CLASS ODE

Tune: from Finlandia, by Sibelius

*Dear Normal School, though today we are leaving
Thy friendly halls, and never may return;
Yet as to thee we came for service rendered
So shalt thou go with us where'er we turn.*

*Then let us raise our song in joyful token,
And to our Alma Mater sing our praise;
For years well spent amid her strength and beauty
Have left us memories of golden days.*

*Now we must say, "Farewell," dear Gorham Normal,
What life may hold for us now none can tell;
But through the years that ever lie before us
We'll cherish friendships made on Normal Hill.*

— Virginia Knight
