scholars and so got in at reduced rates. I heard Mme.
Macmuda, Mme. Penbrich, Miss
Cushing, Mr. Pepper, & Mr. Julian Walker.

They were the soloists this morning.
Mme. Penbrich sang purposely for the school children and will not sing again except Wednesday night and the tickets are from $2 to $4.
Just think what a lucky chance it was for us as she sang the same solos she will Wed. night.

The chorus sang parts if not the whole of "The Messiah" and some other things. I never heard such singing in my life.

The orchestra was lovely. Mme.
