CLASS ODE

What is noble? To inherit
Wealth, estate and proud degree?
There must be some other merit
Higher yet than these, for me.
Something greater far must enter
Into Life's majestic span,
Fitted to create and centre
True nobility in man.

Who is noble? He whose finer-knit
Desire of mind and heart,
Linked to something still diviner
Than mere language can impart;
Ever teaching, ever seeing
Some improvement yet to plan;
Striving still to aid his fellow-being
In the search for perfect man.

Look not in a world of fortune,
Or where labor's wheels go round;
But where little children gather,
There the noble man is found.
Though results are hard to measure,
And we may not reach our goal,
Let "together" be our watchword;
And "vision" guide our soul.

Music by Betty Wight
Words by Robert C. Hogan
