Announcement #1: Frannie Peabody Center and Victoria Mansion partner for World AIDS Event. 5-7 p.m., Thursday, December 1st 2012.

In a unique collaboration, Frannie Peabody Center will partner with one of Portland's most historic landmarks, Victoria Mansion, to hold its annual World AIDS Day reception and vigil from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, December 1st. The event will be highlighted by a reading and talk from John-Manuel Andriote, author of the recently re-released Victory Deferred: How AIDS Changed Gay Life in America and culminate in a candlelight vigil on the mansion steps, weather permitting.

Each year clients, supporters, volunteers and community leaders around the world gather in a variety of ceremonies and special events to recognize World AIDS Day, a day marked for remembering those lost to the epidemic and honoring the progress made in the thirty years since the epidemic began. This will be the first time Frannie Peabody Center has held World AIDS Day at Victoria Mansion, which will be completely decorated for the holidays.

John-Manuel Andriote originally published Victory Deferred in 1999. Compelled by his own 2005 HIV diagnosis, Andriote revisits his chronicle of the AIDS epidemic in the updated and expanded edition of the University of Chicago Press 1999 hardcover original. Victory Deferred tells the story of how a health crisis pushed a disjointed jumble of local activists to become a nationally visible and politically powerful civil rights movement. Based on hundreds of interviews with those at the forefront of the epidemic, Victory Deferred blends personal narratives with institutional histories, including FPC, to show how AIDS forced gay men from their closets and ghettos into the hallways of power to lobby and into the streets to protest.

"What an incredible night this is going to be," says Patti Capouch, FPC's Executive Director. "Last year's World AIDS Day event proved to us that we have turned a corner in the epidemic: that people want to remember but that they also want to feel healthy, motivated and part of a larger community. John-Manuel's story is one the community needs to be reminded of and his life-affirming message is one everyone should hear. I can't think of a better setting for event than the beautiful Victoria Mansion."

Frannie Peabody Center, Maine's largest HIV/AIDS service organization has offices in York and Cumberland Counties and serves over 400 people living with HIV/AIDS in Maine as well as provides prevention services for at-risk populations.

For more information on the event or Frannie Peabody Center, please contact Ed Corley, Director of Development, at (207) 774-6877, x8013 or email him at ecorley@peabodycenter.org.

Announcement #2: AARP Maine has partnered with Services and Advocacy for GLBT Elders (SAGE) and is committed to helping to transform the landscape on GLBT Aging in Maine by providing strong leadership for an effective advocacy agenda. To achieve that we have initiated a collaboration with various community leaders such as the Frannie Peabody Center, Maine Association of Area Agency on Aging, the Maine Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program, and others including policy experts to help with this work. Our first step in this multi-year project is to conduct a statewide community needs assessment to begin to identify the most important issues facing GLBT elders in Maine. By completing this survey you will be helping us to ensure that GLBT seniors across Maine have a powerful, organized advocacy voice and that GLBT concerns are addressed in statewide aging discussions and policymaking. We are contacting you to inquire if you or others you know who are GLBT and 50 years of age or older who would be interested in the opportunity of completing this community needs assessment survey. If so please utilize the link below to complete the survey. If you have any questions please contact me using the contact information listed below. I look forward to hearing from you. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/GLBTaginginMaine>

Announcement #3: Out! As I Want to Be is welcoming its first Executive Director after 16 years as an all volunteer organization serving LGBTQ youth. A start-up grant from the Maine Community Foundation made it possible to hire Harriet Mosher of Whitefield, Maine. "The numbers of young people in the mid-coast area who are attending our drop-ins speaks to the need for professional advocacy and support," says Jeff Alexander, president of Out's Board of Directors.

Mosher comes to Out! after twenty years of experience in community based nonprofits, filling executive positions at several Maine arts organizations including Maine Writers & Publishers Alliance and Five Rivers Arts Alliance. In addition, she has organized a number of statewide conferences and arts projects.

Mosher comments, "Great strides have been made in legal and political recognition of the LGBTQ community but the need for greater acceptance, love and understanding of this community, and especially these young people, is more important than ever. Some of my greatest professional satisfaction has come from working with high school and college students as interns and volunteers. I look forward to bringing my nonprofit experience to benefit the young people served by Out! I am passionate about building a better world where individuals are free to be themselves and contribute to society." In the 1990s Mosher worked with a group from Unitarian Universalist Church of Brunswick to develop an Outright Program. "We are thrilled to have someone with the breadth and depth of nonprofit experience to lead Out! as it moves into a new phase of its development," adds Alexander.

Out! As I Want to Be provides two after-school programs at the Lincoln Street Center for the Arts where 14 – 22 year old youth are free to be lesbian, gay, transgender, questioning or straight allies. Doors open at 5pm Wednesdays and 6pm Fridays. Lis Clark volunteers as Program Coordinator, training and supervising volunteer advisors. Young people in need of transportation can call 1 800 530 6997. Out! As I Want to Be is one of a handful of organizations in the state serving LGBTQ youth, primarily in Knox and Waldo counties.

The Maine Community Foundation has shepherded the organization through a two-year capacity building process, culminating in the search for an Executive Director. Dora Lievow, Capacity Building Coordinator, will work with Mosher to garner local support for the second six months of her tenure with Out. For more information about Out! And its programs, contact the organization by email: outmaine@yahoo.com, phone:

TENANTS HARBOR Just moved to my house in Tenants Harbor full-time after many years of having a house here. It's a pretty large house, which I'm trying to sell. If I sell it, I'll move to a smaller house in mid-coast or move to Belize! But meantime, I could rent a room, with full kitchen privileges, laundry, etc., etc. to the right gay man. Some meals we might well share. It's extremely private on 3.5 acres, all rather lovely, with 3 bedrooms, surrounded by hundreds of acres of undeveloped land. Two miles from the village of Tenants Harbor and 3 miles from Port Clyde. Stunning part of the state. Name of the house is "Moss Hill." It's 300 feet up a driveway from the road, at the top of a moss covered, rocky, forested hill. Two year old house. Wonderful terrace with hot tub (that'll be turned off when it starts to snow seriously). Garage, if the person wants to use it. I would require that the person be very nice, clean, a non-smoker, and keep his part of the house organized and neat (it is for sale, after all, and the broker can show it when she needs to) and have the financial ability to comfortably pay $1250/month. I've recently ended a three year partnership with a guy and do date. Person must be comfortable with that, and could date too, of course (if his date would follow the policies outlined above). This will have to be a month-by-month agreement (we'd sign a brief written agreement) as, if it sells, we'd both have to move out in the following month or so. There is a 3rd bedroom in the house but that will be used by old friends of mine who come for visits. Fully and nicely furnished, of course. Driveway is plowed, and I'll pay all the utilities. I'm getting a 28 lb. Australian Cattle dog a week from today. One pet in the house is enough! For more information, please contact: 617-875-0092 or dfordassociates@gmail.com

BELFAST: Offering downtown apartments for rent. One and two bedroom units occasionally available. We offer great light, heat and hot water, parking downtown, laundry facility and trash removal. For more information on availability contact: abelfastrental@gmail.com

Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or bocks@usm.maine.edu.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersex) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine only. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It's crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it! However, outside events (such as holiday fairs, festivals, the local chamber of commerce, etc.) that are not focused on the GLBTQI community and do not have a significant GLBTQI component will not be listed in the FAN.

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, and no obscenity is allowed.

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Also, listings are posted with information as is submitted to me, and I have no independent knowledge of the accuracy, truth, or falsity of any posts, events, advertisements, job listings, rental listings, etc. Respond at your own risk. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
