Class Ode

The touch of the hand of a friend, true, sincere,
Has a warmth and a glow all its own.
It's the kind of a clasp that helps to uphold
The ideals our school has shown.
As we journey life's path looking ever ahead,
As our ways are drawn farther apart,
Still together one bond will unite us as one;
'Tis the love for this hill in each heart.

To teachers and dear ones who've helped with our tasks
And who willingly gave of their best,
Let us try to express our ne'er ending thanks
For we have been truly blest.
Time can never erase the ideals we hold high,
The fond dreams and the hopes we found here;
May their radiance and splendor light all of our lives—
Thus be with us both far and near.

Words: MARGARET SMALL
