Well Joan & Miss Mitchell are in here so I will Study hours have

will finish this letter

My dear Maumie:-

Mr.
Cortwell will let us off to come home to the wedding if we will get back the next morning
on the ten o'clock train.
I have had no invitation from Cora and really don't expect any. What do you say about my coming home. Eunice and Grace are both going. Thanksgiving
does not come until November 30th so you see the wedding is not the day before Thanksgiving.

There is a meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club down stairs and I have been watching the people come since school. Prof. Chapman of Bowdoin College is going to speak to them on the Life of Burns. I have not seen him come yet.

I left this letter to go down and do up my centerpiece. It think it will look quite good. I have not cut it out yet.

They are having a great time down stairs. It is nearly time for them to be going there are several ladies waiting.

I went down town after those pictures this noon but the studio was not open. It is raining now so I can't go down.

Last night all of us girls got up at one o'clock to see the

I am afraid that my center piece will not look well enough to give Cora for a present.
I picked it in the middle when I worked
that ring and so it will not lay down
flat.

Please let me know
as soon as convenient what you think about my coming home.

Tell Ernest to answer some of the letters that I have written to him.

before I do anything else. It is still raining and probably this will take off the snow.

Emmet has got to read a piece to-morrow &
has gone up to rehearse it with Miss Andrews.
I am glad that I am
through with it.

We are having to work
awful hard now.
Mr. Corthell is more than working us in his work. Pedagogy & Psychology. Our Algebra takes a great deal of our time and so does

our work in Shakespeare.
We are taking the Merchant of Venice now and are going to take several others. After Christmas we shall take Paradise Lost. and then I shall want all of your notes & your book. Don't let me forget to bring back my Shakespeare Complete works the next time that I come home.

Our ivy is growing very fast and the fern that I got has not died yet. Eumecis geraniums are not doing very well but perhaps they will by and by.
Well this will not do for me because I have got an awful lot of work to do and you know we have to go to bed at quarter past ten so I will have to close

With love to all Harriet.
