THE TRANSITION....

A GROWING INSTITUTION

In the midst of the depression of the early thirties, a small group of local schoolmen became interested in providing additional education for high school graduates who did not have the means to further their education by attending outside institutions.

Their first problem was to locate a place to hold classes. Working with the trustees and staff of the Y.M.C.A., it was agreed that inexpensive college courses would be offered at this institution.

The fullest cooperation was given by the four colleges in Maine and Boston University to support this non-profit educational institution. Receiving a charter from the state, the college was opened to its first students.

Under the direction of Everett W. Lord, Dean of the Boston University College of Business Administration, five full-time instructors and several visiting professors from Boston University announced two freshman programs: one in Liberal Arts, acceptable to the Maine colleges, and one in Business Administration, identical with that of the freshman year at B.U. in Business Administration.

The very first year, seventy students registered. This year proved so successful, because of the excellent work achieved by these first year students, that Portland Junior College, in 1938, was accepted as an active member of the American Association of Junior Colleges, and in 1940 was recognized by the U. S. Office of Education as an accredited junior college that could be used by chemistry, physics, and biology students.

Future years will bring new interest in the University of Maine in Portland and many new students. Former students, alumni of Portland Junior College, will certainly look back with gratitude upon a past era, and, at the same time, share in the pride which we all take in becoming a part of a great university.

Charles E. Doughty
President of the Senior Class.

DEDICATION

DEAN LUTHER I. BONNEY

WE Dedicate . . . This premier edition of the UMPire, to the noblest of dedicated men, our retiring Dean, Luther I. Bonney, who, for fifty years has given freely and willingly of his life to the education of mankind.

The Dean was born in Turner, Maine, September 17, 1884, where he attended the local schools. He graduated as Valedictorian of his class with a Bates scholarship. He then attended Bates College and graduated Magna Cum Laude, and the proud possessor of a Phi Beta Kappa key.

What our beloved Dean has done for this proud institution can not be put into words, no matter how eloquently they may be presented. We can only hope that you, Dean Bonney, will find the next one-hundred years as happy and fruitful as the past 73 years of your life. To You . . . Our Deepest Admiration . . . Dean Luther I. Bonney.

SPORTS

COACH BALLOU

Mr. Ralph Ballou, Director of Physical Education and Athletics, is a graduate of Springfield College, class of 1950. He prepared for college at Ansonia High School in Connecticut. He attended Springfield College prior to serving in the Marine Corps during World War II. He was active in wrestling and the physical education program at Springfield College. He also did graduate work at the Berkeley Baptist Divinity School from 1950 to 1952, and holds a master's degree from Springfield College. After leaving Berkeley, he was made varsity wrestling coach and instructor of physical education at the University of Massachusetts during 1953 and 1954.

Mr. Ballou is married and has two children. He is interested in organizing a wrestling team and also in offering a major in physical education, here, at UMP.

SOCCER TEAM

This year marked the introduction of soccer as a competitive sport at UMP. Soccer is a little known sport in this area, but it is very popular in southern New England colleges and in the Ivy League. It is a game which requires teamwork, cooperation and endurance. Each team has eleven men; therefore at least twenty-two men must go out for the sport if it is to survive at UMP. This year's team played three outside games and although losing them, the team showed enthusiasm and good sportsmanship. It is hoped in the very near future that both football and soccer will be offered at UMP. Following are the results of this year's soccer games:

Brewster Academy	7	UMP	0
St. Francis Academy	5	UMP	0
St. Francis Academy	9	UMP	0

BASKETBALL TEAM

This season UMP won thirteen games and lost seven including the Southwestern Maine Small College Basketball Playoffs. Chipman, Caselden, and Briggs were standouts all season both on defense and offense, scoring 600 points among them. High scorer for the regular season was Chipman with 233 points. Team statistics show that UMP scored 1377 points as compared with 1365 scored by their opponents. The foul shooting average was .603 against .634.

This year's basketball five turned in one of the most impressive records the school has had in recent years. The men on the squad deserve a lot of credit for their outstanding sportsmanship and the excellent impression they gave of the University of Maine in Portland during its first year of existence.

This year's team had a fine record, winning four out of six matches played. The number of matches scheduled this year represented the most ambitious schedule ever undertaken by this school. It is unfortunate that inclement weather forced the cancellation of scheduled matches with Chamberlyne College of Massachusetts, Nichols Junior College, and Gorham State Teachers' College.

Unlike most other sports, the success of a golf match depends on individual play rather than team effort. Every member of the team deserves a "well-done" for his determination to win for the University of Maine in Portland.

BASEBALL

The beginning of the baseball season found the University of Maine in Portland fielding a potentially strong team. However, as the season progressed, it was evident that lack of a home field and practise facilities were hurting the ball club. It is hoped that this condition will be remedied in the near future.

The team made a good showing against the University of Maine Freshmen although losing 8-3. In their last game they defeated a strong M.V.T.I. team 14-4. The top offensive player was Bob Brueck, who hit .350 for the season.

The men on the club are to be congratulated for their spirit and determination against tremendous odds.

THE CIRCLE K CLUB

One of our more illustrious endeavors on campus is our Circle K Club under the faculty guidance of Dean Bonney. The object of this club is to emphasize the advantages of the American way of life. It provides educational opportunities for young men to develop aggressive citizenship and the spirit of service for improvement of all human relationships.

The Circle K received its charter from the Kiwanis Club in 1953, and was the first such club to receive one from the Kiwanis in New England. In 1956, the Circle K became part of the international organization.

OUTGOING PRESIDENT OF CIRCLE K,
Clifford L. Andreasen

The Circle K is a service organization, similar to, but not an integral part of the Kiwanis Club. They have put on many social functions here on campus, such as the Spaghetti Supper, last November 23rd, a Clam Supper, the Beavers' Ball, and a Spring Outing, June 1st. All of these activities were highly successful. Over 200 people attended the Beavers' Ball. This proved to be one of the social highlights of the season.

This year, the Circle K has initiated the Dean Bonney Loan Fund for students entering the University of Maine in Portland. They deposited $100 into this fund to get the ball rolling. The Circle K also supplied books for our Hungarian refugee student, Bela Lenkei. We hope that the Circle K in future years will keep up the same high caliber of work as exemplified by them in the past.

OUTING CLUB

To this organization belong the hardy, hirsute devotees of field, forest, mountain and great shining waters. This year's activities began in October with a "cook-out" at Ken Taylor's camp at Little Sebago Lake. The following month saw the group on a hunting expedition in the vicinity of Cary Pond. The major winter project of the club was the spectacular and highly successful Winter Carnival (see pages 86 and 87). In May the group returned to Cary Pond, this time for fishing. This year's members compared favorably with those of past years in their zest for the Great-Out-Doors, and all concerned seemed to benefit from the club's activities.

BIG GAME, for the "Great White Hunters."

Which way did them revenooers go, Clem?

Return of the natives!

"Al" and canine friend.

KNEELING: Manduca and Denbow. STANDING: Safford, President; Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Spallholz, and Lenkei.

LONGHAIR CLUB

This is one of the oldest clubs on campus. Every year it caters to the tastes of those students who want to acquire a better appreciation for the works of the "great masters", from Purcell to Stravinsky. Meetings are very informal and semi-social in nature. The group this year has met several times in the home of Mr. Goff, the faculty adviser, and once at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spallholz. Recordings of great works are played and discussed, and the meetings usually terminate with refreshments.

This year the club had no formally elected officials, but Page Safford acted as group chairman. No request for money was made to the Student Council since the club already possesses a good number of records. Moreover, Mr. Goff made available to the members, his own sizeable collection. In April some of the members went to Boston to hear the opera Faust performed by the Metropolitan Opera Company.

STUDENT MODERATORS, Dick Turcotte and Jack Arsenault.

RADIO - TV CLUB

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, welcome to Jazz and Chatter from U.M.P." This was a familiar greeting to those who tuned in WPOR radio Saturday nights during the school year. At 8:00 p.m. every Saturday night Jack Arsenault and Dick Turcotte played jazz records and discussed a current topic of interest.

It was a half hour show with discussion subjects distinctly varied. Guests on their program included: Don Fergeson, popular jazz man of South Portland; faculty members, U.M.P. Clubs, and students.

At Christmas time the new U.M.P. Glee Club made its debut on "Jazz and Chatter", singing a selection of favorite carols.

Wednesday evenings on WGAN, Mr. John F. Jaques, faculty adviser to the Staff, announced and moderated "The University of Maine on the Air". As their theme, the "Maine Stein Song", faded into the background, students and faculty guests talked over a topic of national interest.

Television activities were limited this year because of the busy schedule affecting both students and faculty, produced by the transition. However, Jerry Kendall and Cliff Andreasen did hold up the TV end of the Staff by appearing as guests of Jane Lawton on her "Along Maine Street" program (WGAN-TV). They discussed the Winter Carnival, held in February.

FRANK MANDUCA
General Chairman,
Jazz Symphony

Advising the Jazz Club this year again, as he has done in past years, was Economics instructor, Mr. Thomas E. Gay, Jr.

Fall elections saw the position of president taken by Don Chenard; Vice President, Mike Nicholas; Secretary, Frank Morrison; Treasurer, Howard Passman.

November 8th at 8:00 p.m. was an evening to be remembered by U.M.P. jazz fans; for it was an "Evening in Jazz", a well attended dance sponsored by this club. Don Doane and his quintet, including Al Doane, Joe LaFlamme, Charlie "Yardbird" Parker, and Jerry Cohen, provided some fine dancing music. The added attractions were a special jazz concert during the intermission, and the giving away of several jazz albums as door prizes.

On May 18 the Jazz Club had its major project of the year, "The Northeast Jazz Symphony of 1958". This event, held in the university auditorium, proved to be one of the finest entertainments of the entire school year. Great credit goes to Frank Manduca, General Manager of the affair, as well as to all the other Jazz Club members. The program consisted of four jazz groups: the Don Doane Sextet, the Gene Whiting Quartet, the Claude Noel Trio, and the Conwell-Pillsbury Double Duet. A large audience of nearly two hundred people showed keen appreciation for the professional talent and skill of these renowned musicians. The entire program was devoted to the new progressive variety of jazz in which a theme is presented and developed through many variations and rhythm patterns enhanced by harmonic progressions and striking modulations. It is certainly to be hoped that a similar program may be presented once again here on campus next year.

JAZZ CLUB

CAMERA CLUB

Under the capable leadership of Louis Gervais, President; Allen Levinsky, Vice-President; Robert Denbow (1st semester), Robert Tracy (2nd semester), Secretary; Edwin Radford, Treasurer, the Camera Club provided pictures for every U.M.P. activity.

During the year many new pieces of photographic equipment were added to the club's well stocked darkroom. Among them were: one light meter, two floodlamps and stands, and a dark room timer. The members also acquired the loan of a Speed Graphic Press Camera, started a library of technical photographic books, and subscribed to the U. S. Camera magazine. With these new additions to the club, members in following years should have a fine foundation for picture taking and processing.

Working hand in hand with the yearbook staff, the club members have produced many photographs for this book. Pictures of the Dean, faculty, and the freshman students in this first UMPIre, were taken by members of a well-organized and progressive club.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Under the directorship of Mr. Phillip Cole, history instructor, 28 men formed the International Relations Club and elected officers, shortly before Christmas recess.

At this first meeting, late in the fall semester, the gentlemen felt they knew each other well enough to nominate and elect the best men as their leaders. This they did. Heading the club in key positions were Richard W. Turcotte, President; Jerry B. Fisher, Vice-President; Robert Smith, Treasurer; Harry Slotki, Secretary; and Allen Levinsky, Corresponding Secretary.

The club's purpose is to provide a forum for student opinions, to enhance their understanding of the peoples of the world, and to give them a desire for community service.

As the year wore on, membership declined somewhat. However, this drop-out only proved how many were sincerely interested in active membership.

During the second semester the club gained charter membership in the Association of International Relations Clubs of New York, New York. The Association provided materials and services, including program suggestions, bulletins, magazines, and periodicals.

The club engaged radio time on WGAN. Members discussed current international topics with their faculty adviser, Mr. Cole.

A greater membership is expected for next year's club as a result of the fine foundation this year's group has made.

GLEE CLUB

Leo Daniels
Director

Peter Hay
Librarian

Don Rumery
Assistant
Librarian

When a call for students to form a men's singing club went out from Bob Bruns early in October, his request was answered by a well spirited turnout.

Glee Clubs have been attempted in the past when this college was known as P.J.C., but have had little success in sticking together. What has happened this year? Perhaps the transition has imbued students with a stronger school spirit. Perhaps they knew the student-director, Leo Daniels, to be a capable leader in the field of music. Whatever the stimulus—it was powerful!

The Glee Club made its public debut at the November 20th assembly. Under the direction of Daniels, the group sang two selections: "Your Land and My Land", and the "Maine Stein Song". At the Christmas Assembly, a selection of favorite carols were sung by the club. Soloists were Peter Hay, Don Chenard and Leo Daniels.

Being a newly formed club, they required a charter. Under a charter committee headed by Don Chenard and Bob Bruns, and assisted by Frank Morrison, Jerry Kendall, Jack Linnell, Don Rumery, Mike Shapiro, and Carl Murphy, a Glee Club Charter was drawn up.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

PUBLIC RELATIONS COUNCIL

This year saw the formation of the first Public Relations Council here on campus. The Student Council named Robert North and Lloyd Momborquette as Co-chairmen, assisted by Jerry Kendall. The council worked in cooperation with the editors of the school publications, Student Council, and the secretaries of the various clubs. The clubs found it easier to obtain coverage of their events as did the other activities on campus. Feature articles for newspapers were done on a number of students; pictures of school activities were placed almost weekly in newspapers. The highlight of the council's year was the Winter Carnival. As early as October, plans were being drawn up for state-wide coverage by radio, television and newspapers; weekly committee meetings were held to bring in new ideas and discuss all possible details of publicity and coverage of the carnival. When Winter Carnival time rolled around, people knew about it. The time and energy put into the preparations proved well worth the trouble. The overall success of the committee, we believe, has paved the way for future committees to do a better job informing the students, the parents, and the community as to the work and activities being carried on at the college.

BLOOD BANK COMMITTEE

"This bank must not fail", is the motto of this newly organized club at the University of Maine in Portland. Under the leadership of Joe Gwarjanski, chairman, and Mr. John Jaques, faculty adviser, a blood bank was formed for the benefit of all eligible students and their immediate families. Eligibility dues: one pint of blood. As of January 1, 1958, this bank has been very successful in maintaining its monthly quota of donors, therefore keeping an adequate supply of blood on hand at the Maine Medical Center. It is a worthwhile club for a tremendously worthwhile cause. See you at the blood bank!

THE PORTLAND CAMPUS NEWS

Under the capable guidance of Mr. John Jaques, the Portland Campus News, newly inaugurated this year, has been a complete success as a college newspaper publication. It has seen two editors, Norm Fournier and Jack Linnell, share the responsibility of putting out a bi-monthly newspaper. The Portland Campus has featured such events as the political campaigns here on campus last October, the Glee Club debut in our college auditorium in December, the Winter Carnival, the Beavers' Ball, plus many other outstanding feature articles.

Interesting features and by-lines were put forth by such capable writers as Kilt Saunders, Ernie Bradbury, Frank Morrison, Harvey Jacobson, Dana Nason, Jack Linnell, Lloyd Momborquette, Norm Fournier, Eddie Rogers, Mike Shapiro, Bob Denbow, Clint Hagan, and many other resourceful pencil-pushers.

We hope that in the future the Portland Campus will continue to be as well-presented and resourceful in gathering news as it has been in the past year of its existence.

JOE MICHAUD

LOUIS GERVAIS

THE NEWSANCE

This mimeographed newspaper in miniature was distributed at assemblies or from the cafeteria counters every Wednesday, with few exceptions, throughout the school year. It served a useful purpose in providing publicity concerning diversified college affairs. The paper contained announcements of interest to both students and faculty concerning coming events. It also served as a vehicle for commentaries and reviews of recent happenings on campus. Much of the appeal of the paper stems from its wholly informal, and at times, even flippant tone. This characteristic gave the Newsance a genuine quality which seemed to ring true, reflecting as it did the enthusiasm and high spirit of the students. Although the paper has no pretensions to literary excellence, some of the articles do show very careful thinking and clever use of English.

Although various students worked on the paper throughout the year, some of them performing indispensable jobs, main credit must go to this year's three editors: Louis Gervais, Joe Michaud, and Dick Henderson.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN ...

PRIVATE PARTY, NATURALLY!

JUNE WRIGHT, shown beaming brightly after being crowned Queen of the 1958 Winter Carnival at the University of Maine in Portland.

WINTER CARNIVAL - 1958

The annual Winter Carnival was held on the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of February, 1958. The festivities began with snow-sculpturing. The judges from the School of Applied Arts found the "Dumbo" elephant entry of The Circle K to be the best.

The evening of the 21st found the students out on a hayride in Yarmouth. A "Plaid Shirt" dance was held afterwards in Wescustigo Grange Hall. Don Gordon and his band provided the music.

Saturday morning and afternoon were set aside to decorate the gym for the ball. The Coronation Ball was the event at which the Carnival Queen was chosen. Queen June Wright was chosen by Bill Clark, cartoonist from the Guy Gannett Publishing Co.; Mrs. Spallholz, a member of the college secretarial staff; and Mr. Alfred Clarke, faculty adviser for the Outing Club. The candidates were June Wright, Linda Bean, Sheila Quinn, Elaine Vassar, Maureen McDonough, Carolyn Johnson, Sue Parmalee, Judy Hopkins, Delores Chenard, Louise Doane, Sonia Garon, Donna Oppedisano and Christine Merrill. Nate Gold and his orchestra supplied the music and Leo Daniels and his quartet supplied the vocalizing.

Festivities closed Sunday at the Purpoodock Club where saucer races, tobogganing, skiing, snowball fights with the faculty, and plenty of refreshments were featured.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THIS first publication of the UMPire marks the beginning of a new era. It is the unfolding of an era which has seen the noble name of Portland Junior College pass away to make room for the birth of a new institution, the University of Maine in Portland.

In this premier edition of the UMPire, I sincerely hope that you, the students, faculty, and friends, enjoy reminiscing the past events of the years 1957 and 1958, with me and my staff as your guides. We hope that the pages of this yearbook bring joy to your hearts.

As Editor-in-Chief of the 1958 UMPire, it is with deep gratitude that I offer my heartfelt thanks to the following people: first, to Kenneth R. Taylor, who so freely offered his time for the procurement of advertising for this yearbook; I would also like to thank the members of the Camera Club for their generous help and cooperation; and special thanks is due to Mrs. Charlotte McCormick, Richard J. Kendall, and to the Portland Lithograph Company, for their help and guidance.

I would further like to offer my gratitude to our faculty adviser, Mr. E. B. Fred Clark, and to fellow staff members. And so, I humbly offer you, the reader, this premier edition of the UMPire, the yearbook of the University of Maine, in Portland.

YOUR EDITOR,

Frank Morrison
