Class Ode

With pride we stand before the open door,
Encircled by our friends and classmates true,
Who share with us the old and view the new
And hold a place by us forever more.
Our eager hearts are gay, our purpose strong
With knowledge that we now can claim the right
To carry far our glowing torch of light.
So through the door let us go forth with song
To flaunt that torch illumined on this hill,
By patient teachers with their love and skill,
And let us spread that creed among our youth
Which testifies to life's eternal truth.

Words: JEAN LANGDON
Music: RUTH HARMON
