CLASS ODE

Words and Music by Mary Louise Stuart

Through many full and carefree years
We've reached this day at last,
To sing our final cadence and
Preserve our mem'ries past.
And now the scenes of bygone years
With sadness fills each heart;
From dear old Alma Mater's halls
With sorrow, we depart.

So let our swelling chorous ring
Of these the ties which bind;
This sturdy hill, the stately pine,
All these we leave behind.
But friendship, faith and high ideals,
Oh, be our guide for e'er
And onward lead us unafraid
To live, to love, to share.
