ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcement #1: Call for participants, presenters, activity sponsors - The Transgender Day of Remembrance (TDoR) is just around the corner. MaineTransNet would love to get a jump start on planning the various events around Maine to mark this day. If you are an organization with interest in participating in the TDoR events or sponsoring a TDoR related event during the week of TDoR, Please contact us and let us know! Send us an email at mtn@mainetransnet.org

OP/EDs:

This is your chance to spout off (or offer your insightful thoughts and opinions) about ANYTHING related to the GLBTQI community. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit. Please keep your thoughts as succinct (and civilized) as possible. Subscribers should be willing to allow at least their first name and an email address to be listed with the posting.

No one had any opinions this issue (that they wanted to have published).

EVENTS (CHANGING):

SEPTEMBER

September 19 (Thursday). Portland. CHANGING THE GAME: A Panel Discussion on LGBT People in High School and College Athletics. 5:00 - 6:30 P.M. at the University Event Room, 7th floor, Glickman Family Library, USM, Portland Campus. A panel of lesbian, gay, transgender, bi, and straight individuals share their experiences and thoughts on gender, sexual orientation, and sports. Audience questions and participation welcomed. Panel: Pat Griffin (moderator) Director of Changing the Game: The GLSEN Sports Project, Al Bean, Director of USM Athletics, Gia Drew, Maine Transgender Network and GLSEN Southern Maine, James Nutter, GO! Athletes, and Madeline Hunsicker, GO! Athletes. Table to display available literature on LGBT people and sports. Refreshments provided. Sponsored by the LGBT Collection of USM's Sampson Center for Diversity in Maine., USM's Center for Sexualities and Gender Diversity, GLS.

September 23 (Monday). Lewiston. Exhibition Opening: The Fearless Project, a traveling exhibition of photographs depicting LGBT athletes, goes on display on the second floor of Bates Commons on Sept.

23, presented by the Office of Intercultural Education and several campus partners. Photographer Jeff Sheng's exhibition opens with a reception at 5 p.m. Monday, Sept. 23, in Commons, 136 Central Ave., and continues through Oct. 16. Sheng discusses his work at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 7, in Commons Room 221-222. Sheng appears under the auspices of the OIE's Speaker Series, co-sponsored by the Department of Athletics and the Athletics Committee, the Department of Art and Visual Culture, the Bates College Museum of Art, and the student advocacy organizations OUTfront and Queer Peers. For more information, please call 207-786-8303. Sheng is a photographer, artist and sociologist whose artwork has been internationally exhibited. He has taught as a visiting professor of photography and visual studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and at Harvard University. Sheng first gained recognition for The Fearless Project, depicting "out" lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender athletes on high school and college teams. This work was inspired by his own experience as a closeted high school athlete in a conservative suburb of Southern California. Since 2003 he has photographed and interviewed more than 160 individuals for the series, and has spoken about homophobia in athletics at many colleges and high schools. Nearing completion, the series will be published next year as a book featuring all the portraits from the 10-year project. Sheng also created the photography series Don't Ask, Don't Tell, shot between 2009 and 2011 and portraying more than 80 closeted service members affected by the government policy known by that same name. Sheng's work has been covered by media including The New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, CNN, NPR, the BBC and "ABC World News Tonight." A graduate of Harvard University, Sheng holds an MFA in studio art from the University of California, Irvine, and is a doctoral candidate in sociology at Stanford University.

OCTOBER

October 2 (Wednesday) Portland / Waterville. Free Screening / Panel: The Loving Story. The Maine Jewish Film Festival, in association with the University of Maine School of Law, will present a free screening of the documentary film The Loving Story on Wednesday October 2 at Hannaford Hall, an event made possible by a grant from the Moser Family Foundation. Co-promoting the event are Maine's NAACP and ACLU, the Holocaust and Human Rights Center, EqualityMaine and the Maine Film Center, which will present a ticketed screening of the film at Railroad Square Cinema in Waterville on the same evening. Although the Portland film and reception are free, tickets are required for admission. Ticket info below: A racially-charged criminal trial and a heart-rending love story converge in this definitive documentary about Mildred and Richard Loving. The marriage of Mildred (who was part-black and part-Native American) and Richard (who was white) was declared illegal in 1958 by their home state of Virginia. They refused to leave one another and, with the help of the ACLU, relentlessly pursued their right to happiness. Their case made it all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court where, in 1967, it struck down laws against interracial marriage in this country once and for all. With luminous, newly discovered 16mm footage of the Lovings and their lawyers, first-person testimony and rare documentary photographs, this film takes us behind the scenes of the legal challenges and the emotional turmoil of the landmark case. The Loving Story recreates a seminal moment in history and reflects a timely message of marriage equality in a personal, human love story. Shortlisted for an Oscar®, recipient of a Peabody Award and nominated for three Emmy Awards. Presented in promotional partnership with Maine's NAACP and ACLU, the Holocaust and Human Rights Center, EqualityMaine and the Maine Film Center, which will present a ticketed screening of the film at Railroad Square Cinema in Waterville. Portland: Reception @ 5:00 – hors d'oeuvres and cash bar, Film @ 6:15 – 7:30 Followed by a panel discussion, moderated by Dean Peter Pitegoff, UMaine School of Law Coffee and desert – 8:00 – 9:00 Reception and screening are free and open to the public although tickets are required. Tickets: <http://Brownpapertickets.com> or 1-800-838-3006. For more information call 207-523-3422. Waterville: Film @ 7:00pm at Railroad Square Cinema. Tickets: <http://MovieTickets.com> For more information call 207 873 6526.

October 31 (Thursday). Portland. Politics Then and Now, In Maine and the Nation. Former Congressman Barney Frank at USM, Hannaford Lecture Hall, Abromson Center, USM Portland Campus. October 31, 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. at Abromson Center, Hannaford Lecture Hall. Barney Frank, Democrat, served as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from Massachusetts from 1981 to 2013. A leading figure and noted orator in the Congress, Frank chaired the House Financial Services Committee where he co-authored the 2010 Dodd/Frank Act, mandating the most extensive reforms in the banking and financial services industry since the Great Depression, and creating the new Consumer Financial Protection Agency. FREE and OPEN to the public. We've come a long way since President John F. Kennedy characterized politics as “a noble calling,” to today, when the nation's political system is routinely described as “dysfunctional” and the political atmosphere in Washington and Augusta as “poisonous.” Competition and cooperation co-exist in all healthy systems, side by side and sometimes cheek-by-jowl, to advance the system's purposes. Whether it is a forest ecosystem, the human body, a large bureaucracy, or an economic system, its elements compete for resources to meet their own needs, even as they act to contribute to the survival and persistence of the system itself. Somewhere along the way from the 1960s, the U.S. political system lost sight of this important principle, threatening its public credibility, trust, and purposes. Each speaker in the series will address these timely and important questions: How was politics “played” in earlier times in Maine and the nation? And, how has that changed today? How did this come about? What are the implications for the state and the nation of our continuing along this path? And, what will it take to change course? What does Maine have to offer the nation in this regard, based on our experience here? For more information, see <http://usm.maine.edu/muskie/politics-then-and-now> or contact Susan Morrow at 228-8181 or smorrow@usm.maine.edu

(GLAD) Gay & Lesbian Advocates & Defenders. To learn about and protect your rights under Maine's anti-discrimination law, visit GLAD's website at www.glad.org or call the free legal hotline at 1-800-455-GLAD (1-800-455-4523). GLAD is New England's legal rights organization dedicated to ending discrimination based on sexual orientation, HIV status and gender identity and expression. GLAD's legal victories in Maine have addressed HIV discrimination, harassment of gay students, co-guardianship rights for same-sex parents, domestic partner benefits and more. GLAD and EqualityMaine also presented a webinar to answer questions about marriage in Maine on December 14, 2012 which can be viewed here: <http://www.glad.org/current/item/marri/>

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or bocks@usm.maine.edu.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine GayNet Listserve. A long-running listserve for the Maine GLBTQ community which allows members to post notices, opinions, etc. (in a broadcast manner) to everyone else on the listserve. To join the Maine GayNet listserve, go to <http://groups.queernet.org/index.fcgi/info/me-gaynet>.

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Rubyfruit Cafe. A Maine-based, on-line, lesbian virtual community. Rubyfruit Cafe is a lesbian community magazine designed to showcase our lives, creativity, spirituality, politics, and much more. It is a website that will be driven by your submissions, your music, poetry, videos, photos, and stories. Show us where and how you live (show us your "crib") ... Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersex) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine only. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It's crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it! However, outside events (such as holiday fairs, festivals, the local chamber of commerce, etc.) that are not focused on the GLBTQI community and do not have a significant GLBTQI component will not be listed in the FAN.

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, no obscenity is allowed, and I reserve the right to not include a posting for any reason (although if I do reject a post, I will attempt to let you know the reason).

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Also, listings are posted with information as is submitted to me, and I do not verify them so have no independent knowledge of the accuracy, truth, or falsity of any posts, events, advertisements, job listings, rental listings, etc. Respond at your own risk. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
